

THE LAST OF THE 70S

PRELUDE 79

Wagar High School Presents:

PRELUDE '79

Editorial

We chose "the last of the seventies" as the theme of our book. This theme may seem like an odd one for a high school yearbook but we feel that it represents one of the most relevant aspects of our lives.

Very few, if any, of us are old enough to remember the milestones of the sixties but almost everything that occurred during the seventies has affected our lives either directly or indirectly.

In contrast to the turbulence of the sixties, the seventies have been a period of quiet change. Nonetheless, it has been a decade of great significance and in our book we have tried to capture the spirit and essence of the seventies.

The end of this school year marks the end of an era for we, the graduating class of '79, are the last of the seventies.

Ode to Wagar Teachers.

For all the years of Wagar High,
The four years that fly by so fast.
The years we spend together,
Before our graduating class.

To Wagar and its faculty,
To all teachers and staff.
We dedicate this poem to you,
In hope you'll learn to laugh.

Teachers are so understanding,
That when we're six seconds late,
They sadly say "I'm sorry" and
Be there tomorrow at eight!

Homeroom teachers are moody,
They may wake up nasty and mean.
Some don't ever read the bulletin,
They just teach until their green.

English teachers thrive
On Shakespeare and his plays.
History teachers love documents,
And historical essays.

Science teachers lust for formulas,
And species that are rare.
French teachers feed off orals,
And verbs, texts and grammair.

Math teachers are fanatics,
From exponents to functions and logs.
Gym teachers like seeing us run,
Around the school like dogs.

All the electives are fun,
Marks are such a breeze.
This is because the teachers,
Were hired with no degrees.

Wagar you have proven to us,
A theory that is very concrete.
School is an institution,
To keep teachers off the street.

We've stood the test of time,
We've been thru your every test.
In other words we think your great,
The nicest and the best.

The Sign of the Times

The pulsating 70's are on their way out,
They've brought many changes without a doubt.
To human intelligence I give an apology,
For look at the advances made in technology.

Conceiving a baby is a natural action,
That has been reduced by quite a huge fraction.
Artificial insemination is one way maybe,
But now we've got the test tube baby.

The Beatles are no longer around,
A substitute music had to be found.
Disco's emerged and is now number one,
So get up and boogie, you're sure to have fun.

Hairstyles changed to a frizz from a tease,
Away with the curlers, a blow dryer please!
Have it long or short, tucked under or lifted,
The hairdressers today are truly gifted!

A show of legs covered the street,
For skirts and dresses were short and petite.
Now they're worn way below the knee,
There's not much leg for the men to see.

So now you see how time has flown,
Take a look at your children, my how they've grown!
So when an orange resembles a lime,
Just remember it's a sign of the time.

Our Decade

From Vietnam and Watergate,
The Ford and Carter debate,
The massive Brittany oil spill,
The Jonestown suicidal chill,
Elvis Presley's untimely death,
The test tube baby's commencing breath,
Patty Hearst and her bazaar case,
The U.S.-Russian weapons race,
The miraculous computer age,
The swine flu vaccination rage,
Alex Hailey and his Roots,
Cheryl Tiegs and her swim suits,
The glorious victory of the E.R.A.,
America's 200th birthday,
Secretariat and Seattle Slew,
Henry Aaron and Rod Carew,
The present crisis in Iran,
The Camp David long fought peace plan,
The two latest Popes John Paul,
Star Wars and Annie Hall,
Archie Bunker of New York,
Our newest visitor Mork from Ork,
The threat to Canada's unity,
South Africa's version of liberty,
E.L.O. and Fleetwood Mac,
To MacDonalds and their Big Mac Attack.

From nineteen seventy through seventy nine,
This decade shall forever be our time.

THE SIZE OF THE TYPES

In the pit of Cote St. Luc
Three storeys into the sky
An unconquerable capital "T"
Is disguised as Wagar High.

This structure and its yard
An institution so immense
Is very securely guarded
By a six-foot fence.

A main hangout Caldwell
Lies to the southeast
Where students thrive on skipping
And on junk food they do feast.

To the north lies Parkhaven Park
Where a Wagarite seldom roams
On the other sides of Wagar
Sit the old folks' homes.

The school may seem like a paradise
But behind those walls so stern
Lurks a truthful untold history
Of which you are about to learn.

The front entrance is well kept
Occasionally a window is broke
The side entrance is distinguishable
By its mushroom cloud of smoke.

Eight-thirty every morning
The bell rings for class
And now we take you through the doors
Of metal bars and glass.

Grade eights dash to class
The veterans take their time
No one dares be late
Committing the ultimate crime.

The bulletin is read
The teacher drinks her cup
Yawns fill the air
As the zombies are waking up.

Recess is fifteen minutes
Time for a quick smoke
Or a trip to the cafeteria
Where survival is no joke.

Five minutes between classes
To their lockers students race
Exchanging books and papers
At a hypersonic pace.

Fourth period goes slowly
All eyes are on the time
As the students anxiously await
That lunch-bell to chime.

Lunch in the cafeteria
Is quite a hectic scene
Food all over everything
The tables are never clean.

The food one buys is risky
And known to make strong men ill
The aftertaste is treacherous
And life expectancy's nil.

Food fights are common
Throwing cartons and rolls
Keeping a sharp eye out
As the lunch mummy patrols.

And coming out on top sometimes
As the best teams in the west.

The Fashion Show’s a winner
With disco dance and threads
Wagar’s top models
See lots of turning heads.

The Beauty Pageant’s a laugh
As the guys give it their all
Making complete fools of themselves
And also having a ball.

Winter Carnival’s loaded
With lots of shows and events
The action’s at a climax
With a spirit one can sense.

The hypnotist, a movie
A variety show and more
We have a Royal Family
And a ski trip still in store.

The art class goes to New York
The band exchange is great
The prelude staff is busy,
Meeting the deadline date.

The activities are endless
There’s something for everyone
Wagar’s surely proved
That high school can be fun.

When May comes around
It seems the end is near
Students will be off to college
Others back next year.

The Grad is a celebration
Of four years so divine
This message we write to you,
The Class of ’79.

There were triumphs and losses
Laughter and tears,
We leave with a thousand memories
To be cherished for the rest of our years.

Best of luck to all our fellow grads,

Do you enjoy showing off? Do you sometimes imagine you are someone else? Are you interested in the mystery of the human psyche? Do you play the games people play? If so, you've probably been a member of a Developmental Drama class this year. You've probably enjoyed acting in skits, using your body to mime weird and wonderful things, and making up dialogue on the spur of the moment. Do you think Developmental Drama is a Mickey Mouse course? Do you like to cut down on "real" class work? Are you basically lazy? Then you too have probably taken Developmental Drama this year. You've missed a lot of classes and you've let down your peers when they needed you for a sketch . . . and you've driven your teachers crazy! Are you interested in working with other people — even people you don't know or don't like? Do you try to find a way to get on with even with the most difficult personalities? Is your ambition to be a full, warm, functioning, kind, cooperative human being? That's what Developmental Drama is really all about and we hope you have not only enjoyed the fun, but that you have discovered its hidden purpose! As far as your future is concerned, as they say in show biz; "Break a leg!"

Pauvre René

Dans sa bouche se trouve une forme de suicide,
Dans ses lignes de visage ses expériences politiques.
René Levesques est un homme de grande valeur,
Mais il ne sait pas pourquoi les anglais pleurent.

Le Parti Québécois n'a pas encore dix-huit ans,
Et son chemin d'indépendance est très, très long.
Les grands hommes du Québec veulent émigrer,
Et pauvre René commence à pleurer.

Robert Green

L'Indien

Je le regarde.
Cet indien qui travaille jour et nuit.
Qui parle aux rennes sans qu'ils fuient.
Qui part à la chasse pendant le jour.
Qui fait tomber la pluie au son d'un tambour.

Je le vois.
Cet indien qui se prépare pour la guerre.
Qui embrasse toutes ses femmes, ses petits enfants chers.
Qui aime la vie et toute la nature.
Qui respecte l'air frais et boit de l'eau pure.

Je le regarde.
Je le vois.
Je l'admire.

“Freedom”

“F-R-E-E-D-O-M”, the boys spelled the word out loud and then shook his head.
“Freedom? . . . but what does it mean?”

His grandmother gently took the book away from him.

“It’s something that people had when I was a little girl.”

“Why don’t people have it anymore? Oh, you can tell me,” he continued when she hesitated. “I’m sixteen and I understand most things now.”

“People . . . people don’t have it anymore because they threw it away.”

“Threw it away! What did it look like?”

“Oh, it wasn’t anything you could touch. Freedom, well freedom meant you could ‘do your own’ thing as we used to say.”

He laughed.

“Then how could you throw it away?”

“People just didn’t look ahead, or behind for that matter. The price of that was their freedom. Once the act was committed, those in power punished the innocent as well as the guilty.”

“When did all this happen?”

“I grew up in the seventies as you know. There had always been tension between the two cultures; but everyone thought it was under control. As the decade progressed the relations grew strained, but the first blow didn’t come until after the P.Q. had taken power. Things rapidly worsened soon after. Bill 101, referendum, separation, it was horrible at the end. We lost our freedom soon after.”

“Don’t you think it was our fault it happened?”

“I think it was more of a human nature error. Some people just can’t live together, so all around them suffer.”

She closed her eyes, the conversation was over. Promising to return soon, he kissed her good-bye. Closing the door softly behind him, he quickly found a telephone. Speaking curtly he said simply, “Non. Elle n’est pas coupable. Elle est de notre côté.”

It was all he could do.

THE GREATEST HOCKEY PLAYER OF THE 70'S

Whenever I think of the number four,
I always think of Bobby Orr.
From the very first game he was headed for stardom,
And he won every fan's heart in Boston Garden.
He was extremely masterful at handling the puck,
Why, he led the Boston Bruins to the Stanley
Cup.
In the Canada Cup he was absolutely great,
It appeared he had gotten his knees into shape.
But just when he was getting so much stronger,
He decided his knees could not hold out any longer.
On Jan. 9, 1979 they retired his sweater,
I'm sure Bobby Orr never felt better.
We'll always remember that number four,
and we'll never forget Robert G. Orr.

A Musical Tribute to the Montreal Canadiens

Their records are undefeated,
Their players top the charts,
Their performances are memorable,
and breathtaking to our hearts.

This group has seen Hall of Famers,
Like Richard, Beliveau and Morenz,
Dick Duff and Boom Boom Geoffrion,
The Montreal Canadiens.

Their centers play the face-offs,
With much more skill than luck,
The goalies play the net,
And the defence play the puck.

The referee sings that whistle,
The team sings with soul,
When they rock and roll down the ice,
There's bound to be a goal.

The fans at the forum swing,
Cheering loud and clapping hard,
Guy Lafleur scored another one,
From Robinson and Savard.

Scotty and the boys have won,
More Stanley Cups to date,
Than Beatles had hit records,
In 1968.

They put on a show at the forum,
To which Bowie couldn't compare,
Their concerts get more ovations,
Than Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire.

Their legend will live forever,
And if history is any sign,
Our Canadiens will be stronger than ever,
When we whip 'em in seventy nine.

Elections

For the first time in Wagar's history, a president held office for two consecutive years. Barry Bonder won by acclamation this year and has continued his great effort to improve life in our school. The main event was the race for the office of Vice-President. The candidates were: Allan Feldman, Bob Khaimovitch (both grade ten students) and Crayne Spanier, a grade eleven student. Though the campaigns were short they were exciting. The day before the balloting a school assembly was held. The Vice-Presidential candidates preached their policies while balloons popped, bands played and assorted UFO's flew across the double gym. The outcome was victory for Crayne Spanier and democratic fun for everyone.

Greaser's Day

Things were looking "peachy-keen" as bobbysocks, crinolins, leather jackets and ducktails filled the halls on Friday, Oct. 27. No, it wasn't an on-location taping of "Happy Days", but enthusiastic Wagarites in the spirit of the nifty fifties for Wagar's second annual Greasers' Day. "Greased" activities committee members — on rollerskates no less — visited home rooms one day prior to the big day, to musically announce the exciting schedule of events for the following day. The turnout was sensational! At recess, the bubble-blowing contest was won by Camille Sakkal and in the gym at lunchtime, greasers twisted and jitterbugged to such oldies but goodies as "At the Hop" and "Rock Around the Clock", as well as to highlights from the soundtrack of the movie "Grease". C. Hahamovitch and Mr. Merowitz won Best Dance Couple, Mr. Armstrong to the Best Dressed Teacher award, D. Flomen and M. Littner tied for Best Dressed Male, while the prize for Best Dressed Female went to the "Pink Ladies". After school, things took up a new beat — a disco beat, that is — as students made their way to a roller-skating and skateboarding extravaganza at "Le Trak". Greasers' Day proved to be one of the school year's most successful activities. It will, undoubtedly, remain an enjoyable tradition at Wagar.

A mean-looking Mr. Armstrong.

Cool Al!

Disco Fashion Show

Mis Irgo's Art department's Fashion-Talent Show went disco this year. It was one of the year's greatest successes as the show sold out long before show-time. The clothes ranged from Jag to Audrey's to Satins as well as formal wear from Classy. These beautiful outfits were modelled by some of Wagar's sexiest bodies. Most of the talent acts were disco dances lived up by Peter Benisti, D.J. The choreography and light show were eye-openers for the crowd. It proved to be fun for everyone in the show as well as a great contribution toward the art trip to New York in May.

Guy's Beauty Pageant

Wagar's second annual "Guy's Beauty Pageant" was an overwhelming success this year. Fifteen of Wagar's most beautiful guys put on a charade of acts, dress and choreographed disco dancing. A main attraction for the show was a movie of the guys in training and the public reaction to the show. Beautiful bodies from all over the world came to compete in the pageant. The talent competition saw such acts as Swine Lake, "6 minutes", news, and Elton John Band. The winner, chosen by our panel of judges, was Miss Nigeria — Howard Lis. After the show and after the excitement had died down, it was time for the makeup to come off and the pants to come on, but the laughs lasted for days.

Thanks to Joy, Laurie, Weidi, Marlene and Marcy for putting the show together.

Thanks to Robin Fishman and Claire Schmerer for hosting the event and thanks to David Flomen for the movie.

Miss Nigeria, Miss Japan, Miss Pakistan, Miss Mexico, Miss Sweden, Miss Elsigundo, Miss Italy, Miss Dhibouti, Miss Rnulac.

Winter Carnival

Variety
Show

Pecarvé

Winter Carnival '79 was an all 'round smash hit this year. The week of Jan. 29-Feb. 2 was packed with events, first of which was a new one of Wagar, the appointment of a Royal Family. Each home room had nominated either a candidate for King or Queen (seniors) or Prince or Princess (juniors). The entire school voted for their favorite nominee. Monday at lunch hundreds of Wagarites gathered in the girl's gym to witness the official crowning of the Royal Family in the balcony. The results were: Stewart Bick (King), Robin Fishman (Queen), Steve Abrams (Prince), and Brenda Levine (Princess). They would reign for the entire Winter Carnival week. Their royal function was to attend all events, (escorted by royal entourage) and to set a good example for all fellow but peasant Wagarites. After school a variety show debuted in the A.V. room. Crayne S. and Derrik F. hosted this show from Cheech and Chong to Robot Dancers to the Rod Stewart Band, Moroccan style. This free event was organized due to the initiative of Mitchell Merowitz and Rhonda Libman. Tuesday was Hat-and-Tie Day. At lunch in the girl's gym Wagar held its first gambling Casino. Chuck Altman and Mitch Bloom, with much help put together an array roulette, wheel of fortune, craps, black-jack and poker tables for Wagarites to gamble away their currency (groots). Everyone at least broke even since the groots were given away to any Wagarite wearing the official Winter Carnival '79 button, of which we ran out. Neil H. won himself a chance to win one million dollars as he was the days biggest winner. After school, Wagar presented Neil Simon's the Goodbye Girl for a mere quarter admission. Wednesday at lunch the Wagar Jazz Band put on a swingin' free concert in the A.V. room. Wednesday after school Wagar issued the first term report cards. To cheer up the sad faces, the great hypnotist Pécarvé paid a traditional visit to our Winter Carnival. The show was mesmerizing as half the audience rolled into the aisles laughing as their friends made absolute fools of themselves. Thursday there was free skating at the C.S.L. Arena. Friday saw a 3 bus convoy of Wagarites shipped off to Smugglers Notch for a day of skiing in the sun. There are too many people to thank for the huge success of this Carnival. Most events involved at least 3 or 4 hundred Wagarites participating and that statistic in itself is reward enough for all those involved in creating the Winter Carnival Week.

GUYS & DOLLS

On the nights of April 3rd, 4th, and 5th, in arrangement with Music Theatre International of New York, N.Y., Wagar presented Guys and Dolls. Jo Swerling and Abe Burrow wrote the screenplay while Frank Loesser wrote the score for the hit musical based on the famous Damon Runyon Broadway characters. The major roles were played by Barry Bonder, Liane Sobcuff, Greg Shore and Lynn Herzeg respectively as Sky Masterson, the slick professional betting man; Sister Sarah Brown, the mission girl who falls in love with him; Nathan Detroit, the compulsive gambler who is best known for his "oldest established permanent floating crap game in New York"; and Miss Adelaide, the night-club singer who has developed a "psychosomatic cold" from waiting for Nathan to marry her after being engaged to him for fourteen years. Other leads include: Billy Bloom, Ellen Coplan, Elaine Coleman, Tommy Belman, Earl Rubink, Lori Brick, Carl Goldstein, Crayne Spanier and Bobby Arbess. Mrs. Blond, Producer and director of the production, was assisted by Miss Rosenberg, Mme. Henry, Mrs. Clendenning, Mrs. Latimer, Miss Irigo, Mr. Best, Mr. Hart and many, many more. Not only were students involved in the actual acting, but they also assisted with make-up, scenery, costuming and props. The enthusiasm of the entire cast and that of the many people involved behind the scenes as well reflected in each of the three performances making Guys and Dolls Wagar's greatest success ever.

Boys Senior Basketball

1st ROW: Coach J. Aitken, J. Asimakopoulos, G. Shrier, D. Cohen, P. Berall, M. Borrow, S. Segal, J. Bell. 2nd ROW: G. Schneider, B. Gordon, S. Dahan. ABS.: B. Gornitsky, D. George.

This year the Wagar Cagers, coached by Mr. Aitkin set out to win a City Championship for the first time in four years. The veterans on the team, Peter Berall, Sammy Segal, Mitchell Borrow and Gary Shrier, were very positive about their chances. The team slumped during the exhibition season but picked up going into the season. The team was 5-0 at the midpoint of the regular season on the strong play of the four veterans and David Cohen (who could have played Midget Ball). Our bomb squad was led by Bruce "Shoot and Pray" Gornitsky, Gary "Bones" Schneider, Derek "Phantom" George, Stuart Dahan, Bram Gordon, Jeff Bell, and Jimmy "The Greek" Asim . . . (whatever it is). We finished off the season 9-1. It was good enough for a division championship. That set the stage for a quarter-final match held at the Wagar gymnasium. Mitchell Borrow our captain and leader, gave it all he had, but Mitch and the rest of the team fell short losing to Howard S. Billings by two points.

Boys' Midget Basketball

1st ROW: Mr. McEwen, S. Michelin, N. Fleisher, M. White, Y. Abesherd, M. Stotland, E. Diamond, A. Traiger, K. Fainbloom. R. Michelin, D. Fishler. 2nd ROW: Gorgeous G., D. Walton.

The team had a very successful season, going 11-1 in regular season play. In overall play, counting tournaments and exhibition games, the team was 23-5. Coach McEwen played a big role, devoting a lot of time to practices and games.

The team won a sudden death playoff over Westhill, 72-71, in the most exciting game in Wagar's history. Aime Renaud High School then upset Wagar in the playoffs, in a hard fought defensive battle 46-40. The Panthers, bowed out very respectfully and will be back fighting next year.

Girls' Senior Basketball

The Senior Girls' Team, coached by Mr. Chuprun did not have a very successful season but they did set the school record for injuries sustained by players. As the girls refused to surrender in the face of shin splints, black eyes and sprained fingers, it has been suggested that a St. John Ambulance team sit in on any future games.

Track and Field

Mr. McEwen's ever loyal Track Team members have once again been hurdling and high jumping way before the morning bell and running the stairs long after three o'clock. Practice paid off for Tina Kader, who finished second in the City Cross Country Championship and for other entries from Wagar who kept up with the pack. Many team members such as Bruce Kahn and Earl Diamond did very well individually during the '78 season. Bruce won the Pentathalon event at the City Finals and Earl won a bronze medal in the Shotput and a gold in the Hammer Throw at the Indoor Provincials.

S k i B u m s

The Ski Team members coached by Mr. Armstrong, spent three days racing their way down Le Chantecler this winter. The Boys' Midget Team finished third, competing against eleven other schools at their very first meet! The Girls' Team members had a lot of fun and are already looking towards next winter.

LEFT TO RIGHT - TOP ROW: P. Dahan. 3rd ROW: A. Weinman, D. Cohen, N. Hubsher, L. Mazliak, Mr. K. Armstrong. 2nd ROW: M. Stotland, D. Salzman, R. April, A. Greenblatt. 1st ROW: D. Flomen, S. Segal, S. Goodman, S. Coplovitch, S. Dahan, H. Lis, S. Rosen.

Soccer Team

The Boys' Soccer Team, coached by Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Ioannou (a veteran soccer player), was bigger and better than ever this year. The boys managed to break an eleven year losing streak, tying two games with Bialik High and winning one against St. Georges High School.

Bowling Team

TOP: B. Caplan, G. Schneider, J. Levine. 2nd ROW: B. Lerman, L. Shapiro, S. Winston, Mr. Center, H. Caron. 3rd ROW: M. Levitt, S. Shore, M. Maron.

Wagar's mightiest bowling team coached by Mr. Center spent many a Tuesday afternoon competing at Pare Lanes. High scorers Jeffrey Levine and team captain, Barry Caplan led the team to a second place finish out of seven schools. At the time of publication the Bowling Team was well on its way to obtain a position in the playoffs.

Girls' Badminton Team

The Badminton Team, coached by Mrs. Gartner, had a fantastic season even though it lacked the class four or senior girls category. The team placed third out of five schools in singles with the help of Usha Sheshadri who won three games and Debbie Alper who won two. The girls from Wagar who played doubles had a great time and gained much experience that they will put to good use next year.

TOP ROW: I. Beigleman, C. Azoulag, R. Gold, A. Cieply, M. Donoso, T. Chervin, F. Goldberg, Mrs. Gartner, Coach. BOTTOM ROW: C. Samra, R. Groberman, S. Bloom, S. Le, P. Asimakopulos.

Teachers' Team

L. TO R.: Mr. Aitken, Mr. McEwen, Mr. Armstrong, Mr. Iannou, Mr. Chuprun.

The Teachers' Team has once again dominated the courts throughout the basketball season. Mr. McEwen, the epitome of court etiquette, keeps the players in line while "The Hook" Iannou keeps the spectators roaring in the stands. The combination of Mr. Chuprun's original "pike lay-up", Mr. Aitken's "slam dunk" offence and Mr. Armstrong's well timed passes make every game fast and exciting.

Gymnastics

Mrs. Gartner, Wagar's newest Phys. Ed. teacher, is the coach of the school's second Gymnastic Team. Only the best coordinated and most flexible girls made the team. The lucky (and daring) ones who did, competed in the uneven bars, vault, beam and floor events.

True Confessions of the Graduating Music Class of '79

Ending up musicians
Must have been our fate
When we look back and remember
How it started in grade eight.

If your first choice was trumpet, your second sax,
Or between two you were torn,
Without a doubt you'd end up with
A winner like French horn!

The first few weeks were frustrating,
Blowing mouthpieces in class,
Unless you played the tuba-
If you could hold it you would pass!

Who could forget the problem
Of instruments shared by two?
"It wasn't my fault, my partner forgot-"
(But really it was you!)

And when we "musicians" practised,
(Oh, the novelty of it all!)
Our parents despised the racket
And we drove them up a wall.

The clarinets sounded like sick geese,
The horns a pregnant cow,
The clarinets have since improved
But the latter's the exact same now!

Then came grade nine, the inter. band,
Stella, "Montego Bay",
(But playing that piece in Pittsburgh nearly scared the Yanks away!)

But Pittsburgh was an experience,
They fed us milk and meat,
So when we came home to our matzoh balls,
They really were a treat!

Grade ten we ALL were in senior band,
A selected few in jazz,
The band, it started shaping up
With spirit and pizzazz.

The band fund needed money,
We chased people-oh, what gall!
When we poor, deprived kids of Cote St. Luc
Went begging in the mall!

Bottle drives and raffles,
"To help defray the cost of uniforms and the band exchange"
The cause was far from lost.

We skipped classes for the bake sales,
The food was really swell,
But by the time that recess came
There was nothing left to sell!

Our car washes were chaos,
As we smeared around the dirt,
The filthy rags and water fights
Didn't help — but didn't hurt.

Long Island proved great and compared to it
Pittsburgh was a pity,
As our jackets of white and blue
Invaded New York City.

Now in grade eleven,
Connoisseurs of music we are,
We "seniors" can order the "juniors" around
And Mr. Ranti is now "J.R."

Our final year at Wagar
Was a tremendous one at that,
The bands, they sounded exceptional
And Poughkeepsie was where it was at.

Well Mr. Ranti, we love you so,
You're really quite a catch,
But those clothes just have to go-
Pink and brown don't match!

But really now, you're quite a guy,
You've made our years here treasured,
What we've learnt, the times we've loved
Really can't be measured.

We bid farewell to the Wagar Band,
Great memories will never cease,
For always in our hearts we'll hear
That good ol' "Masterpiece".

Lynn Herzeg and Joy Goldberg

President's Report

I can say, without hesitation, that we have seen another successful year for the Wagar Student Council. Wagar saw more activities than any year in recent history, and the reception of these events by the Wagar Student Body was very rewarding. Many traditions — such as Greasers Day, the ski trip, and the Guys' Beauty Pageant — were continued. Events from Wagar's past — such as movies and Pecarve — were brought back. Other activities — such as Casino Lunch, roller-skating, and the election of a Winter Carnival Royal Family — were new to Wagar. Radio Wagar was expanded to two days a week. We also threw a Christmas party for Royal Arthor School School. 1978-79 saw more undergraduate participation than ever before.

On the political level, Student Council was much busier than in recent years. A sudden enforcement of the "no-student-parking-in-the-lot" rule resulted in an organized student protest and a formal Student Council proposal. Our proposal was highly praised, then shelved by the administration. Also, we saw a sudden change in the school's smoking policy. Students now had to smoke away from all school entrances. Wagarites affected by these new rules learned two things: A) in a democratic system one's leaders act only if there is sufficient protest; and B) as students we have no real power. Even though we achieved no concrete results this year in either of the two above mentioned cases, I hope that the Student Council will continue to make organized protests. These protests are bound to influence future administrative decisions. I hope as well that in the future the Wagar administration will realize that the "raison d'etre" of any school is its students. The needs of the students, therefore, should be given top priority, whether it is convenient or not.

For example, there are no valid reasons to justify our January 1979 exam schedule. Some kids had seven hours of exams in a row! I am not saying the exam period should have been longer or that it should have been in December. I am saying that the administration had absolutely no excuse for putting together an exam timetable like that one; the whole purpose of having formal examinations is to allow the student to show his or her instructors what he or she has learned.

As my second year as Student Council President comes to an end, I realize that I was one of many who enjoyed some very rare experiences as a high school student. There are many people to thank. First and foremost on the list is a super guy, our dedicated advisor, Mr. Feigen. He always had a way of steering us in the right direction when we were heading the wrong way. Mr. Feigen was part of the Student Council, and his support and participation contributed significantly to our every endeavour. Another big contributor was our Vice-President, Crayne Spanier. His constant stream of original and sometimes crazy ideas and theories presented a new angle to all aspects of Student Council. On behalf of each and every Wagarite, I would like to thank our terrific office staff for lending us scissors, scotch tape, dimes and pencils; as well as for dealing with all other sorts of student "emergencies". Their friendliness was really appreciated.

This next group of people has not received the recognition they deserve: our teachers. Although some were apathetic just like we students, most played a very important part in our life, Wagar. Over half of the teaching staff participated directly in extracurricular activities: — some coached sports teams, others organized student trips, advised clubs or directed our school play. Some teachers were just plain nice, others showed us that they cared. I hope that the crippling teacher strikes and refusal to participate in E.C.A. my graduating class endured in grades eight and nine do not plague our successors. Finally one big 'thank you' to the dozens and dozens of Wagarites who did their part by helping out. Some people worked a little; others a lot. Without the enthusiasm and dedication of the various committees and part-time Student Council "staff", nothing would have been possible. These people — the staff and students — are Wagar High School. Wagar is not a building, Wagar is people like you and me. Thanks, Wagar.

Well, that wraps up another two chapters of the Wagar Student Council, good luck to those writing the next one.

B.J. Bonder,
President,
Wagar Student Council, 1977-79

Activity Committee

Winter Carnival Committee

1st ROW: M. Cherna, R. Libman, L. Levine, J. Lechter. 2nd ROW: B. Kahn, S. Kapusta, C. Spanier, M. Morein, B. Bonder, R. Laurie, C. Altman, E. Itzcovici, P. Bloom, M. Salonin, R. Zipper.

Graduating Class Organization

With Mme. Henry as advisor this year's G.C.O. worked harder than ever handling the purchase of grad rings and organizing the graduation dinner and dance at the Ritz Carlton Hotel. The committee's fund-raising projects, including a bowl-a-thon and a dance marathon, proved instrumental in the success of the grad, as did the dedicated work of all those involved.

L. Sobcuff, S. Segal, R. Libman, M. Aber, N. Hercvici, C. Spanier, S. Brodie, S. Dahan, S. Koeing, N. Mindel, M. Rubin, M. Morein, R. Charness, L. Liberman, F. Nozetz, P Unger, D. Salzman, B. Gordon.

Reach for the Top Team

Wagar's 1979 team entry for CBC's Reach for the Top are Hillel Rosen, Michael Margolian, Phillip Freedman and Douglas Ruby. At the time of publication, the team had not yet met with Bialik High for their first game. However, the team was challenged by several ambitious Wagarites. In one such match, the team defeated their competition by a score of 720 to 250. The team has been in serious training for several weeks under the direction of Mrs. Sherman and by Mrs. Rosenfeld.

H. Rosen, M. Margolian, P. Friedman, D. Ruby.

Shower Club

Although this year is the first for Wagar's Shower Club, it is already established as one of the school's most elite, with the membership restricted to only two students per annum. Meetings of this club are held on a daily basis in the boys' showers. The purpose of the club is to promote personal cleanliness and eliminate the odours which surround the other members of the home room gym class.

S. Bick, M. Baron.

Ancient History Club

J. Melzack, C. Katz, L. Herzeg.

The cancellation of History 52 due to insufficient registration did not stop these ancient history buffs. Meeting approximately once a week with Mrs. Sherman, their studies ranged from the ancient civilizations of the Middle East to the Roman Empire. The group participated out of sheer interest and some did proceed to write the matric in June.

Aquarium Club

There was definitely something "fishy" going on in room 302 as Mr. Levine's Aquarium Club met approximately every two weeks to discuss care and breeding of tropical fish. Membership was open to anyone and all members got a 10% discount on supplies at the local pet shop. The fish which were bred by the club were distributed among the members at the end of the school year.

F. Fundaro, S. Lievowirz, Mr. A. Levine, L. Faibian, E. Bloom.

R a d i o W a g a r

Sponsored by the Student Council, Radio Wagar was "broadcasted" every Wednesday and Thursday on the first floor and in the girls' gym respectively. Wagar's John Travolta's let loose and danced to music played by DJ Mike Cherna. The success of this lunch time activity can be attributed to many, in particular, Mr. Feigan, B.J. Bonder and Crayne Spanier. The Student Council extends its thanks to Mrs. Rodriguez for the use of her office on Wednesdays and to Mrs. Gartner for the use of the gym on Thursdays.

figures.” says Mr. Max Peters, former theatre artist (Mordechai Putershnit), as he displays the many lovely things he has made.

“My grandsons take my paintings as soon as I complete them. To keep fit, I use the whirlpool 3 times a week. I take part in other activities as well such as movies once a week, lectures, concerts and bridge. I like being active, it keeps me young.”

Creativity — one of the many reasons why —

Acknowledgements

We would like to express our sincere thanks to all those who participated in or gave their support to Prelude '79. Thanks to our invaluable advisors, Miss Spanier and Mr. Hart, as well as Miss Irigo, for their priceless advice. We would also like to thank the office staff for being so co-operative. Special thanks also go to Jim Rafuse from National School Services for being so helpful, and also to our teachers for being so understanding. But most of all, we would like to thank all those who worked on Prelude '79 and the Wagar student body for being supportive.
