This year the Students' Council actively and successfully organized many school activities. Under the leadership of Mark Prazoff, the Council forged ahead to bring to Wagar a great winter carnival, drivers' education, numerous dances and movies. Without the help of Vice-President Jackie Cohen, Co-ordinator Hymie Schildkraut, Secretary Allen Krasnick, and Treasurer Jack Presser none of these great events would have been possible.

WAGAR WATCH

This year the "Wagar Watch" has been completely revolutionized. Rather than establish a miniature "New York Times", the editorial staff strove to create a magazine. To perpetuate this image and to achieve some sort of aesthetic appeal, the Wagar Watch boasted coloured-photo covers on most editions. Furthermore topics of a more general nature rather than trite news items have been included. The Watch attempts to entertain the reader with satirical reviews and to serve as a medium in which the students can fully express their opinions.

At the successful Christmas Concert, we were honoured with a visit from Santa Claus (without the reindeer.)

We hope that the members of the bands will profit by their musical education.

Junior Red Cross provides a channel for communication with young people in other lands. This year's activities included: movies, basketball games, a Christmas collection of food and clothing, penny drives, health kits, cookie and fudge sales, and the traditional "National Gorilla Suit Day" drawing. The featured project was a blood donor clinic and Wagar pledged $950 to the Montreal Children's Hospital. Wagar's Red Cross programme this year was successful and enriching to those who participated.

G.C.O.

The Graduating Class Organization, the official voice of the graduating students, successfully organized the Grad Dance and Banquet, the sale of Grad rings, and other projects.

The Banquet was held at the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel. The Dance itself was a great success. Wagar's version of the Academy Awards were given out to the Grads as a reminder of the good old days at Wagar.

This club was organized at Wagar this year for the first time under the aegis of the History Department. The Meet your World Club provided experiences in living history. The popularity of the club necessitated having two groups, in level three only. Emphasis was placed on Canadian themes. A few of the many worthwhile experiences consisted of an excursion to Old Montreal; a visit by Constable Brault of the R.C.M.P.; a discussion meeting led by Sister Norris of Marymount High School. The members of the club showed great interest and all participated with enthusiasm to make this new venture a success.

The Senior Math Club entered several members in the Canadian Mathematical Congress. Another project was a tour of the IBM Building.

As Prelude goes to the presses, the Junior Math Club has just received its charter. They are not sure of any future plans, but it is assumed that the members will enjoy the activities that will be planned by the Junior Math Club executive.

As in the past, Tournaments have played a prominent role in the programme of Wagar's Bridge Club. The executive tried to promote Bridge playing in the school by holding tournaments every three weeks. Early in the year activities included a trip to the Mackay Center for Deaf and Crippled Children as well as an inspiring speech given by Mr. Haack on "Teaching in Africa". Furthermore the F.T.Q. is pleased to report that its members were given the chance to practise teaching in the local public schools and in level I at Wagar.

PUBLIC SPEAKING and DEBATING

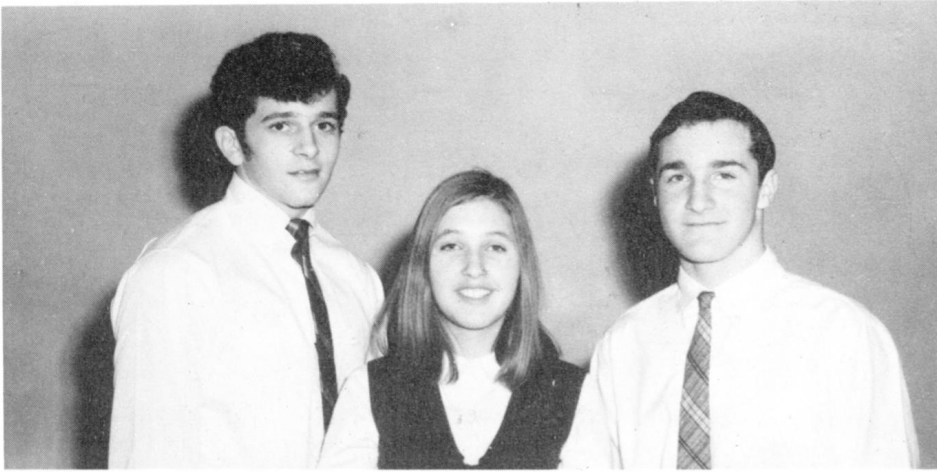

M. Hoffman, S. Hoffman, N. Rosen (Pres.), Mr. Romaine (advisor), M. Braun, M. Frankel, I. Fisher.

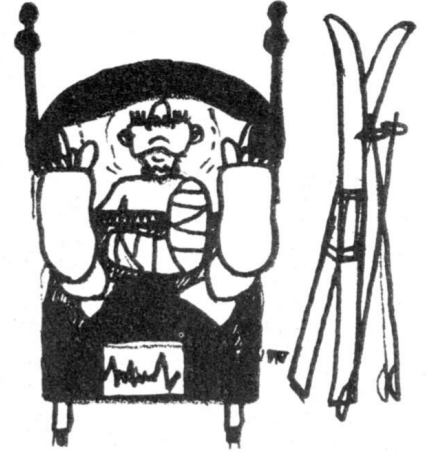

The Public Speaking and Debating Club, initiated last year, has continued giving Wagarites the opportunity to debate. As well, it has given them the occasion to participate in public speaking by sponsoring numerous public speaking contests. At their meetings the club's members acquainted themselves with the fundamentals of the art of public speaking and debating.

SKI CLUB

Steve Feder, Barbara Kirshner, Mark Egan.

Armed with skis, poles, bandages, splints and crutches, these avid ski fans have swept the slopes of Mont Echo, Mont Habitant and Jay Peak. This year the membership was increased to such an extent that the club met with much success. A dinner and dance was held at La Reserve Ski Lodge as a finale to the skiing season.

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

The Amateur Radio Club, under the leadership of President Arnie Baker, hopes its members have become well-informed in the field of Amateur Radio. Its members have been occupied in the study of principles and skills in the field of radio science. Neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet, have kept Wagar's couriers of good cheer from their appointed rounds. In all types of weather, they bravely cheered our football and basketball teams in their half-time shows, combining great artistry, matchless beauty and a sense of precision which rivalled the Radio City Music Hall's famed Rockettes, their exquisite displays were the highlights of many Wagar's sports events. A new innovation this year, was the Pep Team, who, stationed in the bleachers at basketball games, led the students in their response to the cheers of the cheerleaders.

PROJECT AFRICA

PROJECT AFRICA WEEK, inspired by Mr. Haack, was initiated this year by the student body as a whole. The purpose of this project was to send books to the town of Akrapong-Akwapim in Ghana, Africa, and, so far, over one thousand books have been sent to Aukwappamin High School. The chief organizers of this project sincerely hope their efforts will be continued on an annual basis.

The Drama Society made history when Wagar's first full-scale musical production, the Broadway classic, 'Oklahoma' was presented this year. Under the direction of Mrs. Sherman and assisted by Mrs. Rosenstein, Mrs. Ghory, and Mr. Jordan, the play met with overwhelming success.

The lively music included songs such as: 'O What a Beautiful Morning', 'Oklahoma', 'Surrey With the Fringe on Top', and 'People Will Say We're in Love'. Many thanks to Mr. Cottam who helped with the piano accompaniment which was a credit to this fine production.

The Drama Society scored another first in Wagar's history when it incorporated the orchestra. Under the direction of Mr. Pellow and Mrs. Wood, the orchestra became an essential factor in the success of the play.

The costumes, designed under the supervision of Miss Parrish, added a colourful note to the play. The scenery and set direction under Miss Irigo also contributed to the effect. A special thanks should go to Mr. Sutherland and Wagar's stage crew for a fine job on lighting and sound effects.

Much is to be attributed to the talented players and their enthusiasm which helped produce the play.

KING

This year's Winter Carnival was the best one ever held at Wagar. "Radio Wagar" was back for the week to keep everyone informed of the latest developments.

The week began with a basketball game between the McGill Junior Varsity team and the Senior Wagar team. Next on the agenda was a sock hop. The entertainment was provided by "Group Therapy". Wednesday the vised room was packed to hear the performance of Brownie MaGhee and Will Scarlet. The trip to Belle Neige on Thursday afternoon was probably the best activity of the week. (Before coming home from the skiing and tobogganing, Dee Higgins and Freddie the bus driver put on a concert.) Friday, the movie "Our Man Flint" was shown.

The Carnival ended Saturday evening at the Coronation Ball, where "B plus 3" and "The Montreal Philharmonic Holocaust" supplied the music. The highlight of the dance was the crowning of the royalty:

King - Irwin Abrahams
Queen - Mindy Gordon
Prince - Charlie Schwartzman
Princess - Sylvia Kritzberg

Thanks to all who contributed towards making our carnival the success it was.
