EDITOR'S MESSAGE

At first glance, we thought making Wagar's Prelude '92 would be easy. Then the real work began, and suddenly it became hard. Then it became harder and then harder still. It seemed that any which way we turned we were still facing a brick wall, alone. There were times when we even felt that we couldn't pull it off. But we did.

We resolved all the many problems that came our way, including no money, and little support. We refused to be beaten by a situation that was, at times, quite overwhelming.

The 1992 Prelude started out as a dream, but with some great work, it became a reality. Nothing comes easy, we learned that pretty fast, but when you finally achieve your goals, you realize it was well worth the effort.

Sincerest thanks to our staff who were hard-working, and talkative, and opinionated, and tolerant, and great, and fun. We could not have done this without you.

As well, two of the primary people who deserve recognition in this message, Mr. Ioannou and Mr. Prunier. Thanks for all the help.

We would officially like to dedicate this annual to all the people (and there are plenty of them) that, until the end didn't think we could achieve what we have. (you know who you are) Thanks for all your support - NOT!

Finally, we would like to wish our fellow graduates the best of luck in years to come. May you have continued success in all your future endeavors, and achieve all your goals and dreams.

Alan-Michael Caplan
& Dimple Mahtani

ADMINISTRATION

Principal's Message

Your graduation, far from being an end, is the beginning of all your tomorrows. Over the past several years you have worked and studied, practiced and played and grown - grown mentally as well as physically. Now you are graduating and you will begin your lives as members of the adult community.

Some day soon you graduates will be lawyers, computer analysts, fashion designers, business people and teachers, and you will be those things because of the teachers and classmates you have met, the friends you have made, the people who have come in to your homes and the language and ideas you have heard expressed. Each of you is a reflection of the society which surrounds you and I do hope our contribution as a school and a society will assist you in being what you want to be.

Finally, I hope you leave Wagar High with a respect for your neighbors and a respect for yourselves.

GRAD EDITORS MESSAGE

Since we started working on the Prelude we ran into one problem after another. We had to figure out how to raise money for our section, how to meet our deadlines and how to get the entire graduating class to cooperate with us. Somehow we overcame what we thought would be impossible. We would like to thank Mr. Prunier and Mr. Iannou for all their help and support. Thanks to all the yearbook staff members for working so hard to make this yearbook happen. Lastly, we would like to thank all teacher for their patience and understanding for all the times you thought we were skipping. This is what we have to show for it. Farewell to the class of '92 and good luck in all your future endeavours.

Natacha Fudem and Stephanie Ptitto

My love is with a brush
in which I can paint.
As the paint
goes to paper,
My heart, it goes aflame.

Ideas in my head
no one shall ever see.
Thoughts of what to draw
is one thing not to write.

Painting is to write.
A storyteller
with no voice.
Just the moment to tell you what the story really is.

Ideas in my head
of love in bed,
But not to paint
with thoughts in my head.

VICTOR

A star glitters
Below the city,
Under a florescent light
And a decaying ceiling.

The occasional roar
Of a wild, yet controlled
Beast of our times
Is feared, yet anticipated.
This noise brings forth
Mostly ignorers
But the occasional
Penny or nickel.

The star glitters.
From his mouth
Comes words of love,
Hate and sorrow,
Fantasy worlds,
Reality and
Fragments of the past.

The sweet melody is heard
From passers by,
And into his guitar case
You'll find loose change.
He'll give you a bow
And if you're lucky, a smile.

A Friend Is . . .

A friend is worth more than words can say,
They can brighten and lighten
and lift up each day.
When your world seems in ruins
they will comfort and care,
They will listen, advise or simply be there.
They need no reminders,
responses or reasons;
A true friend is priceless
and a joy for all seasons.

Esther Clerici

THE VICTORY

Two long years we waited,
And finally it came to be;
We beat Bilik's hockey team,
5-0 YES SIR REE!!

It wasn't for the power,
It wasn't for the fun,
It was for Officer Vidal -
The coach that packs a GUN!

A.J. Levine
11/18/91.

DESTINY

The path one choses to walk, can mean the difference between black or white,
green or yellow,
red or blue,
pain or joy,
success or failure,
light or darkness,
sickness or health,
life or death,
love,
or to risk never knowing love.
For one's destiny depends solely on the creator,
And the creator is the beholder.

For what is fate?
It is the many roads one travels throughout a lifetime,
The many roads one choses to walk,
And at the end of one road,
lies an intersection,
Of many more roads to come.

One may simply stop at a red light,
Or stop,
And wait for a green.
For at the edge of every dead end,
Lies a corner in which one can turn back.

They say what's passed is set,
That one cannot turn back the hands of time,
Yet they are wrong.
For although we cannot change the past,
We can control the future,
With enough courage,
And intense, passionate desire,
To make all our wishes come true,
It is possible to turn back the hands of time.

FOR THE POWER TO CONTROL ONE'S DESTINY,
LIES SOLELY IN THE MIND,
AND IN THE HEART.

Student Council's Message

Excerpt from first meeting:

- "Enough cheers, and let's get on with the work! We have many things to discuss."

(more cheers and applause)

- "Sorry guys, but I didn't eat yet."

- "Me neither."

- "Can we do this later, or another day?"

(more cheers and applause)

I look to Ilana and we exchange looks: "We're in for a long year!"

After that first meeting (if you can call it that), I became aware of the fact that with Tammy's camp spirit and enthusiasm, Ilana's down-to-earth ideas and love for my jokes, and Jay and David's . . . well . . . Imput . . ., the council was . . . unique.

Since then, it's been almost all uphill. We've had many fundraising ideas such as the Scratch Cards and Lolloween Grams. But these were over-shadowed by the Wagar Dances (thanks to Kloda) and the other great activities we planned for you.

Some activities, I confess, weren't as great as we had hoped, but on the whole, we were rather pleased.

Before we go, we would like to thank Mr. Forman for his time and help, the administration as well as the faculty, and Mimi for believing in us (me). We would especially like to thank the students for their participation and for their votes!

BEST OF WISHES TO NEXT YEAR'S COUNCIL!

WAGAR VS. TEAM ISRAEL

February 5, 1992

Tip-off

Wagars midget boys basketball team played and lost to Israel's all-star team. The final score was 90-61 with Mark Spence of our team scoring 23 points (the most by either team). The Israel team played a total of ten games here in Canada and the United States and were completely undefeated.

Uh-oh! They score!

THANX -

- to Steve and Lil, then Helen, then Diana for being patient with our questions
- to all the Grads for selling raffle tickets
- to Mr. Chuprun for his “negatives”
- to Mr. Druker for his monetary intelligence
- to Mrs. Berg - without her, we’d be poor
- to all our teachers for “grinning and bearing” our absence of class
- to Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Munroe, and Mrs. Thompson for letting us use the phone and the ticket-wicket
- to Mr. Frenay for letting us use the darkroom and giving us film
- to all typists and wanna-be photographers
- to all our wonderful and generous advertisers
- to last years staff for leaving us their pictures to sell for petty cash
- to Mr. Prunier for his patience with the keys to room 101
- to Mr. Ioannou - Yeah-you too!!
- to the parents committee for trying to help us
- to Ms. Norton for all those student lists
- to Ali K.’s Dad & Debbie G.’s Mom for their support and generous donations
- to the people who anonymously did the staff and advertising sections
- to Alex for being so cute and caring if our windows were locked
- to whoever anonymously did the sports candids and faculty funnies pages

- Blowing up Steve's house
- T.N. = NOT!
- Oy Vey, How Rude!
- Crystal Light lemonade & grape juice
- Domino's pizza with Tabasco sauce (that's the only way it's edible)
- To making every deadline! - ALMOST
- Is this a cropper, or a scropper, or what?
- Stupid yearbook session at Alan's
- Ali mooching off everybody
- NO MORE COMMIES!
- endless hours numbering raffle tickets
- Heehee Haha!! (so there!)
- the mystery butt on page 15
- the office photocopier . . .
- bottle collections
- boogerballs
- the Jewish guilt trip.
- Alan and "his" chair
- Pookey up on the lights
- 1) warning letter
- 2) suspension
- "what's a superlative?"
- Mr. T.'s English - the yearbook way
- Dimple's attempt at a Prelude family - late nights, pizza dancing - yeah, right!
- the tray war with the video club
- Ya down with LCC, ya, you know me. (NOT)
- Susanna's lucky stars
- $10 per student and hundreds of tears of angers, frustration and hard work that made us realize we're not going to get what we want in the real world without working our . . . off to get it
- Who started the spin the bottle?
- To all the fights! Without them we may actually like each other
- The Prelude 1992 - the replacement of the epic saga Dynasty
- I'm too sexy for this yearbook.
