LONDON TRIP

THE FIRST STEPS WE TOOK WERE WITH THE RIGHT FEET.
WE ARRIVED IN LONDON AT THE CRACK OF DAWN.
WE LEFT OUR STUFF IN THE HOTEL AND THEN ENTERED A
CAFE "DAY AND NIGHT"
IGOR GREETED US AT THE DOOR AND SERVED US STUFF
THAT CAME RIGHT OFF THE FLOOR.
WE SAT FOR HOURS THEN TOOK SHOWERS.
WE SHOPPED FOR DAYS AND SAW PLAYS AT NIGHT.
THE PICTURES WE TOOK ARE OUT OF SIGHT.
OUR TOURS WERE GOOD, STRATFORD WAS A BLAST.
THE TIRING RIDE HOME DIDN'T GO FAST.
ALL IN ALL WE HAD A GREAT TIME.
THANKS TO ALL THE TEACHERS!

STRATFORD TRIP

The wheels of the bus go round and round. And round. And round. And round yet again, for eight hours straight, with the exception of a short stop outside Kingston, at a Mcdonalds that hasn't done business since the last Stratford trip. Our faithful bus driver, Marcel, delivered us to 123 Albert Place, the most exclusive hotel in all of Stratford, Ontario. We saw three plays during our trip; My Fair Lady (fun, but never ending), a modern version of Taming of the Shrew (very entertaining), and Two Gentlemen of Verona (YAWN!) The 1988 Stratford Festival (or should we say shopping festival?) was highlighted by many a non-academic event. Sleeping? What's that? And many "Do you remembers?" Such as Cory roaming the halls with his glass of "scope", Tania's surprise 17th birthday party (which lasted all of 10 minutes), Tim Horton's, Michael S. getting caught in the bar downstairs, Miss Rosenberg roaming the halls in her multi-colored robe (my kingdom for a pair of sunglasses). And last but not least, Avrom and Michael R.'s "bathtub goodies". Miss Rosenberg, Miss Karp, thanx for the great trip.

STUDENT COUNCIL MESSAGE

Do you know us? Most of Wagar's students don't. We're your hard working Student Council Executive, and unlike our fellow politicians (Fidel Castro, Yasser Arafat, Muammer Khadafi, Brian Mulroney, etc . . .), we don't get half the media attention we deserve.

In Wagar's twenty-fifth year, we were proud to have brought the students all the fun they deserved. Dances, in the Wagar tradition, were chaotic pleasure parties (whips, chips, chains, dips). Halloween day was a success, allowing students to live out their wildest fantasies. They were able to disguise themselves and terrorize teachers. Many a pumpkin was brutally carved . . . With the Wagar spirit in its current state of frenzy, we are presently anticipating a wild and wonderful Winter Carnival. Many Students were missing the day after the Comedy fest, and some report the absences were due to embarrassment after severe seat wetting. And our tribute to the Chocolate bar sale: John Broadbent, homeroom 203, you STILL owe us $30.00!

Thus, it's been a good year. Thanks to the administration, Mr. Forman, and the student body. If none of you had existed, the year could have been even better . . . Have a safe summer, but make it an enjoyable one.

A WEEK IN THE LIFE AT WAGAR

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS A BOY WHO BULLIED EVERYONE.

HE WAS ONLY TRYING TO IMPRESS A GROUP OF GIRLS.

THIS SITUATION MADE ALL THE STUDENTS POINT AND LAUGH . . .

ALL THE GIRLS LOVED HIS NEW TRANS-AM THAT HE DROVE.

NOW THESE GIRLS CHANGED THEIR MINDS AND DECIDED TO TRY AND PERSUADE THE NEW BOY TO BE THEIR BOYFRIEND

By Avrom Coodin

BUT ANOTHER GROUP WHO REALLY LIKED THIS BOY DECIDED TO TRY TO STEAL HIS HEART.

THEY HIRED THREE YOUNG MEN WHO WERE TO MYSTERIOUSLY CONVINCE HIM INTO LIKING THEM.

THEN, ONE DAY, A NEW BOY CAME TO SCHOOL AND CAPTURED ALL THE GIRLS' HEARTS.

THEY READ UP AND STUDIED ON SNEAKY AND MYSTERIOUS WAYS OF PERSUASION.

BUT THEY WERE UP AGAINST A LOT OF COMPETITION.

IT WAS NOW THE TALK OF THE SCHOOL.

AND THAT THE NEW "STUD" OF THE SCHOOL HAD TURNED INTO AN UGLY, SLOBBERING MONSTER!

THE SCHOOL WAS IN AN UPROAR! EVERYONE WAS FREAKING OUT!

ONE DAY IN THE CAFETERIA . . .

IT WAS DISCOVERED THAT THE PANZEROTTI WAS POISONOUS!

WHAT HAD HAPPENED JUST COULDN'T BE EXPLAINED.

BUT SOON A NEW BOY CAME ALONG AND THE OLD ONE WAS SOON FORGOTTEN AND LIFE AT WAGAR WENT BACK TO NORMAL.
