Principal's Message

The following message is written in a series of wishes which this administration has for you graduates. We hope they are not only read but also given some thought:

We wish you friends who are as interested in you as they are in themselves.

We wish you adventures upon which to build fond memories.

We wish you courage to say "yes" as well as "no".

We wish you dreams that become realities.

We wish you a love that is pure and deep.

We wish you strength to do what you believe to be the right thing.

We wish you respect for experience and tradition whether you believe in them or not.

We wish you a vocation which permits you to look forward to each new week.

And finally -

We wish you a world that is better than the one we have now.

Dr. S. Wise

VOLLEYBALL

Objective: To have as many members of the opposing team smack into each other while all trying to set or bump the ball.

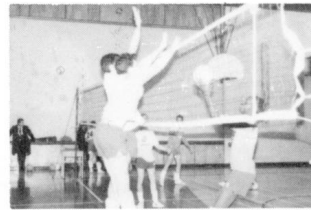

Materials: First aid kit, knee and elbow pads, net, ball and annoying coach.

Procedure:

a) Get into a sexy position.

b) Do the wave.

c) Serve the ball while trying to keep your arm intact.

d) Spike the ball and win the game.

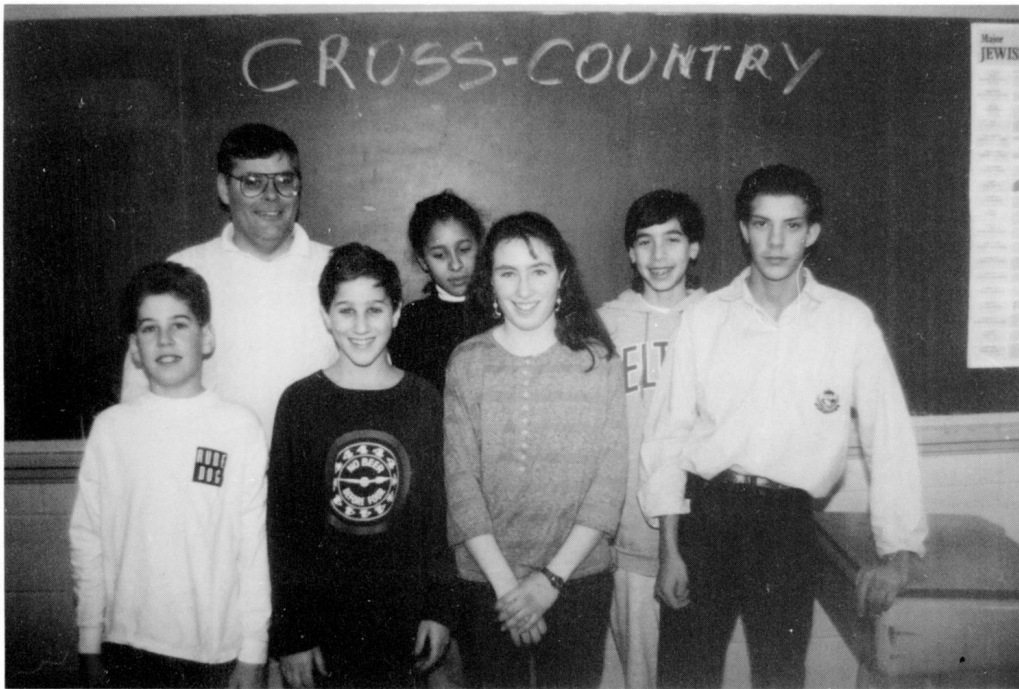

Conclusion: Your coach becomes even more annoying.

SKIING

Waking up at six isn't so easy,
and the bus ride up makes us feel really queasy.
We're all psyched to hit the slopes.
So at six in the morning we must be real dopes.

Two runs a day is all we can get,
because that slow chairlift hasn't come yet.
Skiing is really quite exhilarating,
but watching all those amateur skiers can get really aggravating.

We all go to lunch together as a group but eating all that food, makes you really want to puke.
The day's half over, let's do one more run
'Cause we all know that skiing is the best form of fun.

TENNIS

Our fearless leader has taught us everything we know,
Just look at him swing that racquet to and fro.

Those intense looks of concentration can lead to much anger and lots of frustration.

Swinging that racquet forward and back, but you never want to quit 'till you hear that final crack.

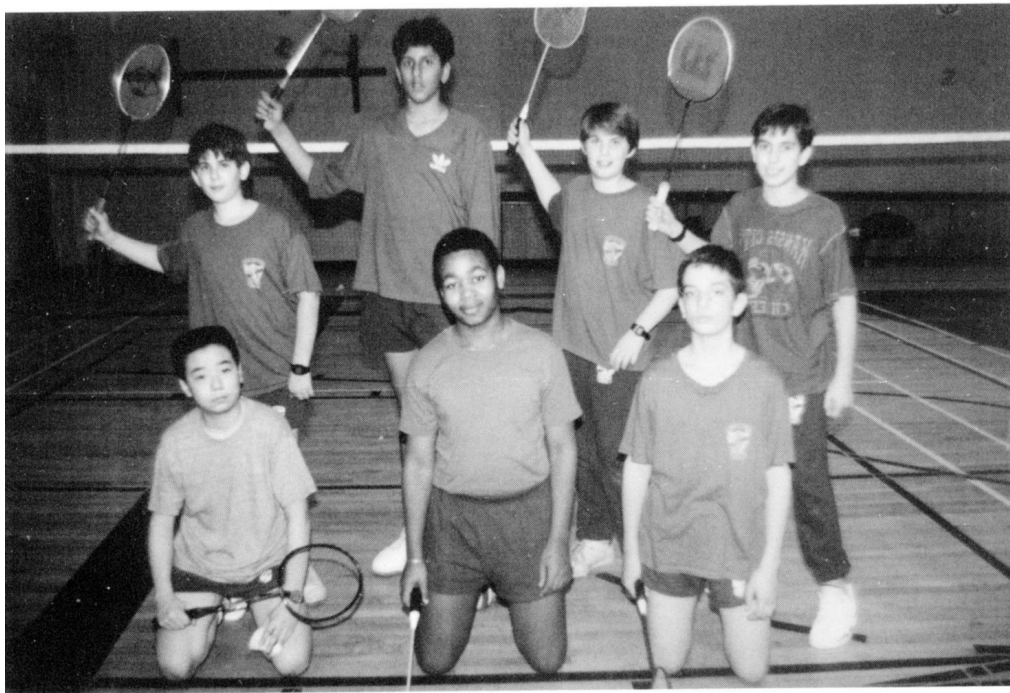

We think of Tennis as a wonderful sport,
up until we walk onto that court.

Boys bantam volleyball

The 1990 team enjoyed great success throughout the season. The boys, most of whom were second-year players, dominated their league rolling to an impressive 35-1 record. Mr. Butler's boys won 1st place in their division and their league.

The boys came home from the GMAA City Championships with the GOLD medal for the second consecutive year.

Chasm

I lie in a canoe in the middle of nowhere;
And as the sun goes down I hear the howls of
The animals in the darkness.
I see the lake from a point of view
Unknown to man,
Backwards, upside down, crooked and sideways
My mind wanders into the winding paths of the Labyrinth.
And I hear a voice - it echoes in the corner of time
The moon glows and the forest burns
The flames terrorizes the energy and beings of the land.
A gust of wind blows and the canoe rocks
I am sinking and as I fall I find myself wandering where I am.
But I know now the answer and I need not ask anymore questions.
I swim to the top and I take my first breath of air.
I am alive and everything is perfect and wonderful.

Marny Hershorn
Gr. 11

Johnny Pigeon

When the sun comes up,
I know you're with me
I can feel your presence within me

When the sun sets,
you're still with me
never leaving my side.

And when the moon shines bright we remain one . . .

But when life begins and all of our deepest emotions are surpassed
I feel lonely, knowing you won't be with me anymore.

I felt lucky in a way, to have known you, your warm smile was the sunshine for my rainy days.
Your funny habits were the spice of my life.

And now that you are gone, I realized that I was privileged to have you as a friend you never had a bad word for me.
Everything was always positive
Contrary to what you said, we won't forget the times
we shared.
When I think about the day you died
I feel lonely again
knowing that you're gone.

Jackey Celemencki

J MIRSKY

In your arms
It feels the same
Drowning in my sleep again
To have you close, to have you near
I feel a touch
I feel a fear
I drown with screams
inside of me
Dancing with INSANITY

ALONE

A baby cried today.
Out of sadness, hunger?
Unknown.
I felt just annoyance
Why can't it leave me alone?

An old woman whined today
Complaining. I wouldn't give up my seat.
I was tired too!
I felt so annoyed
Why can't she leave me alone?

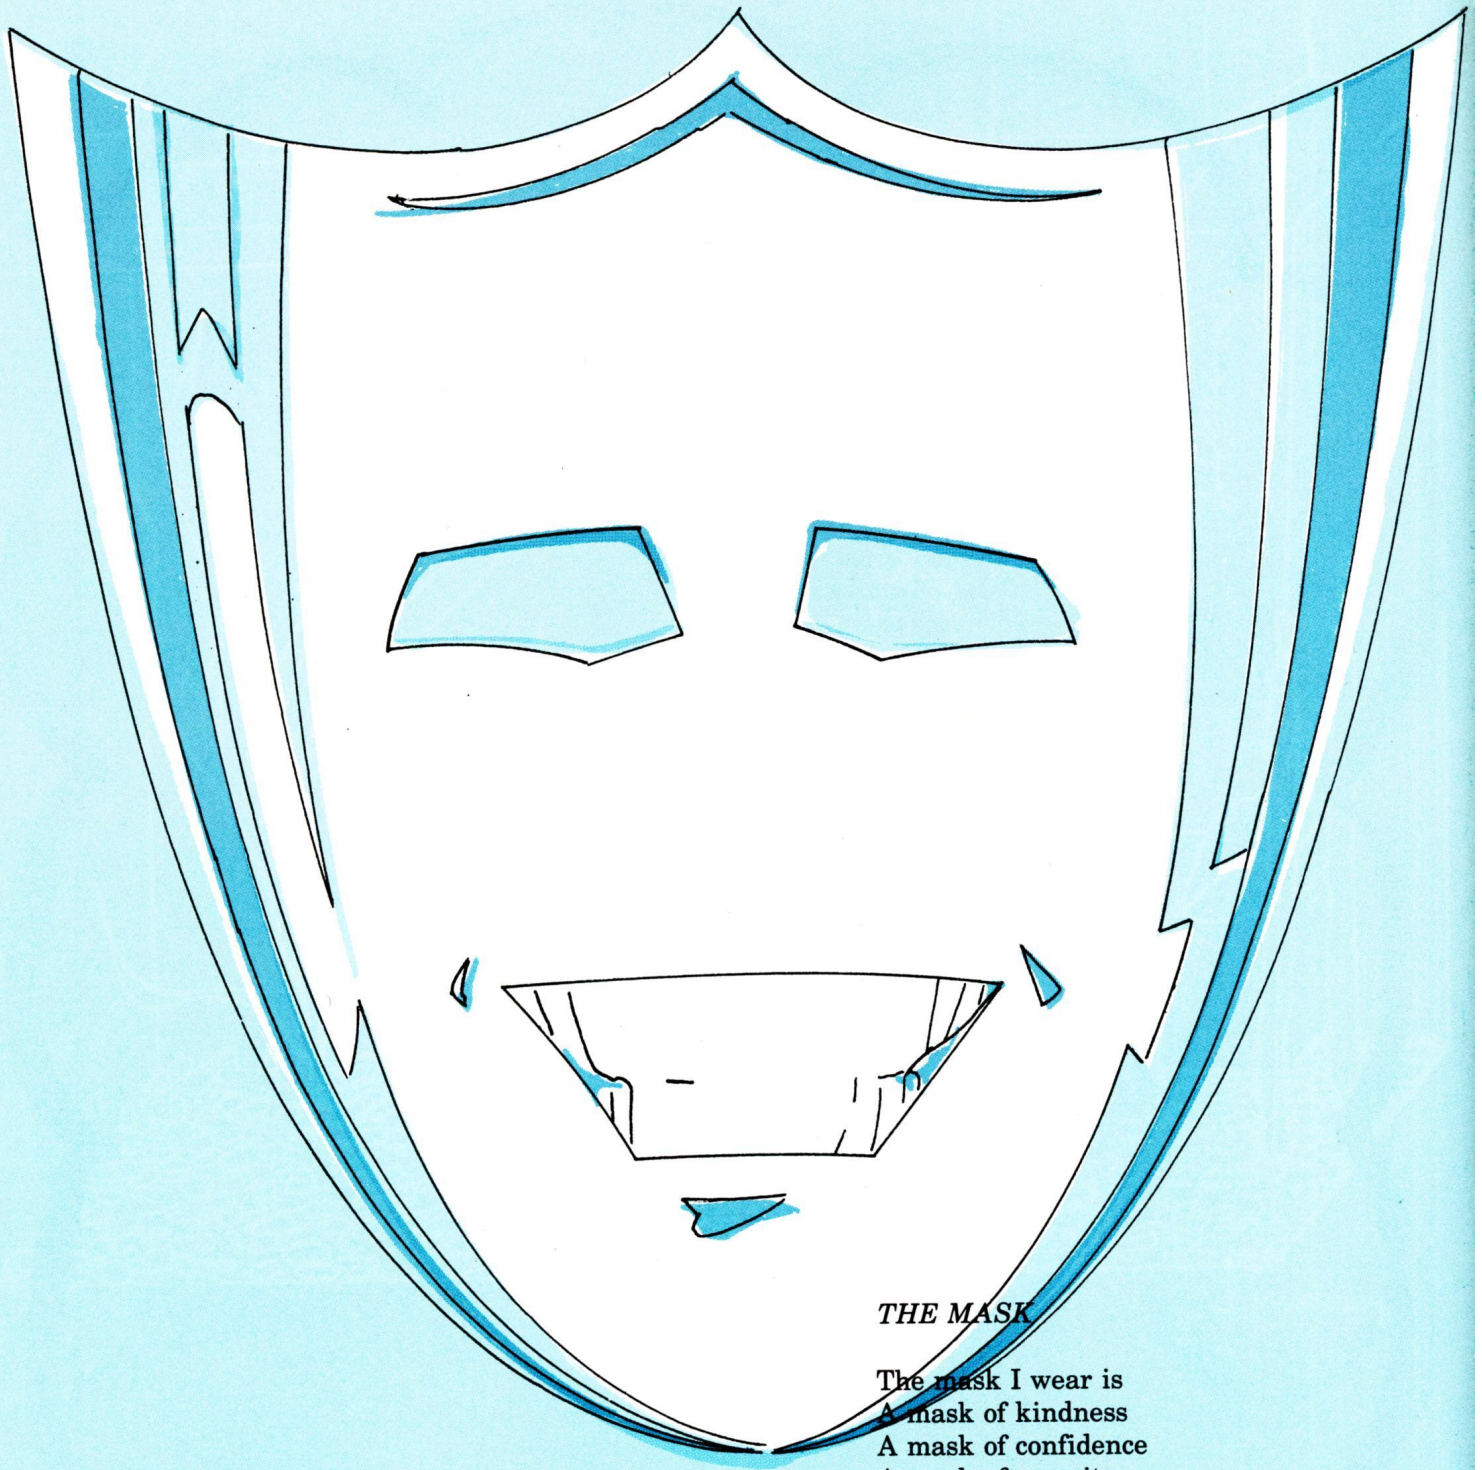

Half the world starved today.
Or so it said in the paper
While I was eating my big breakfast.
I was so annoyed
Why can't she leave me alone?

A part of me died today,
My compassion.
I had hardly noticed.
I called out for someone to save me
But no one did. Now I was like all of them

Alone . . .

THE MASK

The mask I wear is
A mask of kindness
A mask of confidence
A mask of security.

It is my ticket to getting through the day
And the night.

But that is all it is A mask.

TO UNDERSTAND

The trees, withered with age, rustle in the wind whispering secrets that I will never understand for I do not speak
their language.

But you,
you speak my language.
Yet your secrets
will never warm
my ears for I am too young
to understand.

I Always Return

Why do I always return to you
When I know I will hurt
And the pain and memories never fade.
You say now it will be better
But it never is.

Sometimes I think that maybe
I awoke from a bad dream.
Monsters, lies, fear and hate
All were figments of my imagination
But you never let me forget they were true.

Do you think I am invincible?
That nothing ever has or will hurt me?
That my past won't affect my future.
Are you so blinded by your selfishness,
You fail to see what I need?

There is only so much love one can give Without having real love returned
But I know it is not your fault
That is why my guilt overcomes me
And I always return to you.

Ilana Judah

Sometimes

Sometimes, I feel like digging a hole deep inside the ground and jumping in.

Sometimes, I feel like I'm a king over looking his kingdom, and nothing can touch me.

Sometimes, I want to break loose and get out of this terror they call life.

Sometimes, I look back in grief of things I should not have said or done.

And sometimes, I ask myself "Is there any love in the world?"

TIME

Time is slow
And time is fast
Our friendship grew
From the past
When time stands still with us inside
We'll always feel the love beside If love is strong, and hate is too,
Time will pick one or two.

ODE TO A FLASHER

I decided to take a walk
in the park one day,
I flashed a few girls
and went upon my way.

I heard the cops coming
so I jumped into a bush,
I landed on a stone,
so I gave it a little push.

I screamed a little loud
I would have to assume,
'cause the cops pulled me out and my heart went Kaboom!

Cover yourself,
you're under arrest,
you're nothing but a pig and a sleazy pest!

The moral of this story
I would have to say,
is if you're going to take your clothes off, don't do it during the day!!

We prepare ourselves as best we can for the exit
We smile and say We're glad to go
but there's something in these walls that binds us
five years spent on these staircases classrooms filled with daydreams and autographed desks messy lockers and the notes you never took we know these halls . . .

Are we ready for

GMAA city champs

Wagar tennis players produced great results in the GMAA city championships held in June at the Hampton Tennis Courts. All the doubles teams made the finals losing only the medal rounds. Roxanna Moscovitch won the Girls Singles Bantam event gold medal. Ted Caron placed second in the Open Boys Singles event. Ted's opponent was the #1 ranked Junior in Canada. Well done Roxanna and Ted.

Competition - a lesson in life

Ted began to play tennis at age four. Play at local courts plus lessons during both summer and winter prepared Ted for his first tournament at age 11. Further club and provincial tournaments challenged Ted to improve. He is currently ranked #20 in Quebec. In addition to school play, Ted also represented Quebec at the 1990 Canadian National Tennis Tournament. Ted recommends tennis to anyone. He has made many friends, improved his physical conditioning and also learned valuable lessons about winning and losing.

Wagar tennis program

Wagar's tennis program begins with Phys Ed classes which teach beginner techniques to all students. A lunch hour intramural program run by Mr. Levine and Mr. Frenay allows all students to perfect their games and to be eligible for school teams. Wagar players won all singles and doubles events in each age category.

BASKETBALL

This team overpowered their opposition. The guards - Mark Spence, David Odude and Jamie Waplinton - complimented the "tri-towers" - Roger Saul, Arpon Baeu and Tristan Morais. The boys were undefeated in league play and lost only once in exhibition play. They entered three tournaments and won the Billings tournament. At the island-wide GMAA City Championships this group won GOLD. Congratulations.

WAGAR TRACK AND FIELD

Track and field began outdoors in March. Twenty dedicated athletes from all grades trained throughout the spring and participated in qualifying meets at La Salle High. The GMAA City Championships were held at Kent Park in May. Most team members placed in their events. The 1990 team broke 12 school records. David Neudorfer, Joseph Neudorfer, Maisie Sum and May Passamonte produced personal bests. Individual results included:

TRACK AND FIELD

Track and field, what a great sport running until your knees give you no more support.
Jumping those hurdles can be really great fun
yet all we hear is RUN, RUN RUN . . .

Hearing that gun, and then we're off, so we can win that trophy that'll make our coach lay off.
Running and jumping is all that we do,
we train and train until it's all through.

Nothing can stop us, not rain sleet or snow,
We're like the postman, we just go, go, go . . .!

PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Provincial Championships were held at Université de Sherbrooke on June 26th. Claudio Shardonofsky, Deidre Pierson and Heidi Albert-Bobb represented Wagar and the GMAA. Each produced a personal best. Heidi won a Silver Medal for 2nd place in the shotput.

STRATFORD TRIP

THE FIRE

It all began on that early Monday morning during recess, when . . .

A rumour was started "Hey guys the second floor is on fire. Get out while you can!!!"

The news spread quickly to the third floor where panick stricken students fled to the nearest exit.

The students quickly evacuated the inferno of flames, and stood staring in amazement.

Thank G-d someone called the fire department.

While waiting for our faithful firemen, a few very concerned students took the time to pose for this group shot.

Little did we know that one of Wagar's students could not tear herself away from the school. It was reported that she was heard saying "If the school burns down, I'm going down with it!"

But lucky for us, this brave group of students decided it was their duty to save the damsel in distress.

The firemen finally arrived and informed everyone of the rumour.

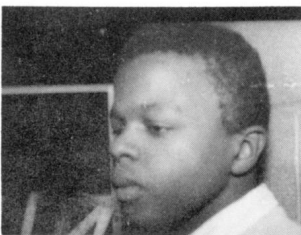

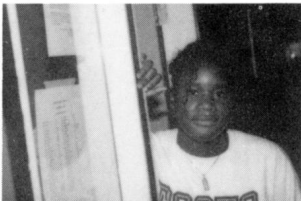

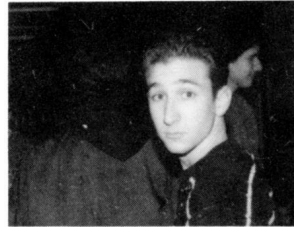

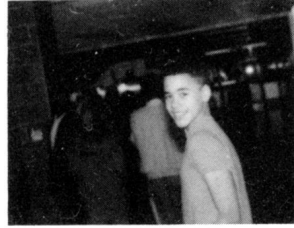

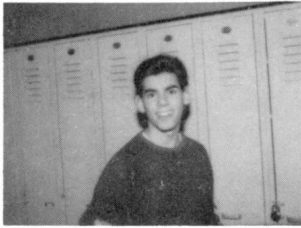

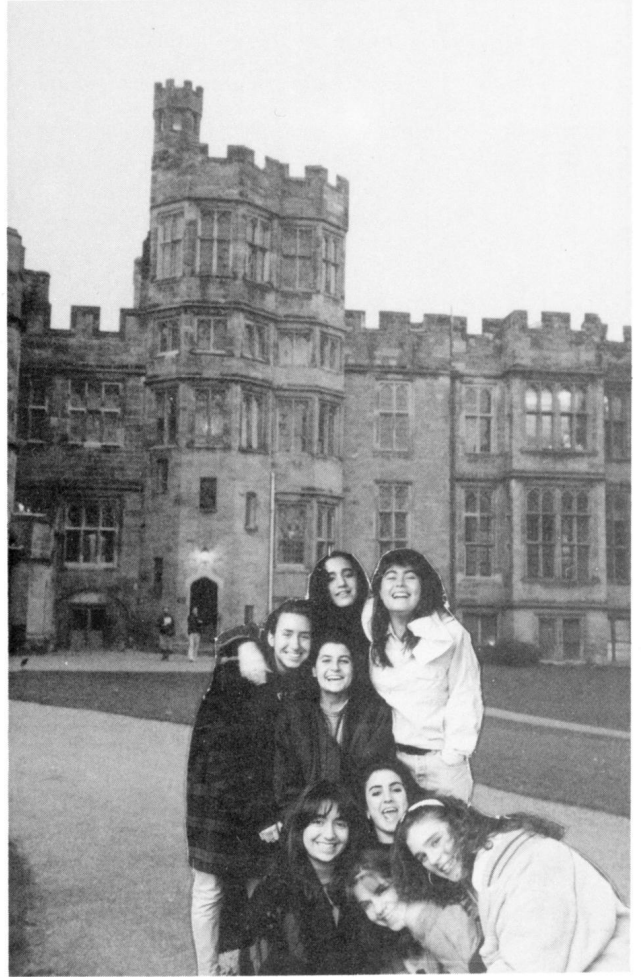

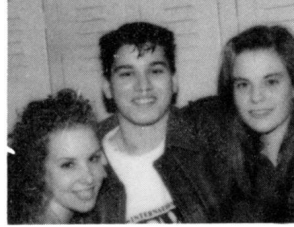

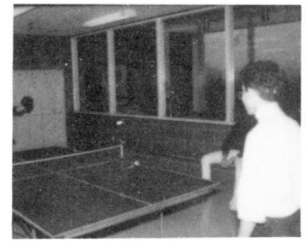

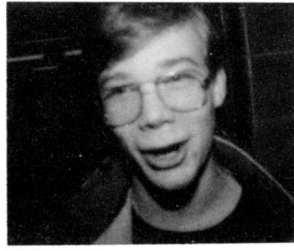

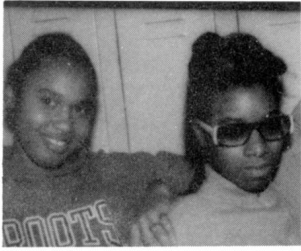

"I can't believe there's no fire! What a bummer!"

"You wouldn't believe the day I'm having."

Later we found out that the library was full of unsuspecting students. "What was that about a fire?"

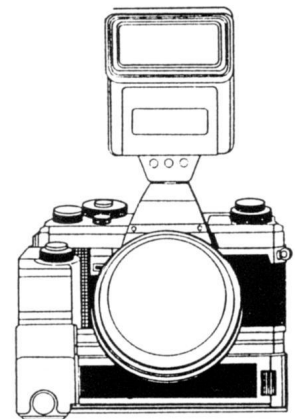

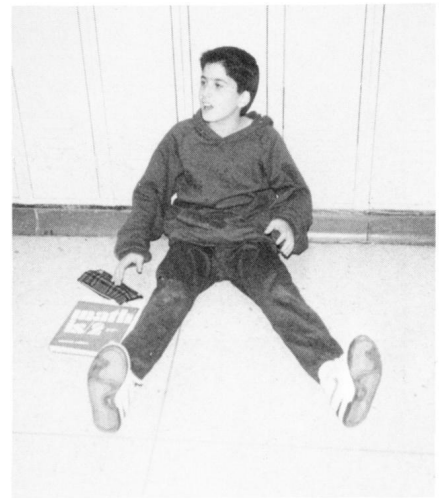

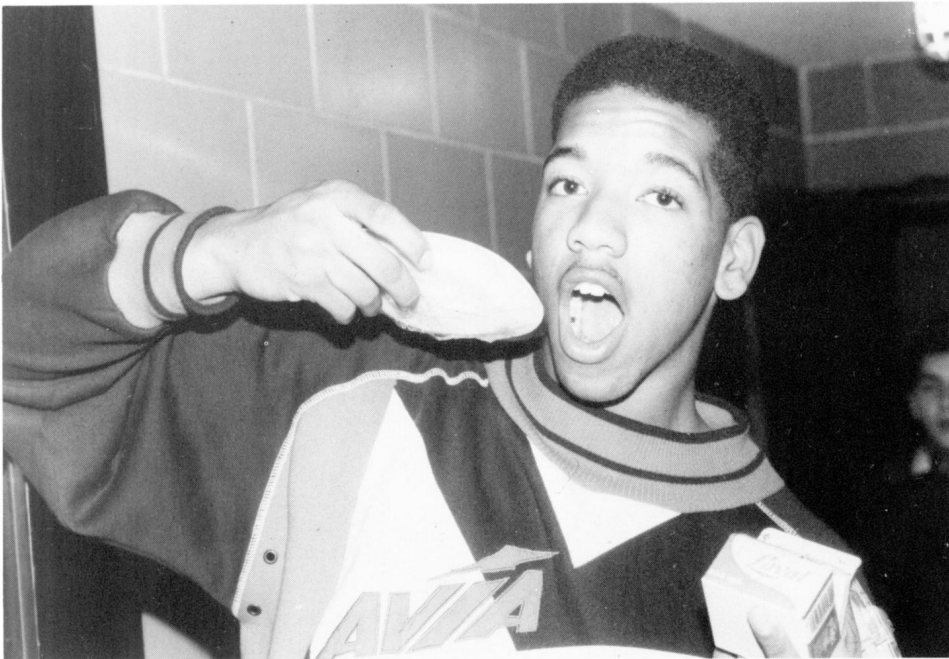

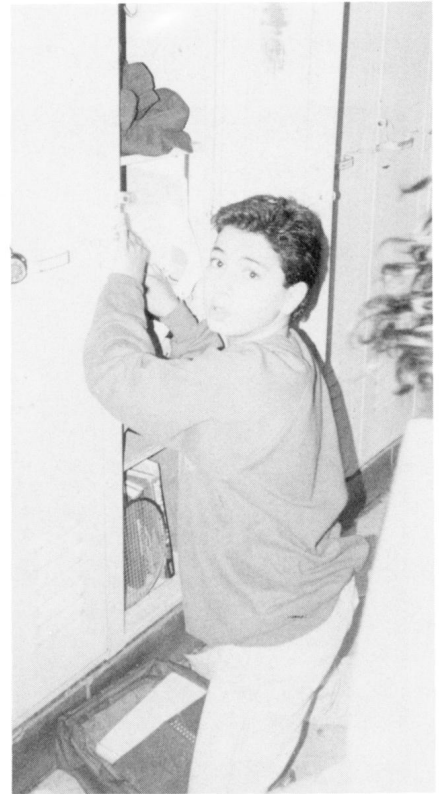

TOO LATE!!!

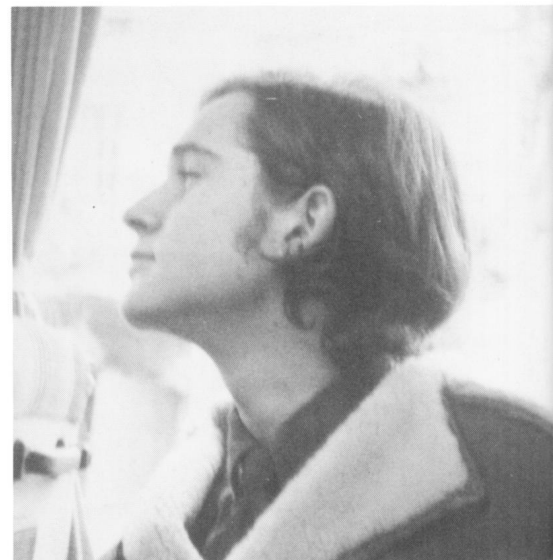

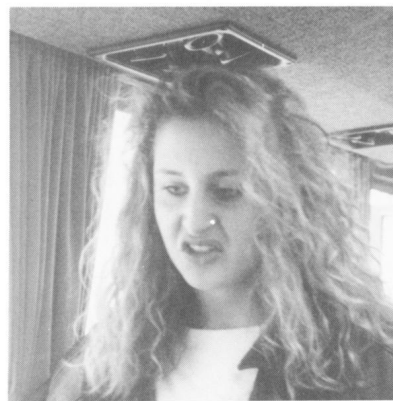

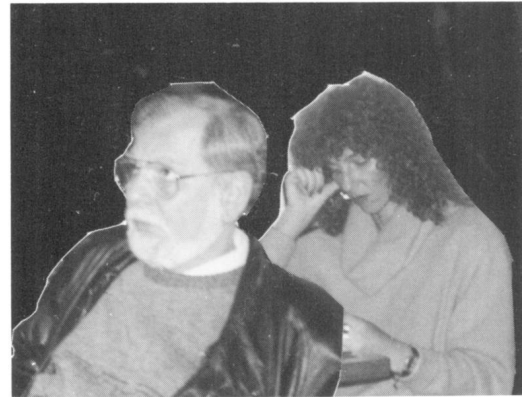

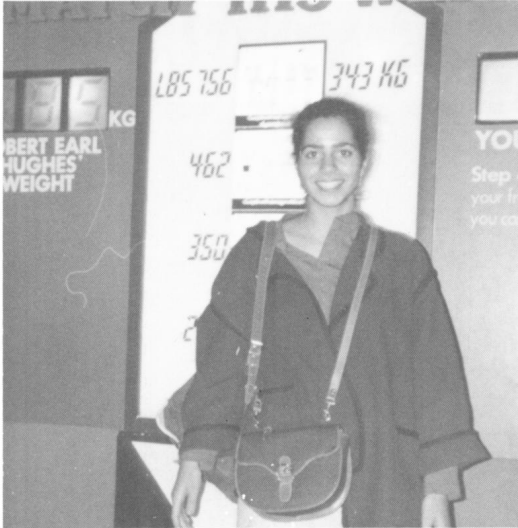

I was just in the neighborhood, so I thought I'd break in.

Mike, Jon, Dan, Mark, Darryl, Lisa, Shawna, Melanie, Holly, Joey, Jarred, Kelly, Alissa, Jessica, Ariella, Mr. Berlin and Ms. Gould.

DR. SO AND SO.

With each problem we received we try to give the most comprehensive, in depth, analytical and carefully thought out answer possible. Whenever we weren't 100% sure we consulted 10 experts in the field and carefully went through each suggestion before coming up with our final answer. So rest assured you can not get better advice anywhere.

Dr. So and So

Dear Dr. So and So,

I have a problem (but not a real one, I'm too perfect to have a real problem). You see unlike most people with an inferiority complex I have a superiority complex. The problem isn't that I'm perfect, the problem is that I know it. Every night I sit in front of the mirror and just say to myself "you're perfect". Please help me. What should I do?

obsessed w/myself

Dear obsessed w/myself,
That's sick, stop it!

Dear Dr. So and So,

I have a problem. Boys! All I think about is boys, boys, boys. All day long everything I see always leads to some sort of thought that has to deal with, you know the "B" word. I need help. What should I do?

obsessed w/boys

Dear obsessed W/boys,
That's sick, Stop it!

Dear Dr. So and So,

I have a problem. I'm in love with one of my teachers. I even fail some of my tests so I can be alone with her. How can I end this love obsession? I need help what should I do?

obsessed w/my teacher.

Dear obsessed w/my teacher,
That's sick, Stop it!

Dear Dr. So and So,

I have a problem. I can't seem to stop thinking about you both. I want you, I need you, I have to have both of you. Oh, by the way, I'm 6'2, blond and I'm a body builder. I need help what should I do?

obsessed w/you.

Dear obsessed w/us,
That's sick, Keep it up!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The votes were cast
the ballots were filled
an all female council
(Mr. Forman was thrilled) executive meetings were never a bore Chauvinism, feminism, activism galore.
Raising our funds
with a new clever twist
we still haven't crossed the last names off our list
We huffed and we puffed with all of our might Delivered balloon-o-grams, with the message you did write varsity jackets were here at last.
With a new school spirit,
unknown in the past.
Wagar school dances
were always the pits
'till the batdance, Kloda and 980 Hits
Winter Carnivals day had finally arrived
after all the complications on its success we did thrive.
We did all that we set out to do,
Improved on the old and brought in the new.

At the beginning "efficiency" seemed to be our only goal. But meeting after meeting after meeting . . . we realized that there had to be more than that. Soon it became clear that with Mr. Forman's sexism, Joanna's rallies, Ilana's dependability, Dana's non-existent minutes and Sharri's enthusiasm, our council was . . . unique. All of these factors contributed to a super year, with which to close the decade. We would like to thank Mr. Forman and the new supportive administration as well as all the faculty who helped us out. A special thanks to our honorary members, Jenny and Michael. Best of wishes to next years council.

Mara Goldstein
Kim Tabac.

Horizon

To cut
and to be cut down
fourteen futures jarred
from their dream destinations to empty black as students
we know of their struggle as people
we now feel the pain
How can we possibly understand?
It is not enough to mourn the death of fourteen daughters
we must realize the senselessness and the crime of the punishment they received for trying as we try to succeed
we must now question our own immortality and the tomorrow's we take for granted
It is our duty to go on striving for our goals
but we must never forget
Those who were slain in the attempt

THANKS TO:

- Dr. Wise, Mr. Officer, and Mrs. Pike for being so cooperative and helpful in suggestions for the yearbook.
- Steve Weeks and Lil Unger for answering all our questions, no matter how stupid they were.
- Mr. Iannou and Mr. Prunier for help and support in our times of crisis (meaning: ALL THE TIME)
- the Cafeteria and Maintenance Staff for putting up with our constantly being around.
- All our teachers for allowing us to miss classes (special thanks!)
- All the secretaries for allowing us to make all those phone calls.
- Mr. Druker for taking care of our funds. (the whole .30¢)
- All our advertisers for having the courage to support us.
- the students of Wagar for waiting so patiently for this here prelude!

DEDICATIONS:

- was that 53619 or 19653?
- THE BLACK DOT
- Doogie wanna-bees and Wanda wanters
- Darkroom memories (the kinky red light)
- Raspberry gingerale (Jill, what is that?)
- what do you mean they quit?
- Pendelli's petrefying poisonous pukey pizza
- Deadline? you mean there's a deadline?
- Tuna helper
- Highlighter fights
- Such school spirit, I love it!
- IT'S OVER!!!
