

PRELUDE

2001

K.F.

Dear Students

It is indeed a pleasure to write a short message to our graduating students, to commend them for work well done and to urge them to continue in their quest for academic excellence.

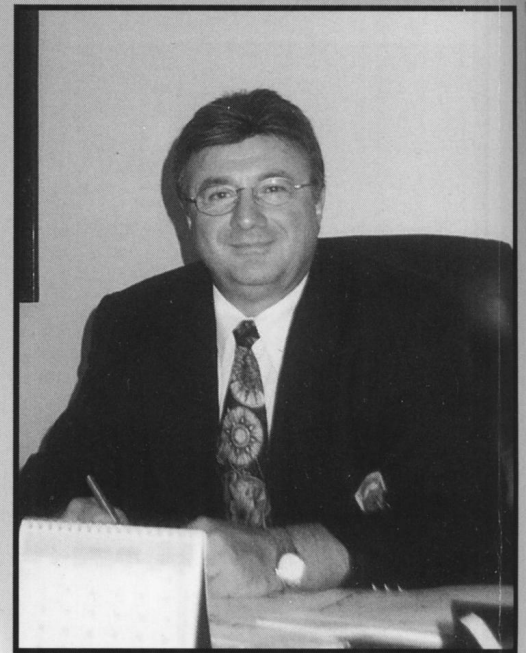

I congratulate each and every one of you in making 2000-2001 a worthwhile year at Wagar. Your contribution has made you part of Wagar and Wagar a part of you. Both are richer as a result. You have had the good fortune in having the leadership of cheerful, enthusiastic and hard working teachers. We in turn are pleased to have worked with a enthusiastic and hard working teachers. We in turn are pleased to have worked with a promising and receptive group of young people. It is hoped that our collective efforts will enable you to leave this school prepared to meet the challenges that are ahead.

I congratulate you all - both graduating students and returning students. I wish you all health and success in the coming years ahead. Always, carry with your self-discipline, a sense of responsibility, tolerance, respect and understanding of all people. Always strive to be "the best that you can be".

Good luck to all.

Vice Principal

Dear Graduates,

Graduation from high school is one the many milestones of success that you will experience in your lives. "Success" is one of those strange words whose meaning differs greatly between individuals given similar circumstances. Measure your successes in life based on sincere effort and realistic goals.

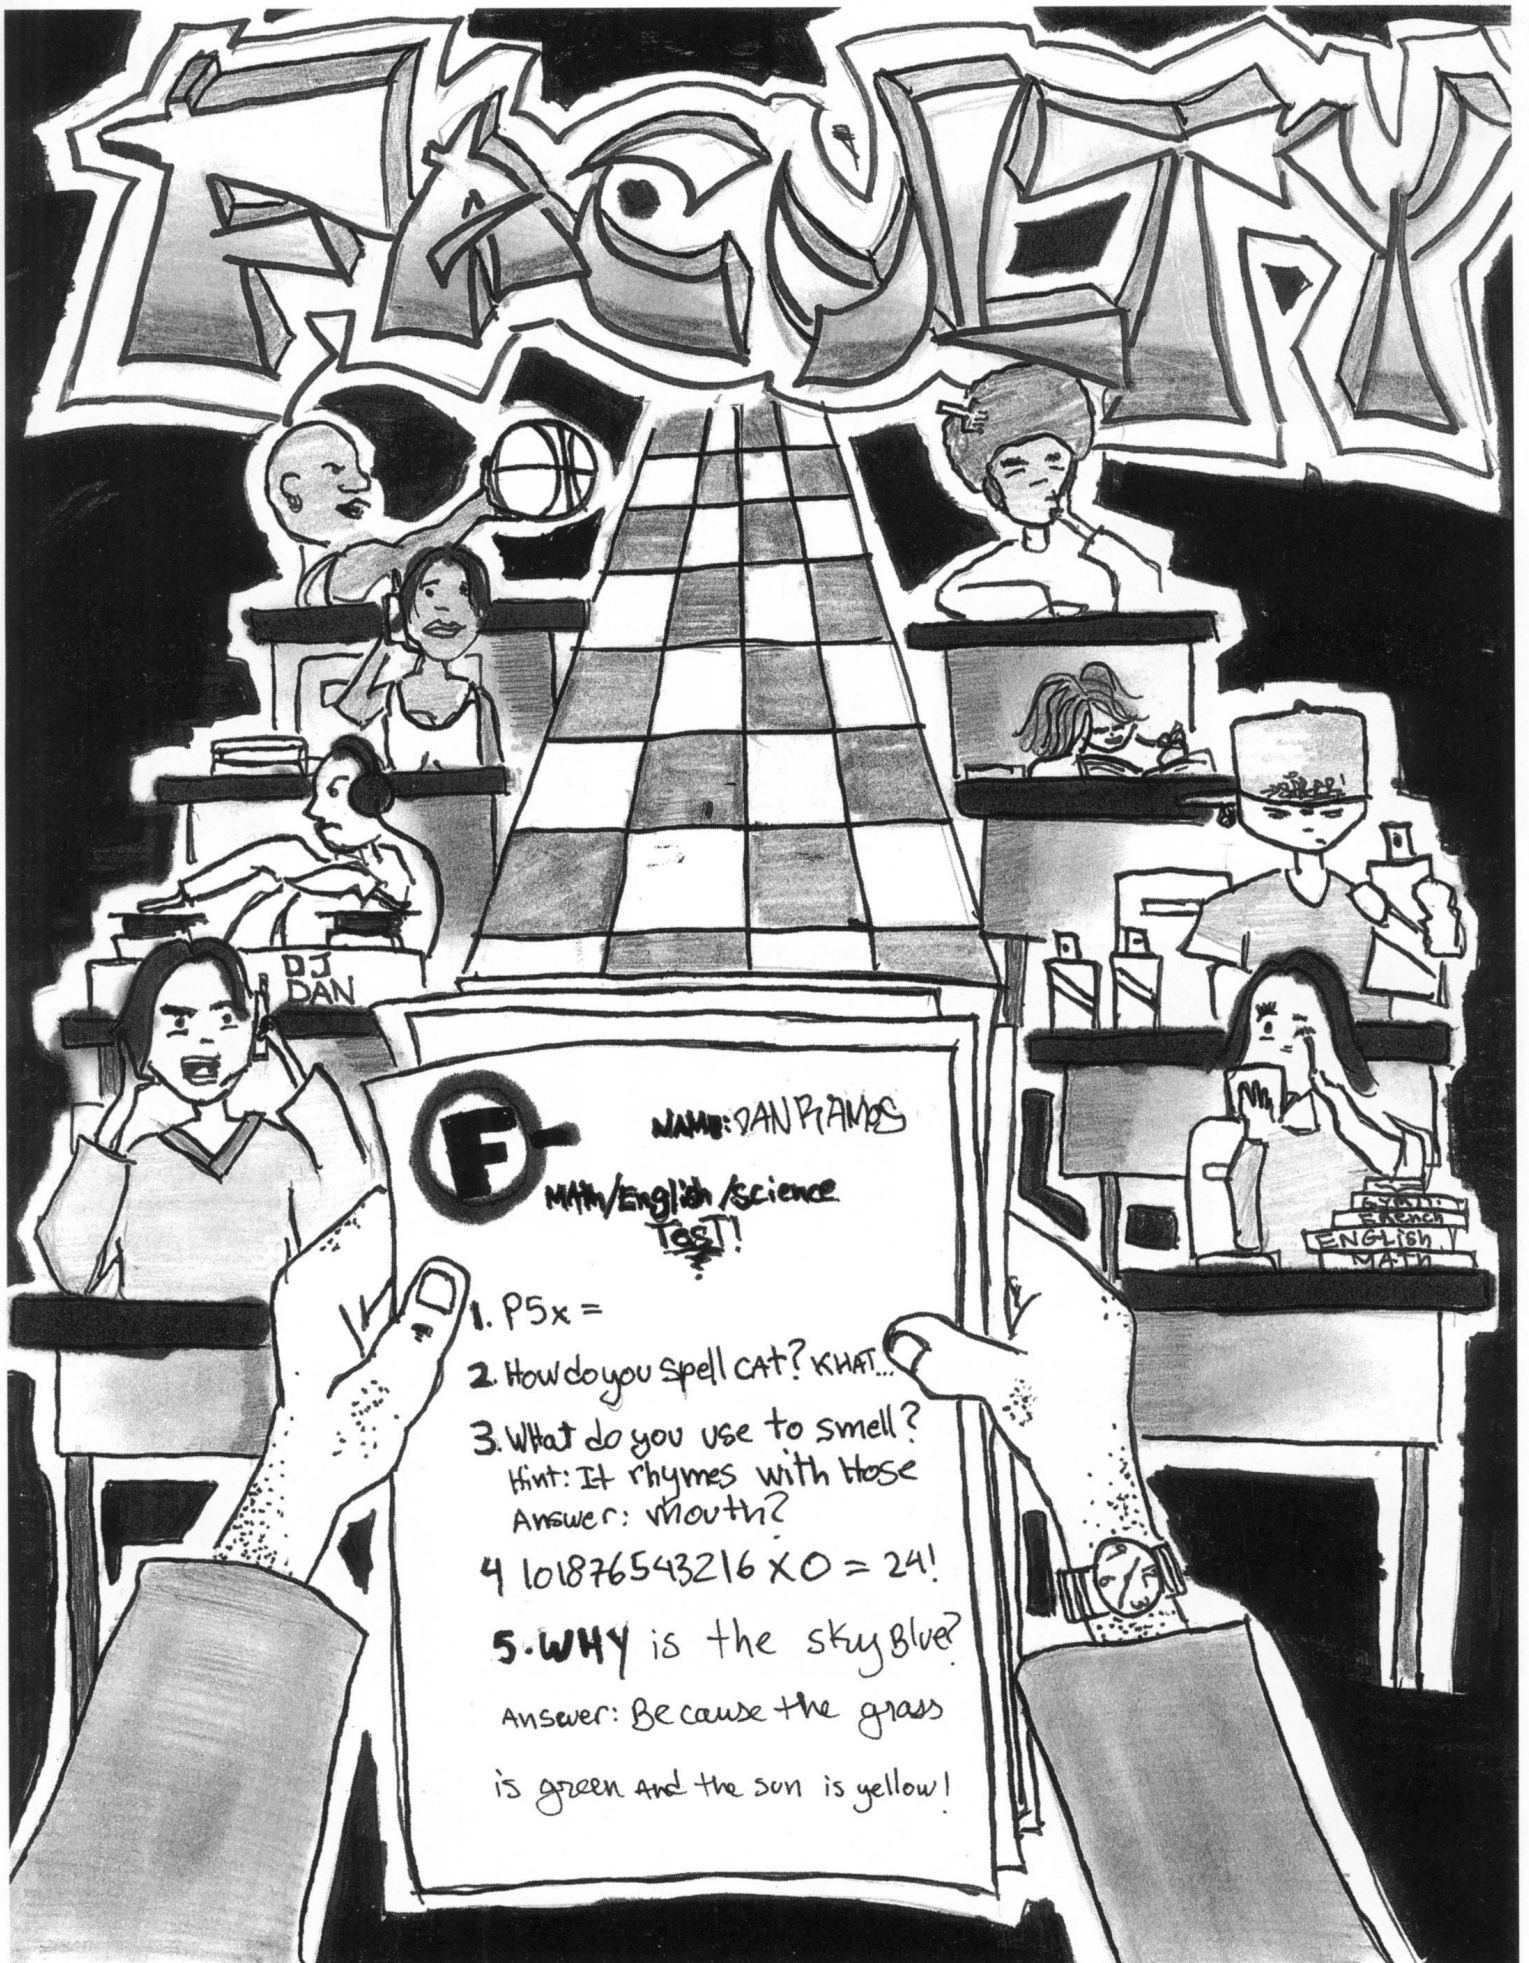

Although you are all just beginning on the road to many future successful endeavours, your graduation should be a memorable one. My most cherished memories of school happened in high school. Many of my closest friendships, entering their 25th year, started in high school. I am confident in saying that your time here at Wagar will often be the focus of fond memories.

Whatever career you plan to pursue be true to yourself. Be honest, be respectful and be kind with whomever you meet. Never hesitate to express gratitude. Stop from time to time to reflect on what you have and how fortunate you are to have it. Set high goals for yourselves and work diligently to achieve them.

I wish you all the best of luck in all your ventures throughout your lives and end with these few words:

"Try not to become only a person of success but rather try to become a person of value." - Albert Einstein

A WAGAR TALE!!

It was a normal day in Wagar, where students play charades.

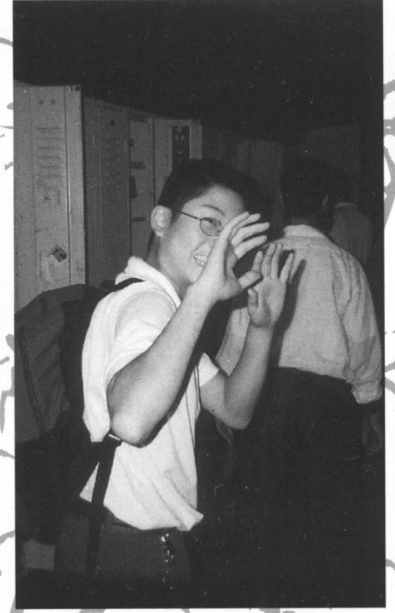

Suddenly, this evil stench lurked the hallways.

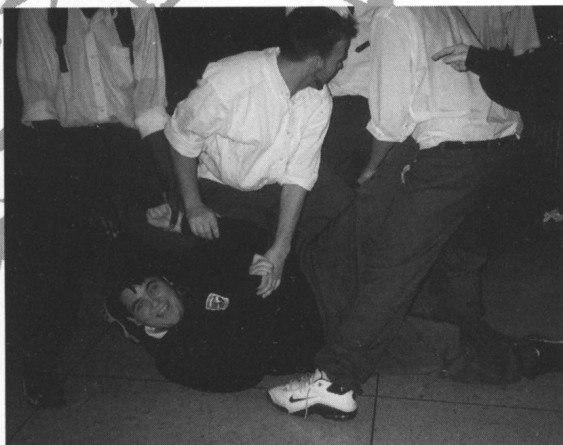

People were shouting at friends saying "It's over! It's DOOMSDAY!"

Some couldn't concentrate...

Some were frightened...

Some picked on strangers and they all started fighting.

To fight this funky smell, students started planning.

They all came together.

A WAGAR TALE!!

While the others started panicking.

We had to find a way to get rid of the stench today.

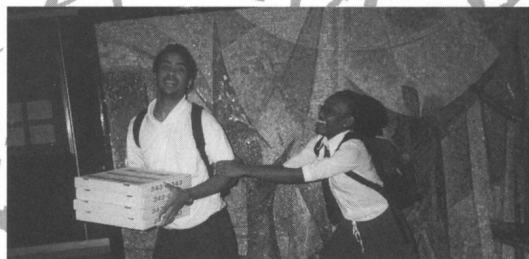

People were getting sick, while the others were at play.

Then..POUF! Suddenly this superhero saved the day!

He found two hoodlums laughing at a spray.

So the moral of today is to run really fast!

Because when the bell rings, you better get your butt back to class.

Tainted Girl

Cocked head and closed-lipped grin
Random splurred thoughts,
Spinning past my overbearing mind
Truth hidden under thickened skin
Side-glances at an unsure girl,
Never given a second thought Slurping up non-descript babbles of idealistic folk

Unspoken words,
Remaining unsaid

Coughing up lame excuses to tired minds
Living in a bubble bath world
Splashing on uncharted territory
Random bubbles popping in my mind,
Reminding me of the fragility that lies here
Inner-turmoil spilling over

Grease covered hands,
Remaining soiled

A glass doll,
Shattered inside
Haunted by the rattling that resides within
Broken limbs and broken dreams
Strawberry glossed smiles,
Hiding salty tears
Glittered fish with peeling scales

Tainted girl,
Remaining unclean.

Quickly go...

Some people

My Heart is failing

My heart is failing,
My body is weak.
I am wailing,
I cannot speak.
I am all broken,
I'm shot all to hell.
No words can be spoken,
To break this spell.
I am a dying sun,
I have sung my last song.
Nothing can be done,
To right what is wrong.
I will cast off my strife,
And slip away in the night.
I shall leave this life,
I shall walk towards the light.

To My lost love

How could I not see
 All that's been there
 For so long
 It's always been you
 You were always "the one"
 The one for me
 So how could I let you go?
 Why did I let you leave?
 Without letting you know
 That's what I feel for you
 Is something real
 Something so precious
 That is indescribable
 Everything I want
 Everything I have
 Is nothing without you
 I need you with me
 To hold me
 To love me
 To be there for me
 To be with me
 'cause I want to hold you
 To love you
 To be with you
 Always and forever...
 Without you
 I'm lost
 I'm empty
 Incomplete
 You are what makes me whole
 You complete me
 You're my other half my soulmate
 my love

A Friend...

Always there to lend you a helping hand,
 Brings joy to you, when you feel down,
 Calls you to see how you're doing,
 Doesn't betray you,
 Envy doesn't exist in the "friendship" dictionary,
 Finds a way to support you,
 Gives without asking for a return,
 Helps you out all the time,
 Invites you to places,
 Jokes around with you, to make you happy,
 Keeps your secret deep in their heart,
 Listens to what you have to say,
 Makes life easier for you,
 Never judges you,
 Offers as much help as possible,
 Prevents you from making the wrong decisions,
 Quiets down your angers,
 Remembers you as who you are,
 Says nice things about you,
 Tells you everything about them,
 Understands you well,
 Very kind to you,
 Willing to lend a shoulder for you to cry on anytime,
 X-tremely grateful to have you as a friend,
 Yells at you when you're not listening to them,
 Zzzz...wakes you back to reality when you're day dreaming.

Angel from Heaven

How could this happen to me,
One look from you and it sets me free,
A kiss from your lips,
A touch of your finger tips,
Makes my dreams come true,
Just thinking of you.

The color of your eyes,
Light's up my darkest skies,
The warmth of your smile,
Makes it all worth wild,
The sound of your voice,
Helps me make the right choice.

God had blessed me,
With your love I can see!
I had problems... wasn't free,
Until he sent an angel down to come rescue me.

You knew me better than I knew myself,
And all I had to do was count to twelve,
Didn't know who I was,
Never made any fuss,
Until you found yourself in my heart,
Little did you know you were in it from the start.

Death

I lay here on this bed, thinking about all the things that have been said,
All the joy, laughter, sadness, tears & pain, all of it is left behind when I follow the light that I can see through the rain.
I'm going to follow the beautiful sun light, where they're calling my name and reassuring me it's all right,
I'm leaving behind all this world has offered me, I'm going on to another one where I can be set free,
Where the air smells sweet and birds sing a lovely melody, this is the place that I want to be,
I'm leaving all my loved ones behind, but once I'm up there they won't be hard to find.
All of a sudden I feel weak, I want to say good-bye but I can not speak,
I feel this cool breeze pass over me, so I close my eyes to see,
The light is getting closer and stronger, so I'm not going to hold back any longer.
I'm happy to leave I have no fear, so I say my farewell with my one last tear,
I'm loosing my vision to this beautiful light, and where everything around me is out of sight,
I have been welcome into this beautiful place, and see the holy ones face,
In this world I'm 100% pure, In this world there's a resolution, there's love, there's cure.

REMINISCING

The doors of doom open to reveal my faith, with fear, joy and security, I walked in proud. Not knowing what was ahead for me, I let down my bars, and eased my guards, and endorsed the amiable surroundings.

At first it seemed worth the while, then without forewarning, a deadly tempest struck, ripping apart my life, causing destruction, quarreling, and conflict between companions, withdrawing me from all things sociable.

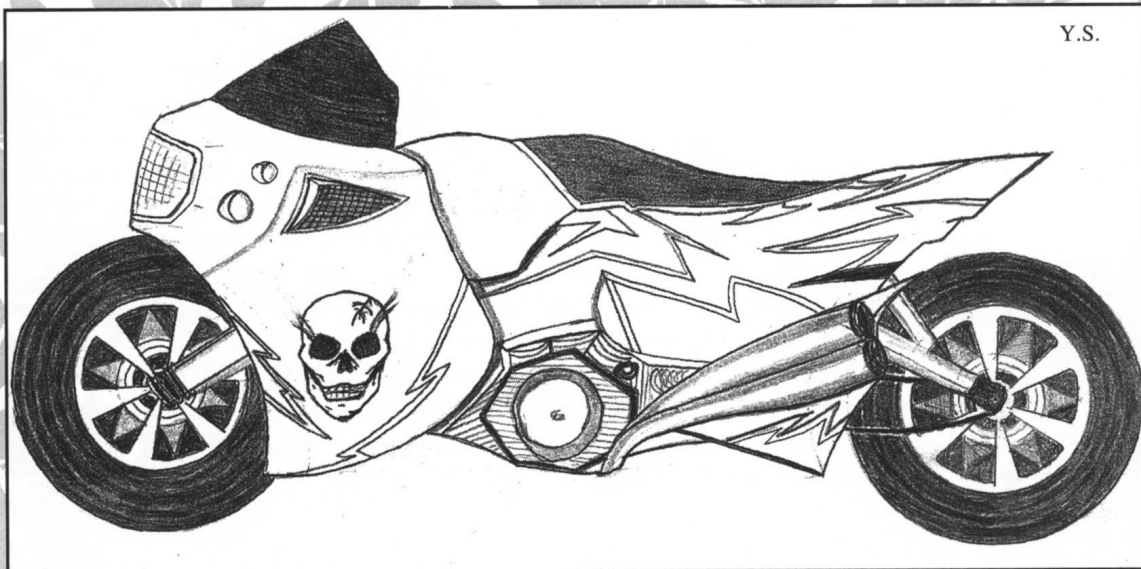

For awhile I walked in a dark sadness, deserted myself from everyone. Then once and again I let down my shield, with open arms invited the warmth of friends, and the dark cloud which overhauled vanished, but like the primitive, again she struck this time causing more harm than before.

Not knowing who to trust, I kept to myself, gave up on self imagery, and slowly everything was simulated. Grades, smile, and lastly dreams. I simply did not care, for the hurt that mates caused me cut through my body like 10,000 knives.

Then again things seemed to look up, like an answered prayer, you walked into my life, abolishing the darkness that was fixed on me, morphing my tears into smiles, and finally giving my life meaning. I was overcome by a joy that is indescribable, a desire too keen to share.

Now as I leave and walk out that door, the whispers of yesterday reminds me of the last five years, and with these various memories in mind, I leave now prepared to face life's challenges, with a few words directed to those whose doors just opened, this is only the beginning of a long journey.

"SASSY"

HIDING

Lately I have found myself, locked away from sanity, I am being held against my will, My captor is reality. I am hiding from the anarchy, that we live in, I am hiding from the treachery, I'm hiding from my sins. Life has a hard way of telling you, That nothing is ok, life has a habit of deceiving you, I wish life would go away. I am hiding in a universe, where I hope to escape, I am hiding where I can't be found, in this horrendous state.

You can try to find me, but I would not propose it, the horrific scenes that you would find, do you really want to know it? Just forget that I exist, and pretend that I'm not there, just pretend that you can't see me, an answer to my prayer. For if you ever see me, your mind would turn to stone, for once where I used to stand, a demon of destruction has grown. So do not try to find me, your laws I don't abide, so don't try to take me away, you won't find me, where I hide.

Working together

I don't know what's wrong
We haven't been together long
Already problems have formed
Conflicts have formed

Either you care and be fair
Or you hate & never knock on my gate

Why is this more complicated?
You wanted my heart
I threw it at you
You were just so self-absorbed
You missed it, it just flew

It landed in a shallow puddle
But slowly drowns
Because you're so quick to turn around
And cast me down.
Maybe I deserve it
For letting you hit it
The first time I saw
I went too far

Whatever you do, just don't talk
I don't see why I have to be mocked
If what you tell your friends
Is different to what you tell me
Then it will be obvious
That us as a pair simply won't be

If you are
What they say you are
Then you don't give a damn
Who I am

Please
Let me go
If you know
That you're not Going to show
The kind of love
That's gonna flow
Just for me!

Understand me when I say
I won't be treated like some –
Understand that I won't play
A stupid game, my answer is no

One thing is clear
I will always hold you near
You're not going anywhere
I will be there
We will share
The burdens
That life has prepared
Whether or not you'll be my man
My number 1 fan
I will be here for you
We'll walk hand in hand

ADVISORS' MESSAGES

Putting together a yearbook is a major undertaking for any group of students. The staff of this year's Prelude had an even more enormous task in that none of these students had any experience compiling a yearbook. The editors had to learn about the dreaded deadlines- how to make them, and what happens when they are missed. Of course mistakes were made, frustrations led to conflicts, but in the end, the editors learned to work together and more importantly, the concept of delegating.

We must here give credit where it is due. Our three editors, Chanel, Emmy and Tova are to be commended for lunch hours, afternoons and even Ped. Days working hard to complete the necessary pages. They also had to put up with the advisors who are not Yeartech/computer literate, but who are very good at running errands, diffusing conflicts and offering moral support. We are very much impressed with this wonderful final product and the effort that went into it.

Thank to the other students who worked on Prelude 2001: Jeannette, Vi, Dan, Bhavesh, Anthony, Selwyn, Aisha, Carmella and especially Kelly and Abha for their work in acquiring ads and collecting money.

We hope to see those of you in grade 10 back next year working on Prelude 2002, and we wish the graduating class of 2001 much success in their future endeavors.

Ms. Sipos

Mr. Weekes

Ms. Louisma

Chanel "Sassy" Sutherland

"One joy scatters a hundred griefs"

At first being given the title senior editor of the school's yearbook seemed like the most astonishing way to finish off my high school years. Then came the work and with the work came the conflicts and with the conflicts came lots of fights and disagreements. Kelly aka (1 out of 3 of Wagars finest artists) and Abha aka without your contributions I would have being up to my neck with overdue pages. Nuff luv to y'all!! Dan your artworks are also off the hook, booming!! You have incredible talents so good luck to you in the future. Vi we both know the computer don't dig us but that didn't matter. Marc aka "CruX" you dunno you're the badest. Tova and Emmy I know you both did alot of work. Thanks A special shout out to Spice. Stay sweet boo. Carmella and Aisha Thank you.

To the advisors, Ms. Sipos, Mr Weekes and all the teachers who gave their contributions and advices. Thank you for your guidance. Ms. Sipos I promise to practice delegating. To a very special teacher, her wise words and advice is what kept me going when life got tough. Every growing child deserves to have a person with her honesty, integrity, strenght, sense of humour and high spirits in their life.

Fortunately, God blessed me with her presence.. Mrs. Martins you will forever be my guardian angel. To Mr. Jacobson, you are the most caring man I have ever met.

Last but not least, those who are reading this book please keep and open mind. A lot of hardwork and dedication was put into it's creation. For the ones who are quick to pass bad judgement on this book because it might not fit your standards...! Nuff luv and respect to my family!!

"The world has a funny way at getting at you"

As editor, this yearbook has been a challenge. It's been stressful, but yet a great accomplishment. Truthfully, this yearbook would not have been possible without the faith that Jehovah has given me. Thanks to Mervyn Weekes, for having so much faith in me to produce this yearbook, I know there were hard and rough times, but now it's done. There were many times I said I was going to quit and you wouldn't let me, thanks for believing in me. Chanel even though we started off on the wrong foot we were able to pull it off. The book is finally done!!! I would like to thank Miss Sipos for giving me her time for this yearbook and for always giving me hope when I was losing it. Miss Louisma, your ideas were well appreciated thanks. "I can't wait to be the godmother". Special thanks to Jostens especially Steve Weekes for your time and help. Special thanks to all teachers who allowed me to leave their class to work on yearbook. Miss Lewington I didn't forget you, Merci Beaucoup cherie for letting the yearbook staff to do last minute rush when it wasn't convenient to work on yearbook. Special thanks to what was left of the yearbook staff. Gracias!! to the photographers: Anthony and Selwyn who I had to chase down to take pictures but pulled through with some awesome ones. Good Job!!! To everyone who gave in art and poetry, your time was well appreciated!! Kelly all your hard work didn't go unnoticed you're the bomb!!! Mom thank you for all your words of wisdom, love you!!! I saved my uttermost thanks to this someone who has dedicated themselves to helping with this book. Emmy I'm so grateful for all the sacrifices you've made towards this book. I couldn't have done it without you. Lastly I would like to give a thank you to all the "individuals who were quick to pass judgement on this book because it didn't fit their standards"..... I would also like to congratulate all graduates especially my sister JAZIELE WHYNE.

Tova Whyne, Editor 2000-2001

You do for me-I do for you

-Nothing pains some people more than having to think-

Martin Luther King Jr.

I've been doing a lot of thinking on my own and realized that this statement is unbelievably true. A lot of people don't want to realize reality.

It seems like a big joke to them; this yearbook was a joke to them. Memories of themselves didn't seem to have any value to them.

All anyone could say was that they didn't care about Wagar much less the yearbook.

Well, unfortunate or not, you went to the school and all you had to do was make the best of it. But instead you make your lives miserable by not caring.

I made the sad mistake of caring and I ended up overworked.

Instead of this being fun, it became a war of differences.

What can you do but forget and move on-hope that you get another opportunity to take control and be productive.

Wishing only happiness and satisfaction for the Grads.

Yearbook Staff (what was left of it)-your presence has proved an asset.

Mr. Weekes, Ms. Sipos, Mrs. Louington, Ms. Louisma-thanks for putting up with [our] sarcasm I was never going to quit!

Tova Whyne-it's been time consuming but it's over.

You were there for me-"what goes around comes around."

MOMMY-I promise things will get better!

My Baby-I may act hard but I need you.

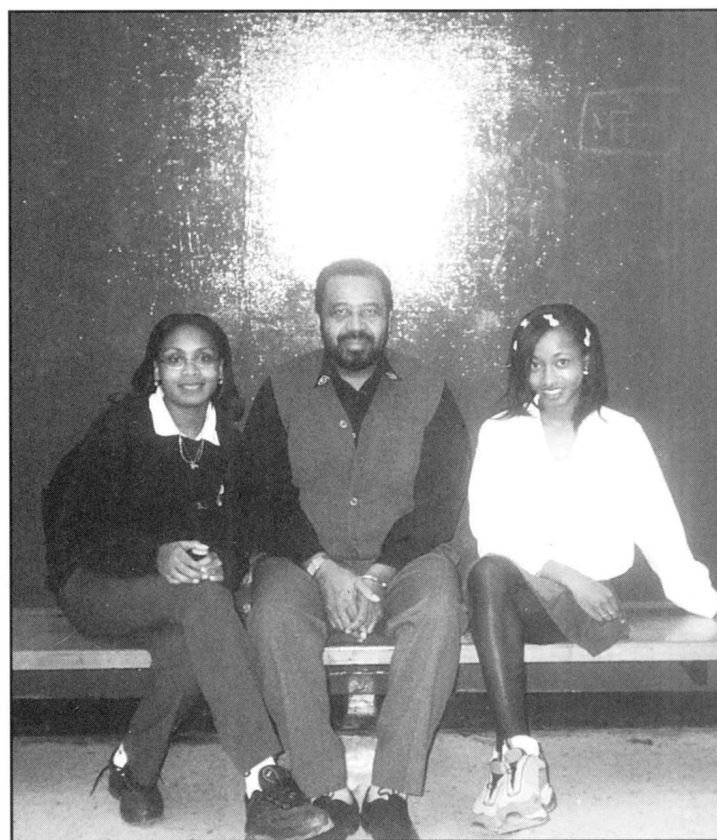

T.O you're always in my heart!!!!HUGS AND KISSES!!!!!!!

There were few helpers for the grad section.....

Principal's Message

I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate you, the graduates, on your success this year. Your accomplishments have created new and exciting opportunities, which I encourage you to take advantage of. Whether you choose to continue your studies or enter the world of work, I trust you will do so enthusiastically and with confidence. As you continue your journey and your quest to enjoy all that life has to offer, always remember that it is time, effort and sacrifice that will determine your future successes and rewards. You have the tools. Use them wisely to achieve your goals.

You have been fortunate to have attended Wagar High School, where, in addition to focusing on your individual growth and development, we have fostered a commitment to honesty, compassion, respect and responsibility. It is my earnest hope that these values will guide you throughout your lives. They will serve you well!

I would also like to address the undergraduates. I look forward to continuing to work with you as you develop your competencies and, most importantly, your values. I expect that together we can develop the love of school and community that will lead to the sense of purpose and pride in accomplishment that will be cornerstones of your education.

Finally, on behalf of all students, I would like to thank your teachers, the support personnel and the administration for their invaluable commitment to your education. I know it is a labour of love. On their behalf, I wish you sincere good wishes for a happy and productive future.
