"Good music penetrates the ear with facility and quits the memory with difficulty."

Sir Thomas Beecham

EDITORS' MESSAGE

Music influences our lives in many different ways. A few notes from an old song can evoke a whole range of long-forgotten memories. A favorite song can bring happiness into an otherwise bleak situation. In the modern era, music has also played the role of a moral conscience in our society. In the sixties, we saw it denounce war and speak out for peace and the freedom to choose our own destinies. In the seventies, music became a cry for racial equality and a vehicle for the expression of social unrest. Recently, we have seen musicians using their skills to aid the unfortunate people in famine-stricken countries.

The degree to which music succeeds in its message depends on the way we interpret it. It enables us to reach into our souls and take an honest look at ourselves and the world around us.

Lianne Singer and Ignacio Donoso
Editors-In-Chief

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Graduates,

Now that you have completed your years at Wagar, I hope that you are leaving us with a sense of accomplishment, and the confidence that you feel well prepared for the next stage of your lives.

It is my conviction that high school should not only be a useful experience, but also a happy one. Often one requires the passing of a little time before one can reasonably assess the worth of a particular experience. In any event, I hope you will be able to look back on your high school years with happy memories.

As to the future, let me encourage you to use your time wisely. This precious commodity, "time", passes with such rapidity as one gets older, that it is worth remembering Henry Dobson's comment when writing on the Paradox of Time -

"Time goes, you say? Ah no!

Alas, Time stays, WE go."

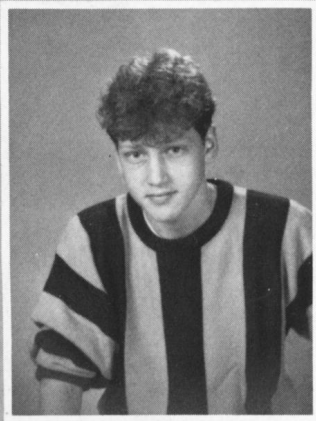

But my intention is not to be pessimistic, so let me conclude with some good advice from Ben Franklin, who said -

"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that's the stuff life is made of."

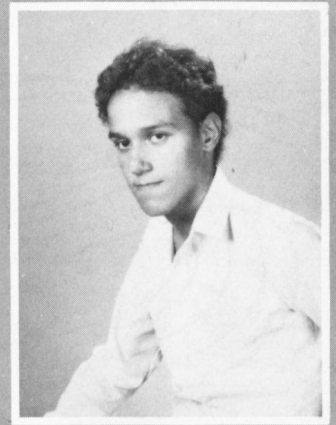

Good luck to you all - for happy and successful futures.

Dear, how nice to see you!
(Won't you please go away?)
What a lovely surprise!
(It ruined my day)
Your hair looks adorable!
(Just like a shorn sheep)
I just saw your boyfriend -
(That sickening creep)
Yes, he's certainly charming!
(The charm of an ape!)
Sweetheart, you look slimmer!
(You look like a grape.)
Oh, ten pounds at least, dear!
(I can't find your waist . . .)
That makeup is lovely!
(I can't find your face!)
What store is that dress from?
(So I'll stay away . . .)
You made it? No kidding!
(Thoroughly déclassé)
What? Tchaikovsky? I love him!
(Who in God's name is he?)
9 O'clock at the center?
(Lord, she's inviting me!)
Oh, darn I can't make it!
(Why me? It's unfair!)
I've a prior engagement
(I'm washing my hair.)
Well, it's been a pleasure!
(My reputation is stained!)
. . . And the phony walked away
(But the facade remained.)

THE LIMITS OF LIFE

Darkness, listen closely to the music . . . watch the shadows move across the wall, imagine them as people, monsters! You open the lights and there is nothing there, you meet eye to eye with the lonely goldfish who swims in an enclosed world and wonders what surrounds him, protected by the glass wall. Comforted by the silence, with caution, the lights are once again darkened. You roll into a ball cradled by the warmth of your blankets. Thoughts of the new day fill your mind, your eyes begin to close on the old world, and open to a new life of hopes, fantasies, and soaring birds flying fearlessly with no boundaries. Once again, the sadness of being awakened by the sudden sounds of a new day. For the world is like the lonely goldfish protected and limited by the glass wall. For real freedom does not exist . . .

I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER . . .

I'll always remember the time we met that beautiful autumn day;
The sun shone bright above us,
we had so much to say.
How could I express to you how much it meant to me
As we held hands in the fresh, sweet air.
it felt as if we were meant to be.
Talking endlessly,
we spent hours on the phone,
we pledged to be as one,
and never be alone.
Arms about each other,
we showed how much we cared,
Such experiences we had,
we cried, we laughed, we shared.
Such perfection did not last as long as we had thought it could,
We tried to build it up again; but we'd failed,
we never would.
Time is fleeting and the days grow cold.
The months slip past November;
young love we shared; the day we met,
yes, I will always remember.

THE MORNING STAR

The first light of dawn begins to spread across the sky, changing it from deep black
to a rainbow of pastels,
and ends with a brilliant red sun hanging just above the horizon.
Slowly, one by one,
the stars begin to blink out.
As the sporadic clouds turn from fiery pink to gentle white,
as the rainbow colors in the sky blend in together to form perfect blue,
the last morning star slowly
fades away.

SNOWY MORNING

Wake up,
Look outside and see,
The snow has fallen,
Finally.
Listen closely,
And you might hear,
The peacefulness,
Of a city so dear.
No siren howls,
No blow of horns.
Thus the first day of winter is born.

LONELY DARKNESS

I sit in the lonely darkness
Waiting for a dream
Hoping it will come true
And bring me happiness

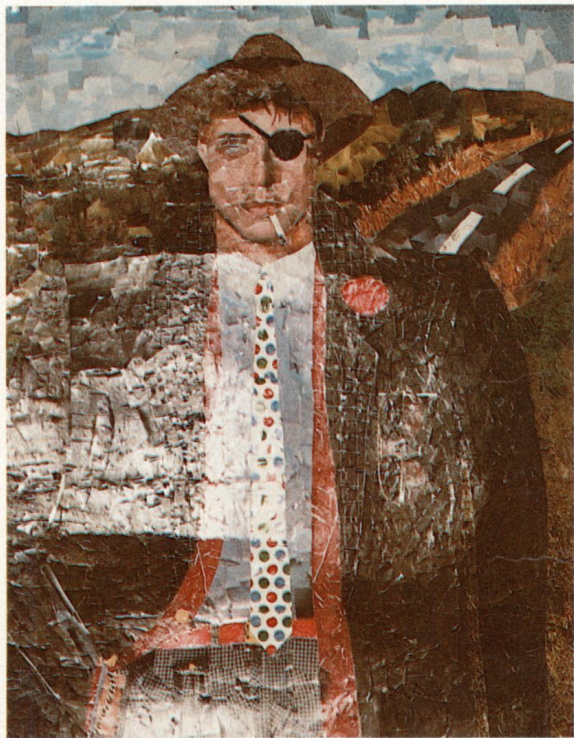

A child's laughter echoes in the dark
Bringing back thoughts and memories
Shared between me and him
Not so long ago.

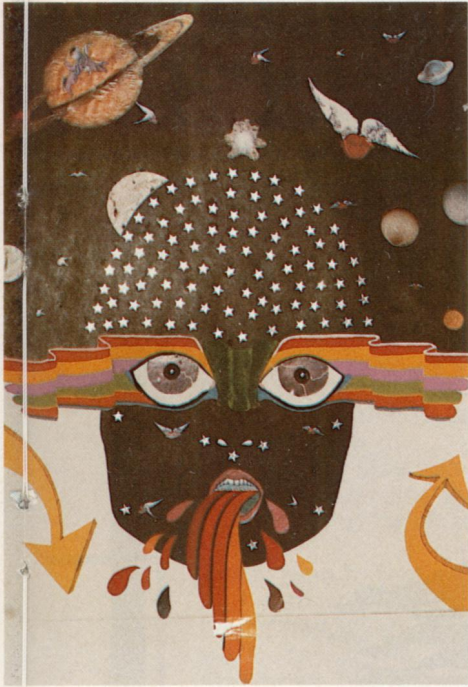

He was here by my side
Bringing me pleasure and happiness
Now loneliness and emptiness take its place
As I sit in the lonely darkness.

ONLY TO RUN

Living in a world of mistrust and lost imagination
we sit here and ponder over God's creation
Not really understanding where we've come from or what lies ahead
the lack of appreciation realised only after ones dead

We observe and then we analyse,
What are the truths and what are the lies,
Questions are answered dreams fade or come true,
but there I lay in the dark with a mixed up point of view.

Reality I run from scared of what I may see.
I may become brave and turn in the opposite direction where will I be
There amongst a crowd I stand appearing unique although only a cover for I am without strength, I am meek.

Carrie Kahlenberg

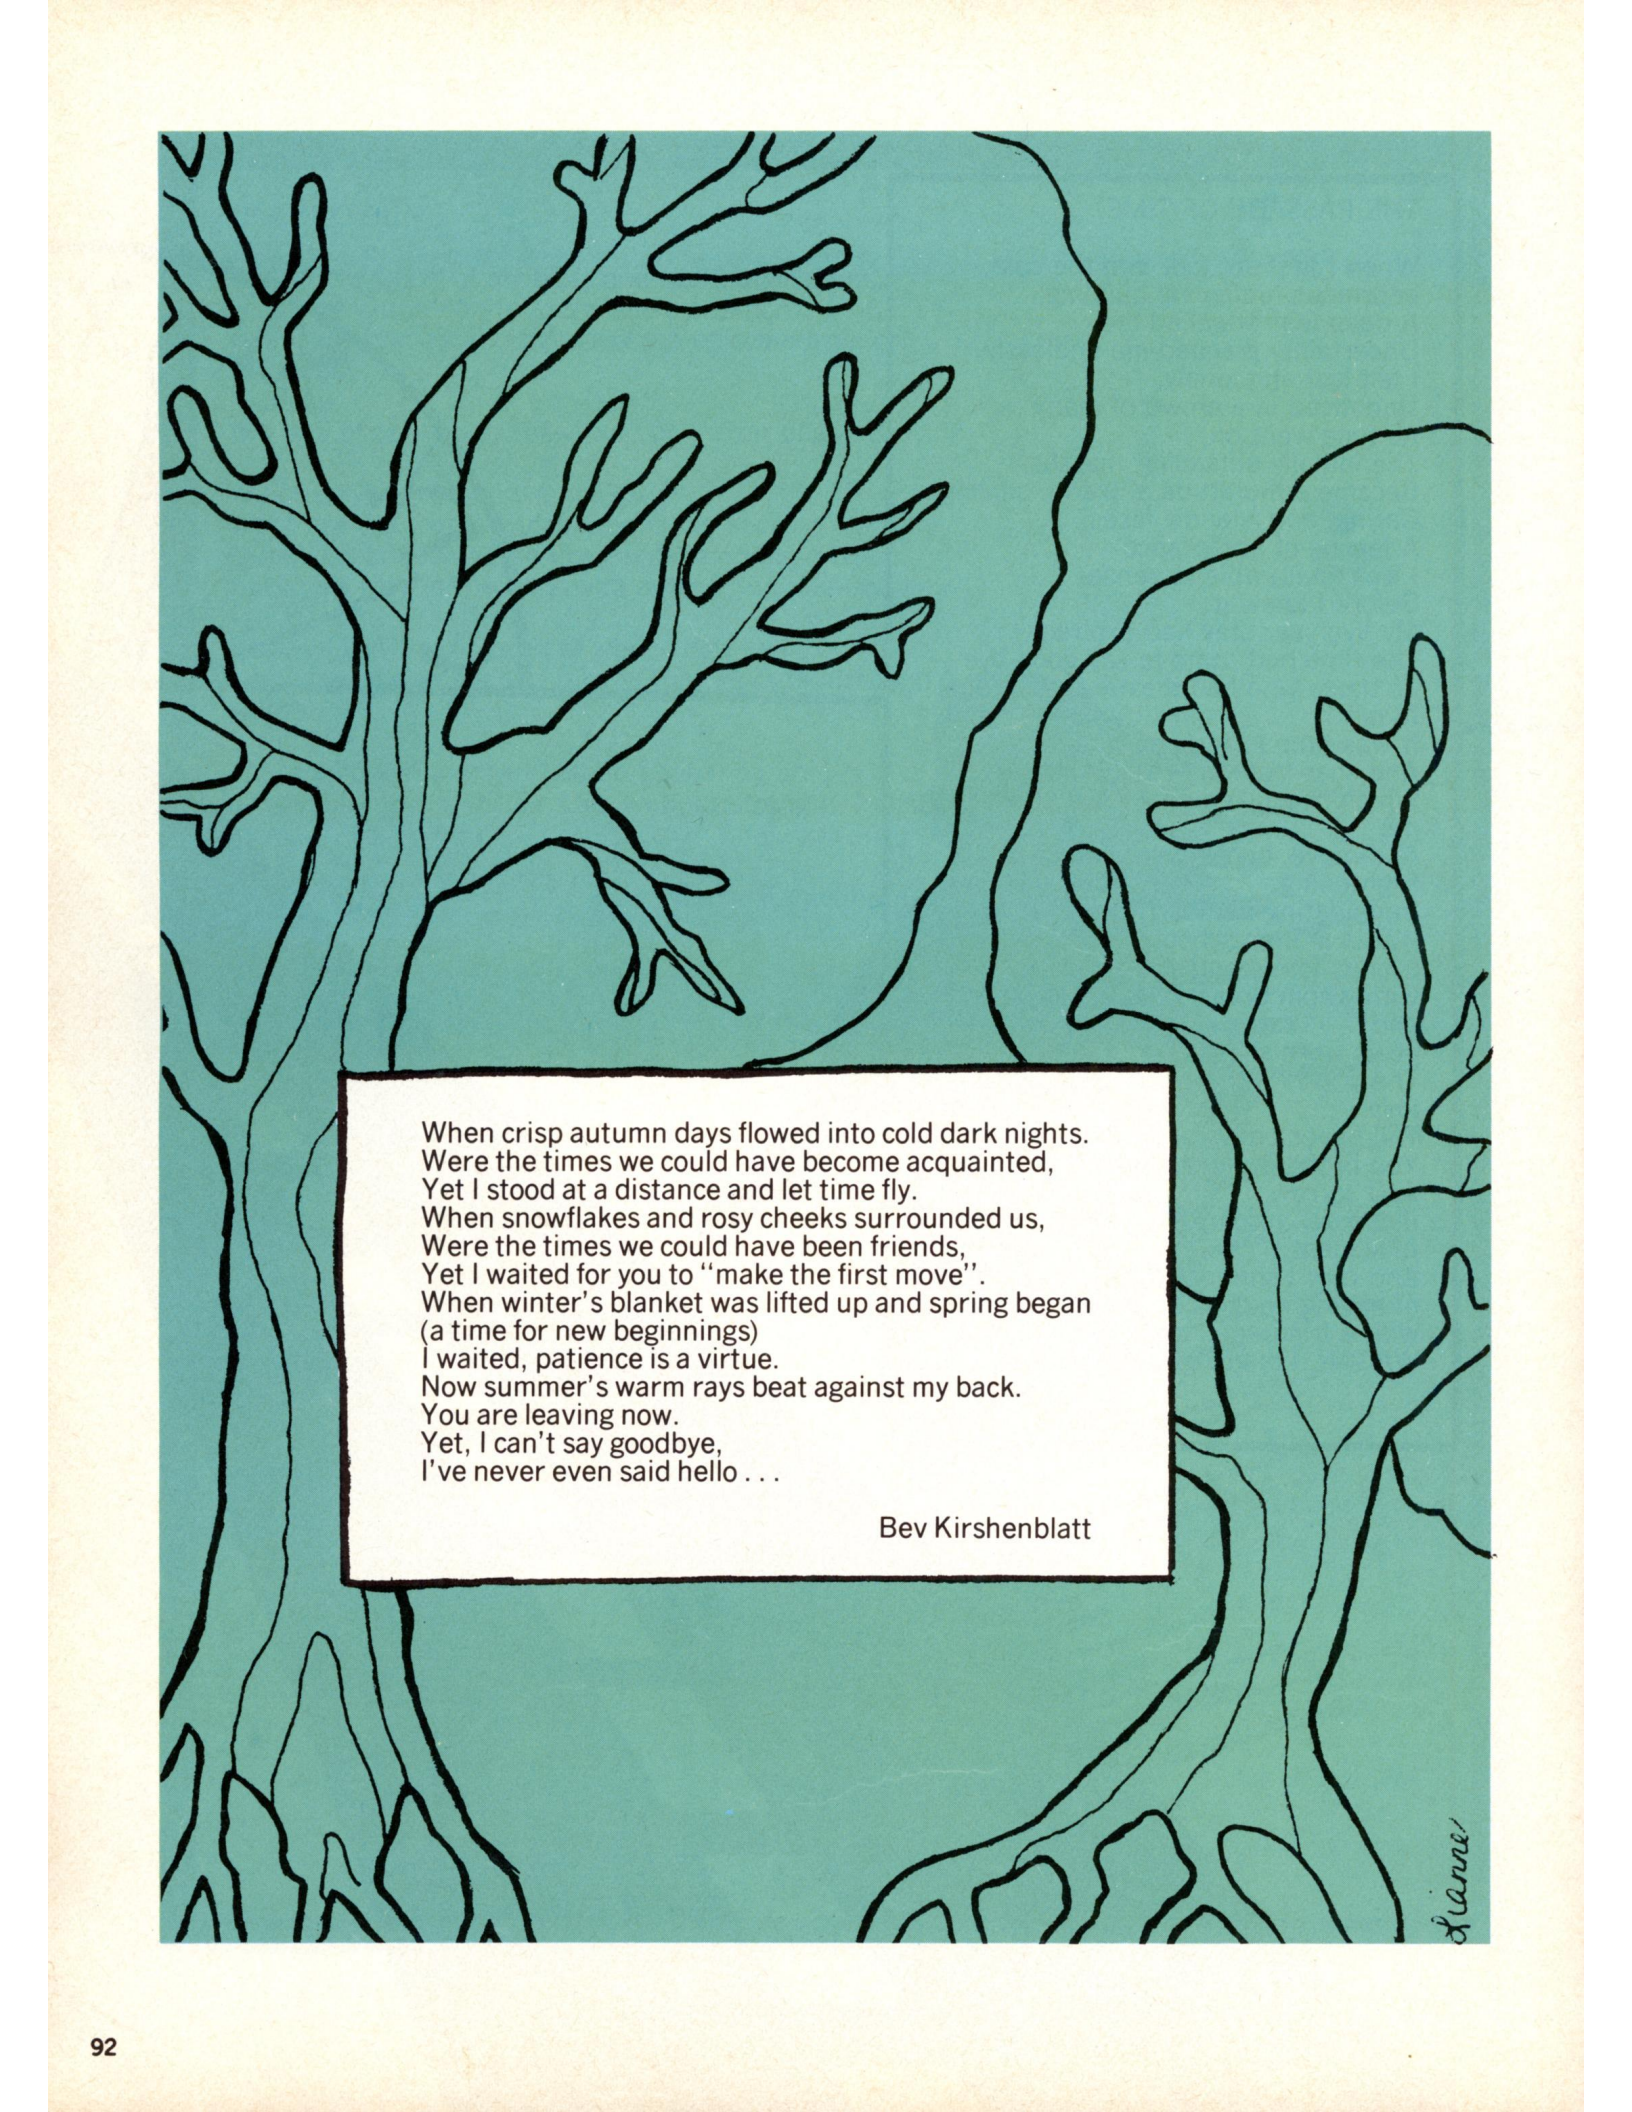

THE PASSAGE OF TIME

When I first set foot into the cold,
enormous, unfeeling building,
A deep fear engulfed me,
Uncertainty plagued me endlessly.
I felt lost and lonely,
Unnoticed in a crowd of many.
As time went on,
The initially unfamiliar masses
Became a multitude of warm, smiling,
Caring, and friendly faces
A feeling of acceptance
I was finally able to sense.
Before I knew it,
My five year stay had expired,
The time had come to say good-bye
To those who had meant a great deal to me.
It was time to test my wings,
And soar from the establishment
Which had taken such care in teaching me
And move, once again, into a frightening,
Intimidating new territory.
It was in high school where I made friends for whom I truly cared,
with whom dreams, fantasies, sadness and goals were shared.
The bonds with those I'd grown to love
Will never be severed.
You brought me laughter,
And sorrow,
Pleasure, accomplishment and fulfillment
And now I shudder at the realization of having no choice but to depart with a frightened and heavy heart.
WAGAR, I'm going to miss you . . .

The background is a solid teal color. Overlaid on this are white line drawings of trees and branches, some of which are partially obscured by a central white text box. The text box has a thin black border and contains a poem. The signature 'diane' is written in the bottom right corner of the teal area.

When crisp autumn days flowed into cold dark nights.
Were the times we could have become acquainted,
Yet I stood at a distance and let time fly.
When snowflakes and rosy cheeks surrounded us,
Were the times we could have been friends,
Yet I waited for you to "make the first move".
When winter's blanket was lifted up and spring began
(a time for new beginnings)
I waited, patience is a virtue.
Now summer's warm rays beat against my back.
You are leaving now.
Yet, I can't say goodbye,
I've never even said hello . . .

Outsider Looking In

Eyes,
Looking at me
Eyes,
Staring at me
Eyes,
Examining me
Eyes,
Taking me apart.

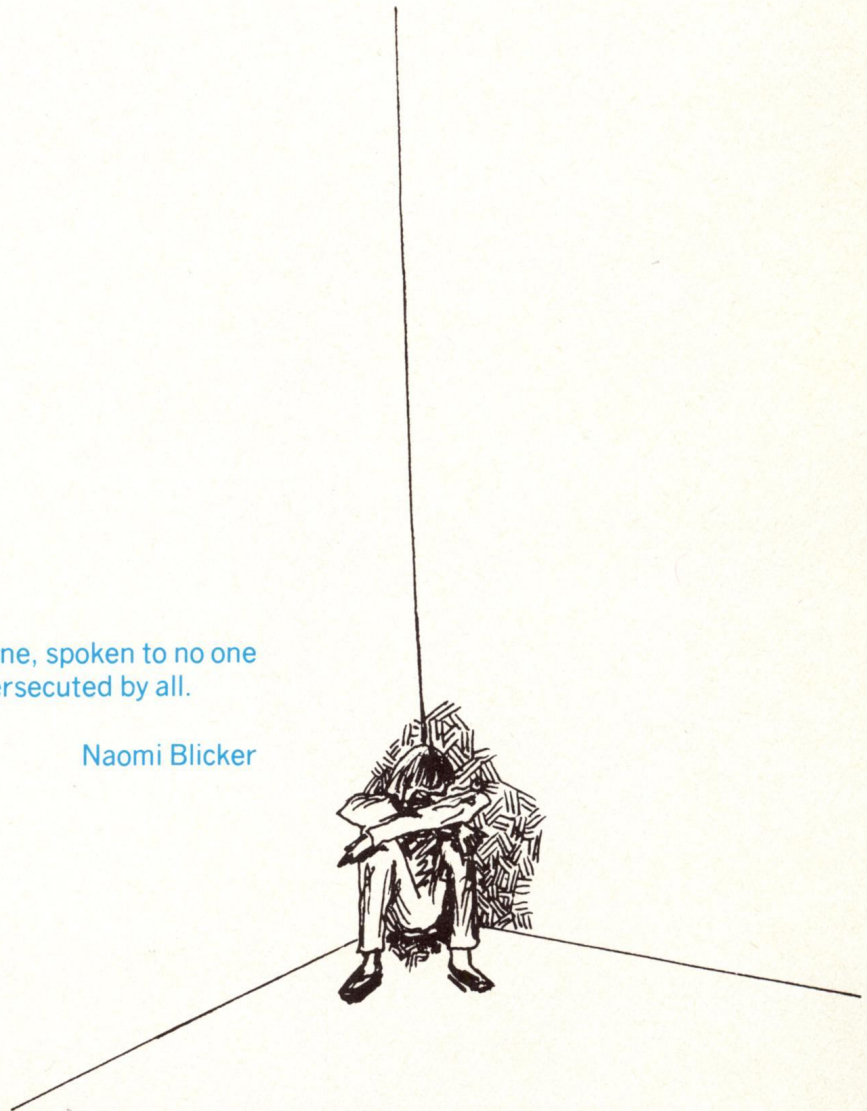

Voices,
Talking at me,
Voices,
Questioning me,
Voices,
Yelling at me,
Voices,
Ordering me.

Hands,
Touching me,
Hands,
Pulling me
Hands,
Dragging me
Hands,
Hitting me

People,
Pointing at me
People,
Screaming at me
People,
Spitting at me
People,
Hating me.

I have done nothing, looked at no one, spoken to no one and touched no one, and yet I'm persecuted by all.

A Friend

So far, so close so distant.
So loved, cared for but hurt.
Slowly . . .
Patterns changing, spread apart.
Conflict of ideas occur.
Slowly . . .
Minds meet, thoughts connect,
Patterns once again coincide.
Slowly . . .
A friendship is rebuilt.

Sharon Singer

C'est quoi, un ami?

Un ami, c'est quelqu'un
Qui t'inclus dans ses loisirs,
Autant que dans sa peine.

Un ami, c'est quelqu'un
Qui t'aime pour ce que tu as
Et non pas pour ce que tu fais

Un ami, c'est quelqu'un
Qui n'est pas jaloux de tes victoires,
Mais qui est là pour t'aider à les célébrer

Un ami, c'est quelqu'un
En qui tu peux faire confiance:
Il ne dira jamais tes secrets.

Un ami, c'est quelqu'un
Qui est toujours là pour te parler
Même quand tu n'es pas là pour lui.

This year Wagar had only one soccer team in the Bantam category. The team, coached by Mr. Fabb, ended the season with a 1-5 win-loss record. That's not bad considering that most of the team was composed of ready-to-play rookies. They do have potential, and we hope to see them return next year!

FIRST ROW: S. Bassel, A. Azoulay, A. Chalkoun. Second Row: S. Klassen, M. Schwartz, D. Rosman, B. Kalfon. THIRD ROW: Mr. Superstein, J. Kwan, W. Keing, S. Bayer, E. Benitah.

Cross-Country Running

Once again, Waggar's cross country team worked hard to meet the challenge of this sport. Under the guidance of Mr. Superstein, the team trained hard, put in lots of effort, and came through with flying colours.

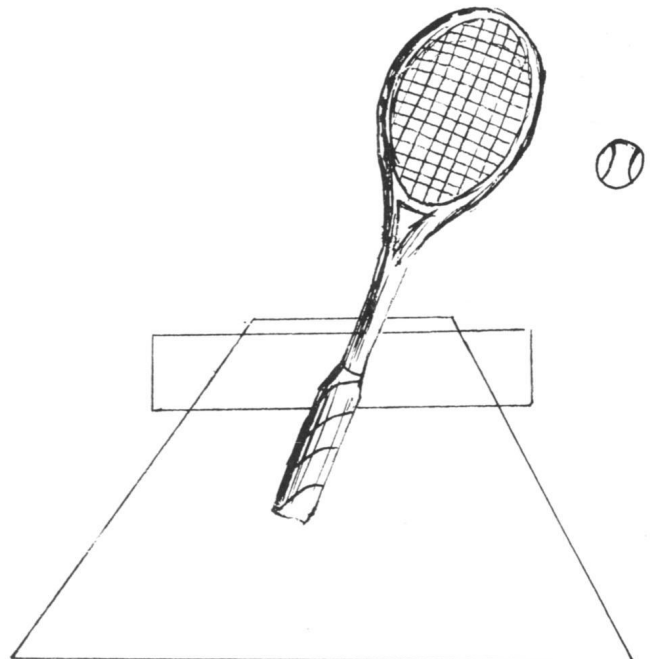

Tennis

This picture was taken at practice, we're too good to practice. For the fourth straight year Wagar has won the GMMA gold for tennis. Girls teams as strong as boys (they both used deodorant).

We expect pretty ok things from these highly trained, highly high individuals. Best of luck, on and off the court for all of them.

Mr. Chuprun's Juvenile Girls had a "pretty" successful year. They started off a little slow, but once they realized that the ball goes over the net, not under, they improved greatly! With an 11-13 win-loss record, they finished fourth in their category. The team, led by Ella "Goggles" Wolofsky, Deena "Quickie" Segal, and Robin "Got it" Kohn, managed the impossible feat of winning four straight games at one tournament! One day (one day . . .) they'll be able to play the teachers . . . and win!

Midget Boys Volleyball

LEFT TO RIGHT: J. Coplan, A. Bensimon, G. Rosenoff, J. Finiffter, D. Beiger, Mr. Butler. ABSENT: P. Guigui, L. Chalkoun, K. Chow, B. Spilfogel.

The 1984-85 Midget Boys Volleyball Team had an outstanding year. The midget team, coached by Mr. Butler, was very successful and showed a great performance in the city championships with a second place finish. Despite the loss of 10 games, the team won 38, which, if you ask me, is great! Congratulations, guys, on an excellent season!

Juvenile Boys Volleyball

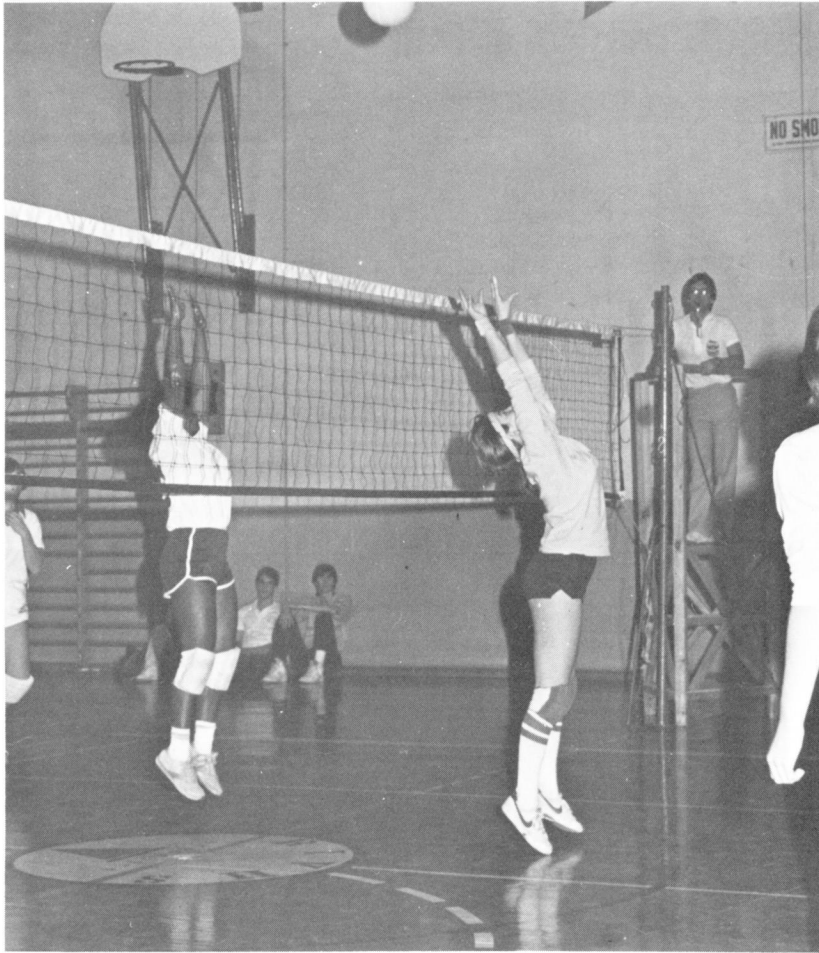

This year's Juvenile Volleyball Team was predestined to lose every game in the season BUT they shocked the world by reaching the semi-finals and ending fourth place in the city. We thank Danny Glassman, the 6'1" giant, for his encouragement before leaving for Italy.

The shortest team in the league was now left with little enthusiasm to make the semi-finals, BUT with excellent coaching from the fatherly Mr. McEwen, the superb rookie playing of Robert Amar, Paul Cutler, Simon Berdugo and the rest of the team, they were able to reach the playoffs with high hopes.

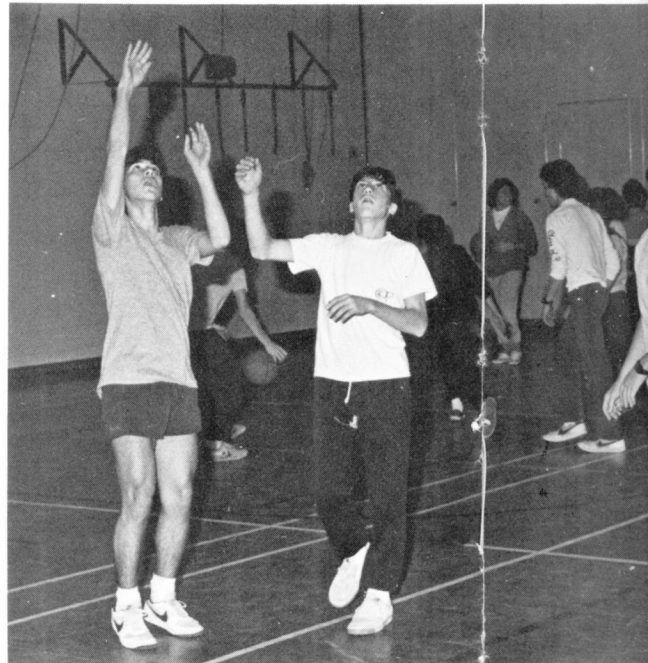

P.S. Thanks to all the guys for the laughs.
Motto: WE LOOK GOOD.

Juvenile Boys Basketball

The Juvenile Panthers although off to a sluggish start should prosper in the coming weeks of the regular season. This team, dominated by such Midget age players as Robert "Flash" Ferguson and Glen "Rosie" Rosenoff show much potential for the coming year. They have a lot of young talent but are finding it difficult to compete in a league of veteran players. Bearded but beautiful coach James "I have no emotions" Aitken finds it difficult to be disappointed with this year's team. We have high hopes for them in the future.

Midget Boys' Basketball

A very young Midget team, plagued with inexperience, had trouble in the regular season. Many of the more prominent and experienced players were playing in the Juvenile league which left the team with little firepower against a very tough, competitive division. Coach Terry Chuprun had undertaken a very difficult task with this team. He is looking forward to the summer so that he can relax and prepare himself for another gruelling season of high school basketball. Better luck next year.

Bantam Boys' Basketball

Coming off a disappointing 1983-84 season, these youngsters are vastly improved and are the Cinderella team in their tough division and league. Currently, they are 4-6 but a very proud Mr. Butler, who is the coach, is confident that his men will finish the year over .500.

With star players such as Dave "fast break" Rosenberg, there is no telling how well the team will do. But rest assured that with only a little experience under their belts, they are doing fantastically well and command a lot of respect in the dog-eat-dog world of Bantam Boys Basketball. Yahoo!

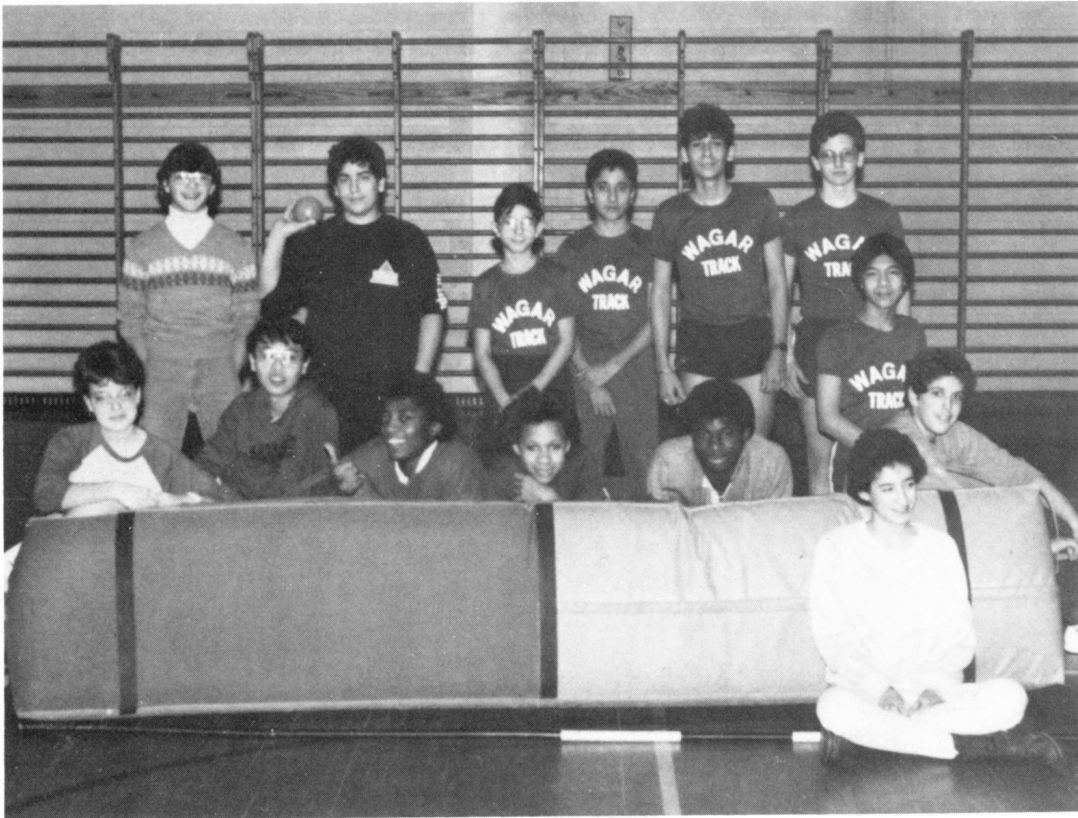

Juvenile Girls' Basketball

One of Wagar's most popular sport teams is the girl's basketball team (for obvious reasons). This squad of spunky girls shows great potential on and off the court. It is led by one of the ugliest coaches in the league, Mr. Don McEwen who had this to say about his club. "They're the most fantastic group of individuals that I have ever had the pleasure of working with". Then in afterthought he said, "They're gorgeous. This team has a lot of potential and they're heavy favorites to make the playoffs and the finals."

TRACK & FIELD

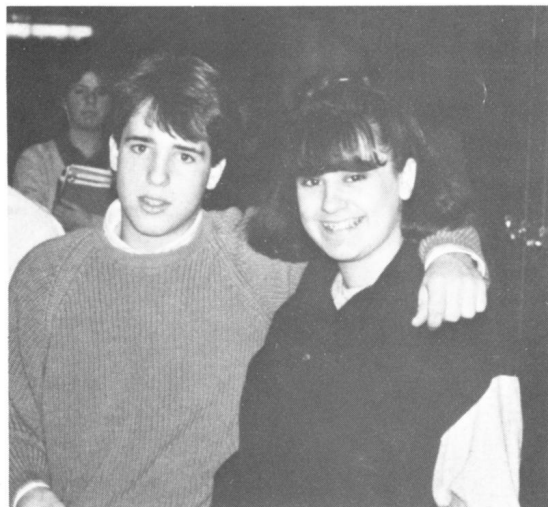

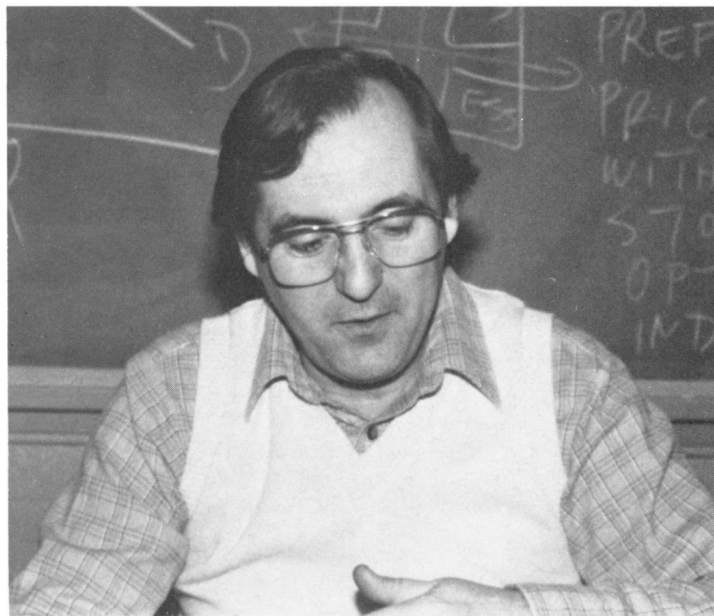

The track and field team this year is enjoying a season of success. The team, led by Robert Ferguson, has placed well in several meets and has broken several records both in the school and in the province. The indoor track team has done well and hopefully the outdoor track team will equal if not surpass the high standard of excellence enjoyed by the indoor team.

SKI TEAM

This year, Wagar had one of its strongest teams ever. The team won two gold medals, one in the Juvenile Giant Slalom and another in the Bantam Girls Giant Slalom. The Bantam Girls Team won the combined with the superb performance of Lee Cappel who finished first. Juvenile winner Jimmy April managed to beat his nearest opponent by a three-second margin. He is looking forward to the '88 Calgary Winter Olympics where he feels he can win double gold in Slalom and Giant Slalom. Best of luck!

STUDENT COUNCIL

By the crack of a whip, we became presidents of this society, we have come to acknowledge as Wagar. The society we began to govern is that of laziness and apathy. We feel that we have started a new dawn of rejuvenation for student activities. Overcoming numerous obstacles we have finally satisfied the population of Wagar with an overwhelmingly successful dance thus proving that Wagar students have the potential to attain greatness. We feel that the future of our society lies in the hands of our future Student council presidents, to whom we wish the best success in governing. This year has proved a major step in achieving a perfect Utopian school government where apathy has been abolished from the system. Our new dual-presidential system has contributed to this step. We hope we have set a political precedent in future Wagar politics.

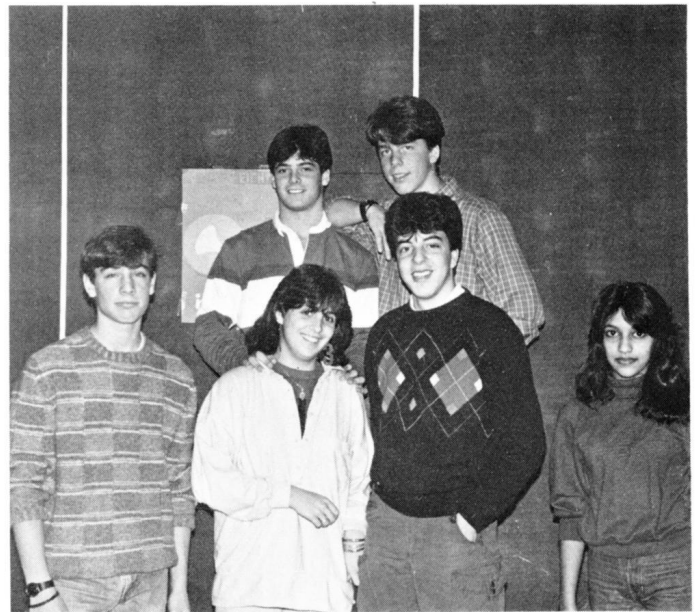

Your presidents,

Vice Prezs' Message

People always look at us, and then say "Randy . . . Naomi . . . , why are you guys on the Student Council?" Or else they say "Randy . . . Naomi . . . , "What are you doing for us, the student body?" After giving these brilliant questions a considerable amount of thought, we feel that it is at this time we should explain ourselves. Could it be that we enjoy spending our lunch hours looking at unsold chocolate bars? Could it be that we like selling Wagar Jackets to ourselves? Or maybe it's the satisfaction of knowing that 2/3 of the student body slept right through Winter Carnival? Exactly what it is, we don't know. We leave it up to you.

NERD DAY

Nerd Day? "Why Nerd Day?" they asked. Well, in response, Wagar's finest student council responded with an overwhelming "Why not? Hat Day never works!" October 31 represented a typical day at Wagar except for all those people who participated in Nerd Day. These brave souls dropped the equestrian polo mallet for the day in favour of clothing that would make Alfred E. Newman proud. Congratulations to all those who won the event as well as to everyone else who participated. It takes one to know one!

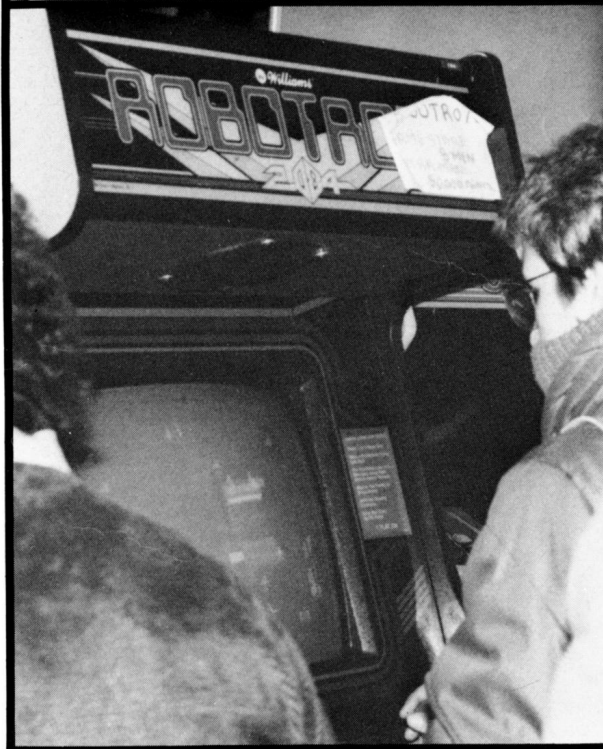

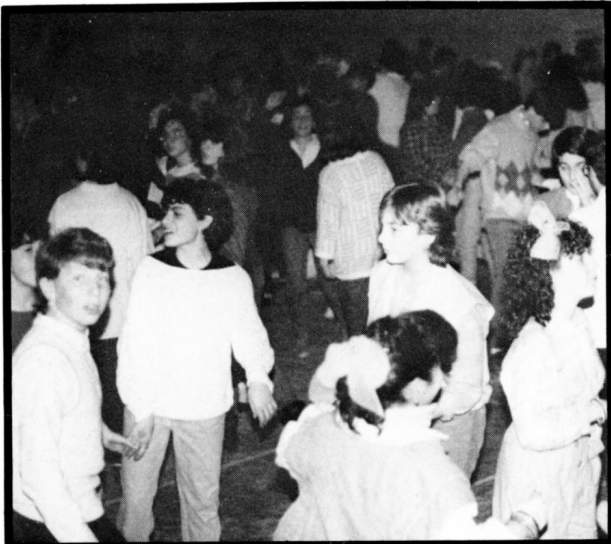

GCO

Looking at all these happy faces, I'm sure you can guess that these are graduating students, who can't wait to leave our wonderful school. These grads are so excited to leave Wagar after five years, that they are planning our '85 graduation. And what a grad it will be! The organization has raised money for the highly anticipated affair, by holding bake sales, an exciting raffle drive, etc . . . Graduates continued the tradition of purchasing grad rings, both the traditional and modern rings. On Thursday night, May 23, our graduates will don their finest attire, while dining and dancing at the posh Sheraton Centre Hotel. I'm sure it will be a fun, wild, and memorable evening for every graduating student at Wagar. Thanks to our advisors, Ms. Adams and Mr. Feigen for helping us plan our grad. I'm sure each and every graduate will miss this great school, the teachers and even the students.

WINTER CARNIVAL

This year's Winter Carnival was a great success.

The fun kicked off with a Valentine's Day dance, and to our surprise many people from Wagar were actually there. Everyone can attest that the dance was long overdue and succeeded beyond their wildest expectations. The dance was highlighted by some of Wagar's most notable sex symbols whose hairy legs & Hawaiian tans stunned us all.

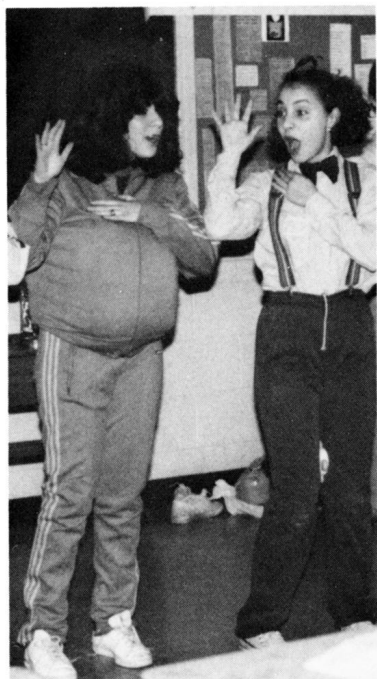

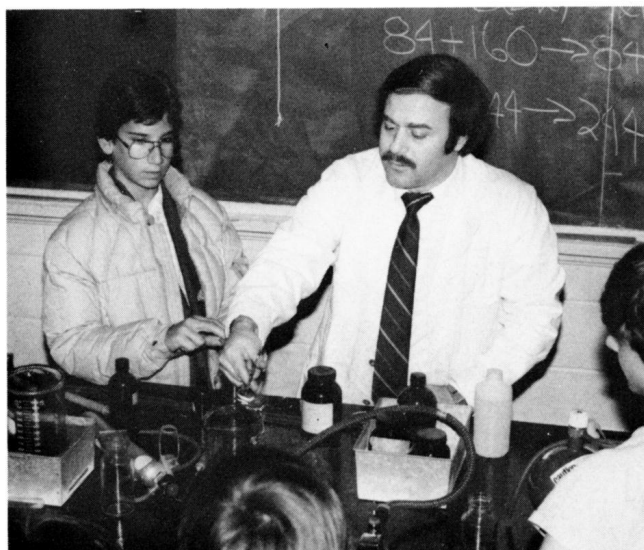

The next day, there was a wide variety of activities to delight and amuse Wagar's populace. The rugged nature enthusiasts among us trekked to Mt. Tremblant for a refreshing day of skiing in sub-zero weather.

Those more interested in high-tech spent the morning vaporizing cosmic invaders and gruesome ghosts at Amusements Pinocchio. Although the students enjoyed themselves, the teachers had the best time showing off their pinball wizardry. Wagarites who have always craved their own set of wheels got it at the Paladium. These lucky students had a chance to develop their roller-skating skills and work up their appetites for the scrumptious meal which was later served in the school cafeteria.

And let us not forget the ice skaters who had a chance to strut their stuff at the understated yet elegant Samuel Moscovitch arena.

Then all except the skiers were reunited to collapse in utter exhaustion in the plush seats of Wagar's auditorium. There, they were treated to a celebrity screening of "Revenge of the Nerds"

All in all, the 1985 Winter Carnival was an overwhelming success which can be credited to the hard work & dedication of the Student Council.

OPEN HOUSE

Once again, Wagar held its annual "Open House" on Wednesday, January 30, 1985, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The Open House was to show parents and friends projects the students grade 7-11 made in the first part of the school year. Among these projects were assignments in French, English, Math, Economics, MRE, History, Mass Media, T.D, Fine Arts, Geography, Computer Science, Political Science and Business Education. There were displays in the lobby window and in the library. A basketball game was held in the gymnasium, and a band performance in the Auditorium. Thanks to Miss Ebbett and the many others who participated in the event, Open House was a great success.

THE STRATFORD FESTIVAL

In the fall of 1984, 42 students and 3 very brave teachers (Miss Rosenberg, Mr. Zelniker and Ms. Candib) set out for 3 glorious days at the Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Ontario.

Arriving at the Queen's Hotel at about 4:00 P.M. The group had to hurry to be in time for the first of the three plays that they were going to see.

The students laughed through Moliere's Tartuffe, cried through Romeo and Juliet and slept through The Merchant of Venice. But along with this cultural experience was the good time shared by all, whether it was going out for dinner with friends, shopping or just hanging around the Hotel. On the way home, a trip was paid to the Ontario science Museum and then a quick stop at McDonalds before going home and collapsing.

THE SHAW FESTIVAL

On October 1st, 1984, a busload of eager students headed toward that crazy honeymoon city of Niagara Falls, to attend the Shaw Festival. After a quick stop and nose bleed at a local friendly restaurant, we headed to the theatre to see Célimage, a play which we all enjoyed. The play was a French comedy and most of us really liked it. After a hectic night of Chinese food, the now less eager students toured the streets of Niagara-On-the-Lake before the second play, The Devil's Disciple. This play by George Bernard Shaw was studied in class prior to our trip. Seeing it on stage made us appreciate it even more. After this second presentation, Wagar's finest crossed over the Rainbow Bridge with Al to feast on American cuisine and t-shirts. After a rough border crossing, we were all ready for the third play, a musical called Roberta which we did not enjoy very much. The morning after the night before saw the now uneager students boarding the bus for home, tired and discouraged with the thought of another nine months of school.

REACH FOR THE TOP

Hail to the glorious gladiators of Wagar's Reach for the Top team. This year's intense ensemble of Wagar intelligencia have reached the top in Quebec. The 1985 squad consisted of Al "chicks dig me" Mendelsohn, Lorne "WESTmount" Wiesenfeld, Elliott "Repo Man" Zeitz and the ever lovely Lianne "Socks" Singer. The carnage commenced with the obliteration of the entertaining Rosemount team. The next victim was the spunky Laurentian Regional organization. Wagar rolled to the second league championship by stomping on the D'Arcy McGee d'Hull club. Due to Bialik's unfortunate withdrawal, the stage was set for an explosive round-robin tourney. The Wagar squad was temporarily set back by an unexpected loss to Lasalle Protestant. Despite the loss, this talented group of individuals bounced back in their next game by trouncing the friendly Malcolm Cambell team. With this win, Wagar was prepared to seek justice against Lasalle in the Quebec championship game. With a stunning come-from-behind victory, Wagar triumphantly took its rightful place as Quebec champions. Under the guidance of their outstanding coaches, Ms. Cox and Mrs. Sherman, assisted by Fernando Donoso and the loyal buzzing staff, the Repo team was ready to proudly represent the Province of Quebec in the national finals of Reach, this year to be held somewhere in the Maritimes (Moncton, N.B.)

WAGAR/COLLEGE HEIGHTS EXCHANGE 85

For many of Wagar's band members, this will be the last of 4 memorable years of musically oriented experiences.

We will never forget waking up to the many moans and squeaks of the early morning music room. Trying to catch up on missed sleep, only to be rudely awakened by the first scale, was a unique way to start off the day.

At 12:30, the music room transformed itself into our own cafeteria complete with good food and mellow jazz in the background.

After school, senior band practice was a learning experience. We quickly acquired the talents to read lips, catch up on gossip, and attempt to play our instruments, all at the same time.

Evenings were too often spent trying to raise money, through bottle drives, sales and car washes, followed by a quick visit to Tasty Food's.

Last year, with this money, we were able to take a trip to the musical & social capital of Canada: Bathurst, N.B. Spending two fun-filled evenings at the Atlantic Host Hotel.

This year, thanks to the infinite (!?) generosity of the Canadian Government, the band was flown to Prince George, B.C., on an exchange with College Heights Secondary School. Among the many tourist attractions that we visited were: City Hall, an agricultural farm, museums, and Mt. Purdin for an exciting day of skiing. The following week was spent touring, shopping, and PARTYING in Montreal. No one could have imagined the close friendships that were developed in such a short time. After a tear-filled good-bye, the bands were left with many fond memories and the prospect of a very expensive phone bill. Special thanks goes to Mr. McEwen, Miss Ebbett, the office staff, and school administration for helping to make this trip a success. In particular we'd like to thank Mr. Wright for everything he's done in making the past 4 years more enjoyable.

REPO CLUB

A lattice of coincidence, and a darn good film, have brought together this unlikely band of lovers of fine cinema. The film in question was the cult classic of 1984 - Repo Man. This group of movie-goers would gather at a member's home and dine upon plates o' shrimp, tasteos and drink and then view the film as if it were a religious rite. The practice of the science of Dioretix, matter over mind, heightened the consciousness of this group. Through the guidance of Otto, Bud, and of course Miller, the club gained a new respect for '66 Chevy Malibus, the Circle Jerks, Pine-Aire fresheners, metal hands and the Repo Code which has become their maxim of life. Who can say where the intense Repo Club will go? The future? The past? Who knows? Yet may they always travel in the trunk of a '66 Malibu.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

- Ms. Adams and Mrs. Sherman, for their advice and reassurance in times of crisis.
- Mr. Faulconbridge, Mrs. Friedman and Mrs. Berg for the cafeteria and ticket wicket keys, and help when we needed it.
- Mr. Chuprun for emergency developing jobs and superb (as always) sports photos.
- Mr. Rideout for his work on the grad section.
- Mrs. Soo for keeping a great tab on our accounts.
- Steve Weeks and Paulette Chase, for patiently answering dozens of absurd questions.
- The teachers who put up with missed classes, photo retakes and other nuisances.
- The gym office for the typewriter and scissors.
- All grads inconvenienced by "The Great Prot Sheet Mystery"
- Astrid and Sharon for rising above and beyond the call of duty and giving us their time and help.
- Miss Cummings for her assistance with the literary section
- All our advertisers for helping make Prelude '85 such a success.
- All the parents, teachers and friends who listened to hours of kvetching.
- All the Zulu gods for their cosmic advice.
- Tracey Winter for giving up her precious time in class to help us with pictures
- All the little people; our producer, director, etc. . . .
- Asta la vista, amigos! Shalom chaverim!
