

activities

1

2

STUDENT COUNCIL

By the crack of a whip, we became presidents of this society, we have come to acknowledge as Wagar. The society we began to govern is that of laziness and apathy. We feel that we have started a new dawn of rejuvenation for student activities. Overcoming numerous obstacles we have finally satisfied the population of Wagar with an overwhelmingly successful dance thus proving that Wagar students have the potential to attain greatness. We feel that the future of our society lies in the hands of our future Student council presidents, to whom we wish the best success in governing. This year has proved a major step in achieving a perfect Utopian school government where apathy has been abolished from the system. Our new dual-presidential system has contributed to this step. We hope we have set a political precedent in future Wagar politics.

Your presidents,

Vice Prezs' Message

People always look at us, and then say "Randy . . . Naomi . . . , why are you guys on the Student Council?" Or else they say "Randy . . . Naomi . . . , "What are you doing for us, the student body?" After giving these brilliant questions a considerable amount of thought, we feel that it is at this time we should explain ourselves. Could it be that we enjoy spending our lunch hours looking at unsold chocolate bars? Could it be that we like selling Wagar Jackets to ourselves? Or maybe it's the satisfaction of knowing that 2/3 of the student body slept right through Winter Carnival? Exactly what it is, we don't know. We leave it up to you.

Naomi Blicher - Vice President
Randy Goldberg - 2nd Vice

Presidents: Kenny Nathens, Doug Reim. Vice President: Naomi Blicher. 2nd Vice President: Randy Goldberg. Treasurer: Gordie Arbess. Secretary: Manjula Misra

NERD DAY

Nerd Day? "Why Nerd Day?" they asked. Well, in response, Wagar's finest student council responded with an overwhelming "Why not? Hat Day never works!" October 31 represented a typical day at Wagar except for all those people who participated in Nerd Day. These brave souls dropped the equestrian polo mallet for the day in favour of clothing that would make Alfred E. Newman proud. Congratulations to all those who won the event as well as to everyone else who participated. It takes one to know one!

GCO

Looking at all these happy faces, I'm sure you can guess that these are graduating students, who can't wait to leave our wonderful school. These grads are so excited to leave Wagar after five years, that they are planning our '85 graduation. And what a grad it will be! The organization has raised money for the highly anticipated affair, by holding bake sales, an exciting raffle drive, etc . . . Graduates continued the tradition of purchasing grad rings, both the traditional and modern rings. On Thursday night, May 23, our graduates will don their finest attire, while dining and dancing at the posh Sheraton Centre Hotel. I'm sure it will be a fun, wild, and memorable evening for every graduating student at Wagar. Thanks to our advisors, Ms. Adams and Mr. Feigen for helping us plan our grad. I'm sure each and every graduate will miss this great school, the teachers and even the students.

Gordie Arbess

WINTER CARNIVAL

This year's Winter Carnival was a great success.

The fun kicked off with a Valentine's Day dance, and to our surprise many people from Wagar were actually there. Everyone can attest that the dance was long overdue and succeeded beyond their wildest expectations. The dance was highlighted by some of Wagar's most notable sex symbols whose hairy legs & Hawaiian tans stunned us all.

The next day, there was a wide variety of activities to delight and amuse Wagar's populace. The rugged nature enthusiasts among us trekked to Mt. Tremblant for a refreshing day of skiing in sub-zero weather.

Those more interested in high-tech spent the morning vaporizing cosmic invaders and gruesome ghosts at Amusements Pinocchio. Although the students enjoyed themselves, the teachers had the best time showing off their pinball wizardry. Wagarites who have always craved their own set of wheels got it at the Paladium. These lucky students had a chance to develop their roller-skating skills and work up their appetites for the scrumptious meal which was later served in the school cafeteria.

And let us not forget the ice skaters who had a chance to strut their stuff at the understated yet elegant Samuel Moscovitch arena.

Then all except the skiers were reunited to collapse in utter exhaustion in the plush seats of Wagar's auditorium. There, they were treated to a celebrity screening of "Revenge of the Nerds"

All in all, the 1985 Winter Carnival was an overwhelming success which can be credited to the hard work & dedication of the Student Council.

OPEN HOUSE

Once again, Wagar held its annual "Open House" on Wednesday, January 30, 1985, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The Open House was to show parents and friends projects the students grade 7-11 made in the first part of the school year. Among these projects were assignments in French, English, Math, Economics, MRE, History, Mass Media, T.D, Fine Arts, Geography, Computer Science, Political Science and Business Education. There were displays in the lobby window and in the library. A basketball game was held in the gymnasium, and a band performance in the Auditorium. Thanks to Miss Ebbett and the many others who participated in the event, Open House was a great success.

THE STRATFORD FESTIVAL

In the fall of 1984, 42 students and 3 very brave teachers (Miss Rosenberg, Mr. Zelniker and Ms. Candib) set out for 3 glorious days at the Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Ontario.

Arriving at the Queen's Hotel at about 4:00 P.M. The group had to hurry to be in time for the first of the three plays that they were going to see.

The students laughed through Moliere's Tartuffe, cried through Romeo and Juliet and slept through The Merchant of Venice. But along with this cultural experience was the good time shared by all, whether it was going out for dinner with friends, shopping or just hanging around the Hotel. On the way home, a trip was paid to the Ontario science Museum and then a quick stop at McDonalds before going home and collapsing.

THE SHAW FESTIVAL

On October 1st, 1984, a busload of eager students headed toward that crazy honeymoon city of Niagara Falls, to attend the Shaw Festival. After a quick stop and nose bleed at a local friendly restaurant, we headed to the theatre to see Célimage, a play which we all enjoyed. The play was a French comedy and most of us really liked it. After a hectic night of Chinese food, the now less eager students toured the streets of Niagara-On-the-Lake before the second play, The Devil's Disciple. This play by George Bernard Shaw was studied in class prior to our trip. Seeing it on stage made us appreciate it even more. After this second presentation, Wagar's finest crossed over the Rainbow Bridge with Al to feast on American cuisine and t-shirts. After a rough border crossing, we were all ready for the third play, a musical called Roberta which we did not enjoy very much. The morning after the night before saw the now uneager students boarding the bus for home, tired and discouraged with the thought of another nine months of school.

REACH FOR THE TOP

FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: Lianne Singer, Allen Mendelsohn, Elliott Zeitz, and Lorne Wiesenfeld

Hail to the glorious gladiators of Wagar's Reach for the Top team. This year's intense ensemble of Wagar intelligencia have reached the top in Quebec. The 1985 squad consisted of Al "chicks dig me" Mendelsohn, Lorne "WESTmount" Wiesenfeld, Elliott "Repo Man" Zeitz and the ever lovely Lianne "Socks" Singer. The carnage commenced with the obliteration of the entertaining Rosemount team. The next victim was the spunky Laurentian Regional organization. Wagar rolled to the second league championship by stomping on the D'Arcy McGee d'Hull club. Due to Bialik's unfortunate withdrawal, the stage was set for an explosive round-robin tourney. The Wagar squad was temporarily set back by an unexpected loss to Lasalle Protestant. Despite the loss, this talented group of individuals bounced back in their next game by trouncing the friendly Malcolm Cambell team. With this win, Wagar was prepared to seek justice against Lasalle in the Quebec championship game. With a stunning come-from-behind victory, Wagar triumphantly took its rightful place as Quebec champions. Under the guidance of their outstanding coaches, Ms. Cox and Mrs. Sherman, assisted by Fernando Donoso and the loyal buzzing staff, the Repo team was ready to proudly represent the Province of Quebec in the national finals of Reach, this year to be held somewhere in the Maritimes (Moncton, N.B.)

Allen Mendelsohn
Elliott Zeitz

84/85
QUEBEC
CHAMPIONS

WAGAR/COLLEGE HEIGHTS EXCHANGE 85

For many of Wagar's band members, this will be the last of 4 memorable years of musically oriented experiences.

We will never forget waking up to the many moans and squeaks of the early morning music room. Trying to catch up on missed sleep, only to be rudely awakened by the first scale, was a unique way to start off the day.

At 12:30, the music room transformed itself into our own cafeteria complete with good food and mellow jazz in the background.

After school, senior band practice was a learning experience. We quickly acquired the talents to read lips, catch up on gossip, and attempt to play our instruments, all at the same time.

Evenings were too often spent trying to raise money, through bottle drives, sales and car washes, followed by a quick visit to Tasty Food's.

Last year, with this money, we were able to take a trip to the musical & social capital of Canada: Bathurst, N.B. Spending two fun-filled evenings at the Atlantic Host Hotel.

This year, thanks to the infinite (!?) generosity of the Canadian Government, the band was flown to Prince George, B.C., on an exchange with College Heights Secondary School. Among the many tourist attractions that we visited were: City Hall, an agricultural farm, museums, and Mt. Purdin for an exciting day of skiing. The following week was spent touring, shopping, and PARTYING in Montreal. No one could have imagined the close friendships that were developed in such a short time. After a tear-filled good-bye, the bands were left with many fond memories and the prospect of a very expensive phone bill. Special thanks goes to Mr. McEwen, Miss Ebbett, the office staff, and school administration for helping to make this trip a success. In particular we'd like to thank Mr. Wright for everything he's done in making the past 4 years more enjoyable.

Robert Coplan
 Irwin Fried
 Kathy Buch

SENIOR BAND

BOTTOM ROW: Ricky, Karen, Robert, Shaun, Sandy, Terri, Ruth; 2ND ROW: Jeff, Jamie, Wally; STAND-
ING: Joseph, Oliver, Rob, Anita, Tom, Nancy, Irwin, Bronna, Joy, Karen, Neil, Gordie; REAR: Mr. Wright,
Danny, Michael, Andrew, Sheri; ABS: Kathy, Geoff, Steve, Andrea, Erica, Lisa, Lorne, Elyse, Ray

CHOIR

FRONT: Sandy, Joy, Karen, Terri, Orly, Nancy, Bronna; STANDING: Neil, Rob, Jamie, Jeff, Shawn, Ricky, Ruth, Mr. Wright; ABS: Kathy, Steve, Tom

JAZZ BAND

FRONT: Ruth, Karen, Ricky, Jamie, Jeff, Wally; REAR: Mr. Wright, Jennifer, Michael, Rob, Tom, Nancy, Irwin; ABS: Geoff, Steve, Elyse

Radio Wagar DJ Jimmy April.

THE STIFF BROTHERS

TOP: J. Dankner, J. Wainberg BOTTOM: J. Burt, P. Cutler, I. Borenheim.

The Stiff Brothers are an exclusive group of young men determined to make it only one way: wild and rich.

THE SHORT CLUB

Made up of a group of highly short people, the Short Club was established to protect them from the comic geniuses who roam Wagar's halls. With their studies in human genetics and bionic engineering, they hope to be able to pool their own resources and build one giant human being. Because their funds were running a little short, they weren't able to complete all their experiments and the results can clearly be seen in the accompanying photo. Please don't try this at home.

Shortest: E. Groschler, L. Bornstein Middle: C. Mizrahi, A. Groschler Tallest (by far): P. Wright ABSENT: Papa Smurf

FRONT: J. Ruby, L. Biltis; BACK: S. Shein,
J. Zafran, I. Salsberg, Jill, Ali, Manjula, E.
Savelson, L. Herlin

JUNIOR DEBATING CLUB

LIBRARY AIDS

R. Nayer, A. Lee, I. Snyders, S. Sternthal, M.
Frydenberg, A. Levine, Librarian: C. Dhillon, Absent:
S. Vineberg

REPO CLUB

A lattice of coincidence, and a darn good film, have brought together this unlikely band of lovers of fine cinema. The film in question was the cult classic of 1984 - Repo Man. This group of movie-goers would gather at a member's home and dine upon plates o' shrimp, tasteos and drink and then view the film as if it were a religious rite. The practice of the science of Dioretix, matter over mind, heightened the consciousness of this group. Through the guidance of Otto, Bud, and of course Miller, the club gained a new respect for '66 Chevy Malibus, the Circle Jerks, Pine-Aire fresheners, metal hands and the Repo Code which has become their maxim of life. Who can say where the intense Repo Club will go? The future? The past? Who knows? Yet may they always travel in the trunk of a '66 Malibu.

Elliot Zeitz, Allen Mendelsohn

Repo Men: Elliott "Otto Parts" Zeitz, Al "Miller" Mendelsohn, Ignacio "Legarto" Donoso and Lorne "J.F. Parnell" Wiesefeld. Repo Wives: Elyse Levin, Lianne Singer, Astrid Zimmer, Naomi Blicher, Stefani Ansky.

TWINS CLUB

Older twins: E. Blydt-Hansen, A. Groschler, W. Mendelsohn.

Younger twins: M. Mendelsohn, E. Groschler, T. Blydt-Hansen.

THE CHESS CLUB

FRONT: R. Goldberg, T. Amar, D. Joffe, R. Toledano.
BACK: H. Wong, Y. Chan, S. Sheim, N. Kalekas, D. Baum,
J. Zafran. ABSENT: A. Straisfeld.

BACKGAMMON CLUB

H. Wong, Y. Chan
ABSENT: Everyone else.