I haven't been at Wagar dat long but it's not the quantity of time it's the quality. I've been so lucky to chill with all of DS. I give dem all a special thanks for their support and I look back and laugh at my improvable 81 average. I've also gotta really thank Nim and Ami for keeping me occupied in class as well to everyone who supported me (or gave me a kick my butt when needed). Thanks, good luck next year

The class of 2003. The grad crew which rulez. Go forth and conquer.

To the graduates,

I commend you on your efforts and your achievements. I am very proud of each and every one of you. We have lost some along the way, but you have remained. You have persevered through trying and tiring times. Don't get me wrong, you have also had some good times that have made the journey worthwhile. But, if you thought this (high school) was hard, you better buckle up before you drive the highway of life. If it is any consolation though, I will tell you that anything worth doing isn't going to be easy. So, with that in mind - go for it!

Remember Robert Frost's poem, "The Road Not Taken". Be wise in your choices, be smart about the paths you choose, and the roads you travel. Don't let anyone or anything keep you from realizing your dreams. Make sure you set goals and achieve them. Also, live life to the fullest. Always be positive, for "What you think affects what you feel and what you feel affects how you behave". Feel good about yourself and your endeavors.

I wish you all the best in your personal, academic, and social ventures. May God bless you and may you bless others in return. I love you and will continue to root for you.

My congratulations goes out to you, the 2003 graduates.

Ms. Nash
