WAGAR HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

Faculty/Staff

Principal's messages for the yearbook are written in the early months of the school year. This makes the task doubly difficult as, being new, I hardly know the school & have only started to get to know the students.

My first impressions of the students and the school are extremely positive & I am sure that in the next few years that we will enjoy working together to make Wagar an even more successful school. As you the members of the graduating class prepare to move on to the next stage of your lives I hope that you do so with the knowledge that education is a life long project. Whether you are in class in a formal educational setting or simply taking a walk on a weekend there is always much to be learned. Take the time to observe & listen, benefit from the experiences of others and share yours. It is your role as the leaders of the future to ensure that we do not merely repeat history but that we strive to achieve a world without war or poverty. We can grow so that we do not judge each other by the colour of our skin or by our religion or sex. You must believe in yourselves and that you can have influence globally by acting locally.

I wish you good luck & sincerely hope that you will return to see us to report on your conquests & to follow our progress as a school in our quest to continue to adapt to the needs of our 'community'.

To those of you who are returning to school have a safe and happy summer, Wagar awaits your pleasure at the end of August, I hope you will return refreshed and ready for another great year.

Richard Meades
Principal

Graduating Students,

It is to you, the graduating students of Wagar High School Class of 1997, that congratulations are due.

I encourage you all to nurture and develop your potential to the fullest. Doing so will ultimately enrich the quality of your lives and provide you with the opportunity to work and help others.

Your problems may never be easy to solve due to the rapidly changing world in which we live. It will however, be your challenge to build a better society and I hope you will then be able to make your personal contribution and commitment to our world.

It is very important that you all develop good judgment, that you do not just follow what might be popular. Rather, make your decisions based on the facts and with a spirit of cooperation for those with whom you are dealing. Remember that knowledge is important, but its essence is in its application - use it judiciously not unwisely.

Do not wait on your luck. You must strive to create your own opportunities by reaching out, working hard and keeping to your ideals.

GRAD EDITORS MESSAGE

Our time at Wagar has finally come to an end. We have endured more than we expected. We've been through happy times, sad times, stressful times, and emotionally unstable times. Our grade has been treated differently since day one, maybe it's because we're the most original or the teachers just don't like us!

A special thank-you to Mr. Feigen & Mr. Jacobson, for all the running around for and with us to get our work done. Thank you to all the teachers that have encouraged us and supported us for the last five years.

Thanks to all the grads for making our lives perplexed this past years. We don't know what the future holds, but we hope that it's good for each and every one of you.

Remember the good times, remember the bad times, but most of all remember us, because we will always remember you.

*See you later,

THE CASE OF THE HAIRY CREATURE

'Twas a regular day at Wagar,

When "Tout Á Còup" a hairy creature appeared!

some kids did not care.

other got scared,

and went to higher grounds.

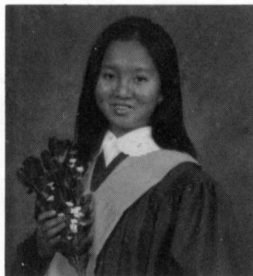

Two "normal" kids suddenly became . . .

. . . the masked avengers!!

While some just watched,

Others yelled while hiding.

Our heroes did their stuff,

& the creature was again Li Li.

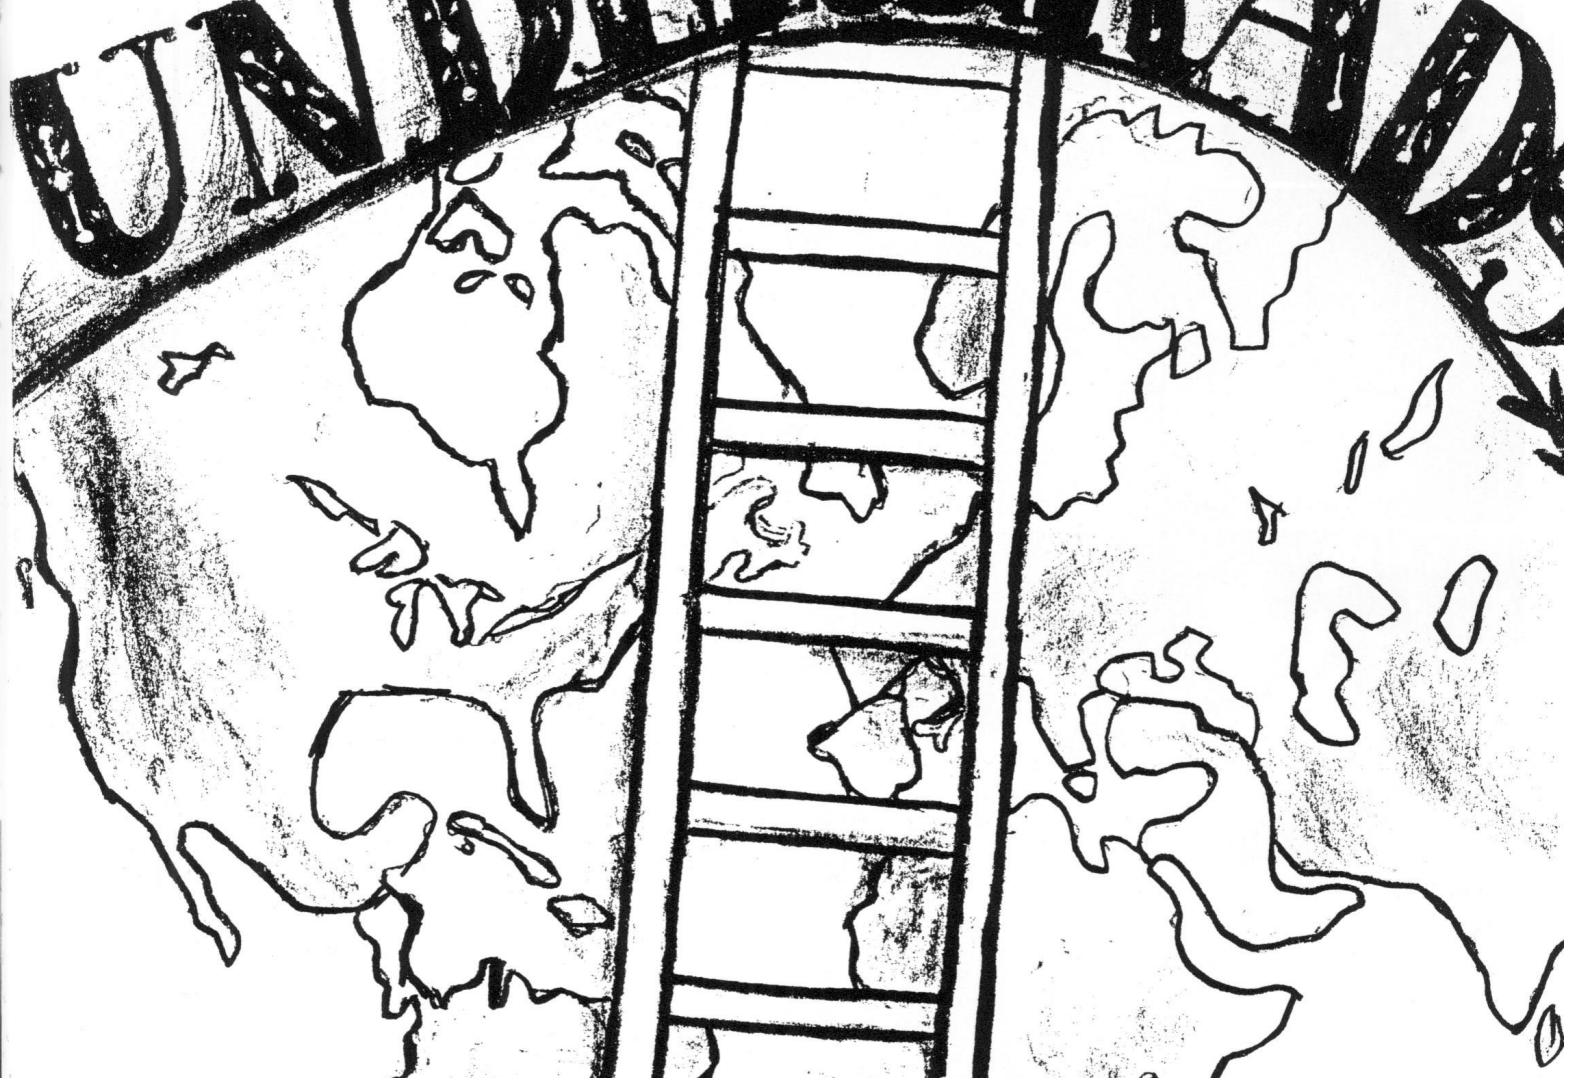

and life at Wagar,

was back to ordinary ways!!

Li Li is graduating in the class of '97.

ONE DAY AT CAP ST JACQUES . . .

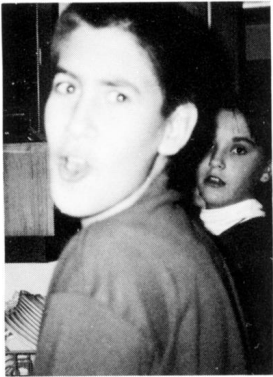

Students were cooking but do we actually trust them?

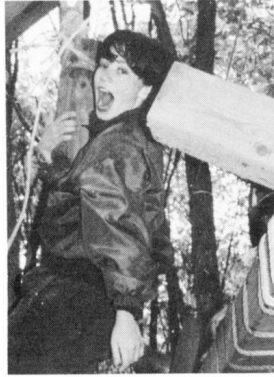

She was the judge of that

One student disagreed.

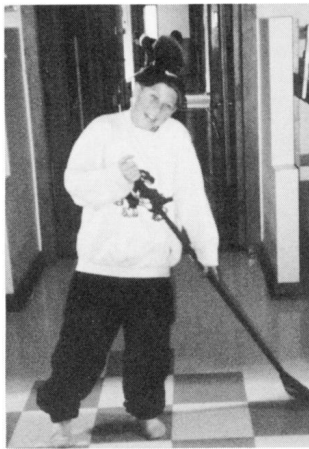

And others followed him.

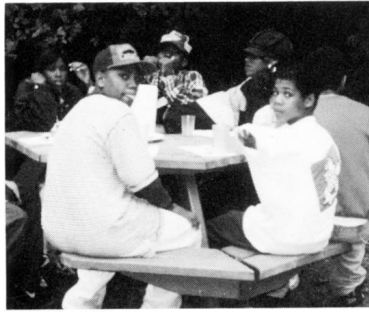

When the bacteria appeared, some were frightened and stayed off the ground.

And others set out to find where and what it was.

One person took the matter into his own hands and started disinfecting

Others just didn't simply care.

Some student . . .

. . . bonded . . .

. . . together . . .

. . . to fight IT! . . .

our story continues.

One Student was very victorious and killed IT!

Then all the students left happily ever after. This was one trip no one would ever forget.

THE RETREAT

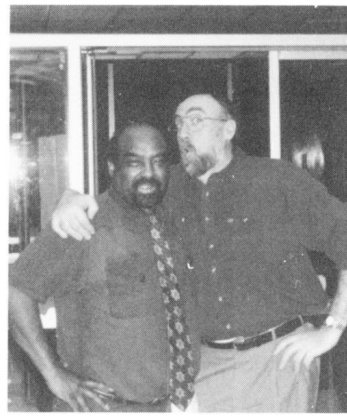

Early this year, Student Council and certain members of the Yearbook went on a overnight trip, to plan the events of this year.

1st Much Music Dance.

The students of Wagar longed for a dance.

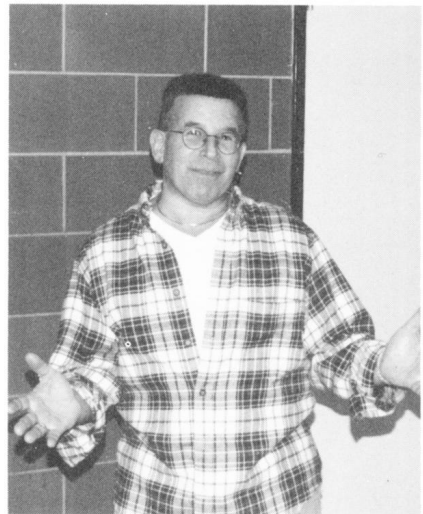

Adminstration agreed at once.

Students were so excited.

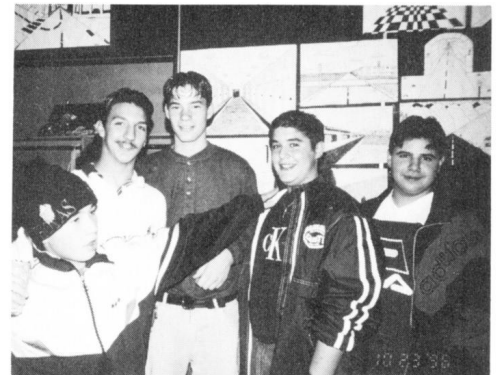

Parents were overjoyed.

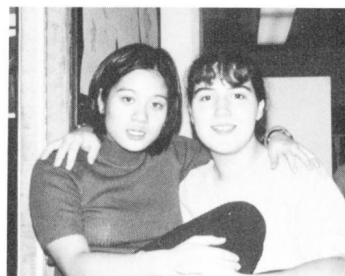

Some teachers were okay with the idea.

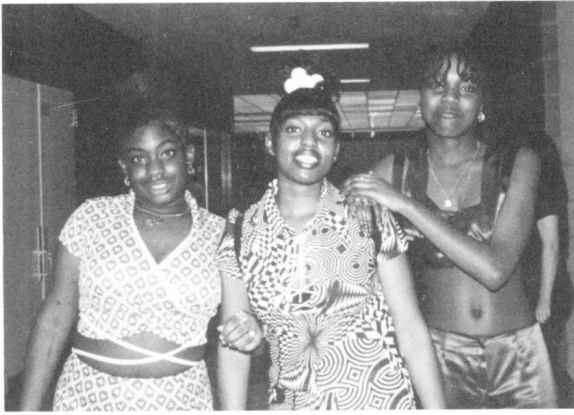

Others were not so pleased.

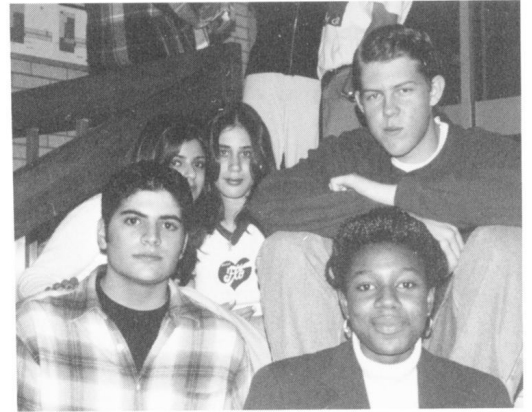

Students took advantage of the situation.

Close friends came together.

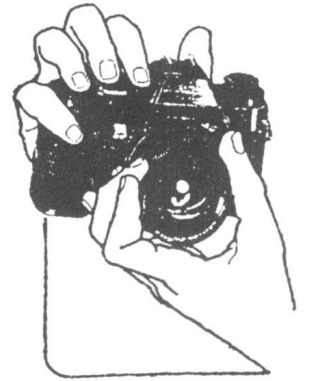

Student's showed off their styles and fashions.

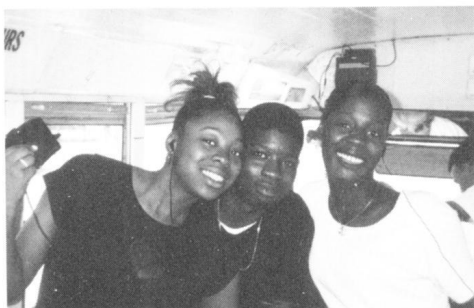

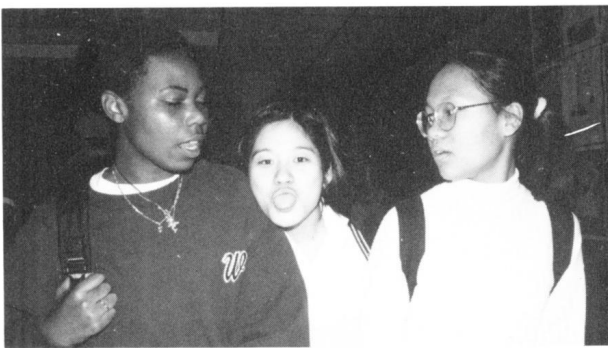

And everyone had a blast.

Student Council

The year might have been a long & stressful 1, but we have made it. It wasn't easy at all moments, but we pulled through it just like a true family. & this year that was exactly what that council was, a family. We shared secrets, laughs, cries & most of all our ideas that were combined 2 make everything possible. This year will 4ever b a memorable 1 2 each & every member. The student council isn't only about its members, behind every good council lies a good school spirit, speaking of our students. U were the 1's who made it possible, & words can't explain how much gratitude is owed 2 u all. The year would have never ran by as smoothly if it wasn't 4 your participation & enthusiasm. We thank u so much.

2 Mr. Meades & Mr. Jones, thanx 4 the words of wisdom & 4 getting involved in events that we organized, especially the dances. 2 each individual teacher, because we recognize that each & every 1 were of a great support & encouragement 2 us & it was most definitely at a 100%, we send u hugs & kisses. 2 Mr. Forman, to simply say "thank you" wouldn't b enough 2 recognize the effort that u have put in. It's amazing how u were able 2 put up with us 4 a hole 9 months. U kept our spirits high when they were low, you kept our feet on solid ground when we were sure 2 fall. It was your dedication 2 us that made us strong & made us strive 2 b bigger & better. We R greatful 2 have experienced this year with u. Enjoy retirement. Most of all thank u 4 the many laughs that we have shared. 2 Veronica, it wouldn't hurt 2 stop some time soon, your work is greatly appreciated, u worked hard. Good luck next year. 2 Steev, it wouldn't have hurt if you came to the meetings earlier. 2 Atiba, where were u? (kidding). 2 Nicole, thanx u 4 the art done 4 special events. 2 Noah, your art wasn't bad at all just need a little working on. 2 Morgan, u & Noah made a great team. Keep up the good work. 2 Tannissa, we'll never 4get the Retreat, many laughs. 2 Farah, the quiet 1 among us, it was nice having u on the council. 2 Bimal, thanx 4 getting in the messages every week. 2 Marica (Mars Bar), u did your job well. Thanx so very much 4 going around in the mornings, you're brave. 2 Cathy, thanx 4 being involved & always lending a helping hand. Thanx 4 being the pick up girl 4 the cookies (Felix & Norton). 2 Pam, thanx 4 your work on the winter carnival. It wouldn't have happened with out you're work. 2 Akelia, thanx 4 always having a few smart words at the meetings, they were insightful. 2 Malika (Twinkles), it wouldn't have hurt if you sticked around 2 the meetings (where did she go?). 2 Robert, the guy who sold the most chocolates on parent & teacher nite. U were great. 2 Tasha, your per-sistance will take you far.

Personally, the council have been better than it had been this year. The amount of leadership that was shown was remarkable. We were all trying to achieve something & we all came out winners with our leading man, Mr. Forman. We'll never forget u.

 A personal message 2 Mr. Levine. Hope u enjoyed your cake or should we say what was left of it. Hint: The knife.

Ottawa, Quebec aid flood victims
Most people who had a home to return to in flood-ravaged eastern Quebec were back by the end of July, as work crews scrambled to restore electricity and telephone services.

More than 12,000 people were evacuated when flash floods swept through the Saguenay-Lac St. Jean, North Shore and Gaspésie regions July 20-21.

At least seven people were killed in the disaster and about 1,300 homes and businesses were destroyed or seriously damaged.

About 2,000 people whose homes are moved or are uninhabitable will be removed from temporary shelters to homes and apartments until new lodgings can be built for them.

Quebec Premier Lucien Bouchard announced the establishment July 22 of a $100-million fund to help flood victims rebuild roads, bridges and homes, of which Ottawa will kick in about $150 million. But authorities say damages could be as high as $450 million.

Bouchard praised Ottawa for its quick response to the crisis. He said Prime Minister Jean Chrétien had promised him that Ottawa would help Quebec that was hit by the disaster.

putting new teeth in old laws, Quebec Premier Lucien Bouchard rouses French-English tensions

By MICHAEL S. SERRILL

LAST OCTOBER SEPARATIST FIRE-brand Lucien Bouchard stunned the world by almost leading predominantly French-speaking Quebec out of Canada—losing a referendum on the sovereignty issue by 1% of the vote. But when Bouchard took over as premier of Quebec in January, he adopted a decidedly moderate tone. In March he held a conciliatory meeting with English-speaking businessmen at which he said his top priority was to end the clanking Quebec economy. In April he promised there would be no new legislation favoring the French language for at least a year, and that there would be no new referendum on Quebec's separation from Canada until 1999.

Politics, however, has intervened on the other side by putting new teeth in old laws, Quebec Premier Lucien Bouchard rouses French-English tensions

By MICHAEL S. SERRILL

LAST OCTOBER SEPARATIST FIRE-brand Lucien Bouchard stunned the world by almost leading predominantly French-speaking Quebec out of Canada—losing a referendum on the sovereignty issue by 1% of the vote. But when Bouchard took over as premier of Quebec in January, he adopted a decidedly moderate tone. In March he held a conciliatory meeting with English-speaking businessmen at which he said his top priority was to end the clanking Quebec economy. In April he promised there would be no new legislation favoring the French language for at least a year, and that there would be no new referendum on Quebec's separation from Canada until 1999.

Politics, however, has intervened on the other side by

Forget Me Not

*My life is filled with dreams
I know will never come true
I try and think of the things
That someday I'll want to do*

*I feel the pressure coming down
I don't know where to turn
People don't seem as they appear
Maybe I can crash and burn*

*I see an ocean far away
I look there and fear the dread
One day I'll be lost in the blue
I've chosen my path, is what they said.*

*The sea animals swim in the dark
The water that they live peacefully in
Is the water that I should live for Tomorrow, I'll swim with the fish in sin.*

*As the sun shines down with the ocean so bright
I try to sit and think
My thoughts overcome with fright*

My Conscience

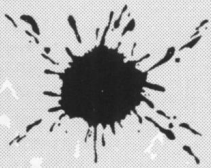

When I was six
I might not have minded,
Seeing my mother,
And not my father,
But my conscience helps me not!

I was eleven
And wise,
I'd rather hear my
Mother's voice,
Than my father's lies,
But my conscience helps me not!

Fifteen I was
And indifferent,
I don't care if
My mother talks
Or my father,
They are like statues,
That just stand there,
But my conscience helps me not.

I'm in my twenties
And I talk to no one,
Not my mother,
Not my father,
Because my conscience
Never helped me!!

Best friend

*Thoughts of you
Fill my mind,
I think of you all the time.
Joy and pain,
Days running through the rain.
Times watching T.V.,
even a movie.*

*But all good things must come to an end,
I wish I never had to let you go,
You were my best friend.*

*The love of my life,
the shine in my day,
I'd always want you by my side,
I wouldn't want it any other way.*

*But I know that you are gone,
I must learn to be strong.
Sure good things come to an end,
but it doesn't mean they can't start up again.*

*I'd love to tell you to your face,
Just once more,
I miss your kiss and sweet embrace,
but there's no need for me to tell you again.*

*You know I love you,
from beginning to end.
So remember as far as friends go you were always my best friend.*

SLEEP WALKERS

I FIND MYSELF WALKING TOWARDS A HOUSE AFTER A DREAM I HAD. I DID NOT KNOW WHY I WAS GOING THERE, BUT I KNOW I HAD TO. I GET TO THE DOOR. I HAVE BEEN HERE BEFORE. IT IS HELL. ONE OF THE DEVILS COMES OUT TO GET ME. HE IS WEARING A BLACK ROBE. HE HAS HORNS COMING OUT OF HIS HEAD. HE TAKES ME INTO A ROOM - A BIG ROOM. I CAN FEEL THE EVIL IN THE AIR. ALL THE OTHERS ARE THERE. THERE ARE CANDLES ALL AROUND. THE CANDLES ARE BLACK. THEY ARE DANCING IN A CIRCLE AROUND A TABLE IN THE CENTRE OF THE ROOM. ON THE TABLE THERE IS A SKULL. IT HAS HORNS, AND BLOOD IS POURING OUT OF IT'S EYES, AND A CROW IS STANDING ON IT'S HEAD. THEY ARE CHANTING WORDS, BUT I DON'T UNDERSTAND THEM. I GET FORCED ONTO THE TABLE, THEY START CHANTING AND DANCING AROUND ME - FASTER AND FASTER... I AM SCARED. I HAVE TO GET OUT. JUST WHEN I THOUGHT I WAS GOING TO SCREAM, I BECAME CALM AND LOOKED STRAIGHT AHEAD. I DID NOT KNOW WHAT I WAS LOOKING FOR. THEN I SAW IT. THE DEVIL REACHES TO THE TABLE, BETWEEN TWO CANDLES HE PICKS UP A SILVER CUP. HE HOLDS IT UP FOR THE OTHERS TO SEE. THEN HE COMES OVER AND POURS BLOOD OVER MY HEAD. HELP ME!!! HELP ME!!! I MUST RUN. THEY WILL KILL ME. THE HEAD DEVIL MOTIONS TO ANOTHER DEVIL WHO BRINGS HIM A KNIFE. THE BIG ONE HOLDS IT OVER HIS HEAD AND SAYS, "HAIL SATAN." HE COMES CLOSER, AND HE PUTS THE KNIFE IN MY HAND. HE PICKS UP THE CUP AND POURS BLOOD OVER IT. ANOTHER DEVIL BRINGS A LITTLE BABY. IT IS CRYING. HE PLACES IT ON THE TABLE AND POURS BLOOD ON IT'S CHEST. THEY ALL LOOK AT ME. THE CHILD'S EYES ARE OPEN, STARRING AT ME. I FEEL NERVOUS AND BEFORE I SCREAM, I PLUNGE THE KNIFE DEEP INTO MY HEART. THE CROW SCREAMS BEFORE I HIT THE GROUND. THE WINDOWS CRASH OPEN. CROWS START FLYING IN THE ROOM. THE CROW ON THE SKULL FLIES DOWN, RIPS OUT MY HEART AND FLIES AWAY WITH IT. JUST BEFORE I DIE, I CAN FEEL THE OTHER CROWS AND DEVILS EATING AWAY AT MY BODY.

Beyond the Grave Forever My Love

I walk in the shadows with pain in my heart.
I would come to you faster than Cupid's dart.
As I lay in my room trying to sleep,
I think of your beauty and start to weep.
Now the lust is gone,
I'm all alone.
I might not go to heaven because my soul is torn.
Illusions of you by my side
one day,
till we become whole,
unearth I will stay.
Unfortunately for me it's too late.
Without a heart and soul
I met fate.
Now I heave my pain, death
gave me it's cue.
I turn my back on the world without saying,
I loved you.
But I know one day after suffering my own yath,
I'm sure in a lifetime we'll walk the same path.
Beyond the grave forever my love.

Underground Butterfly

Fluttering in the remaining breeze,
Dark and humid, the underground freeze,

Freedom caged in a shadowy hollow,
With nothing but darkness and instinct to follow.
Underground butterfly, taken from life,
her love, a sharp whisper, cuts just like a knife.

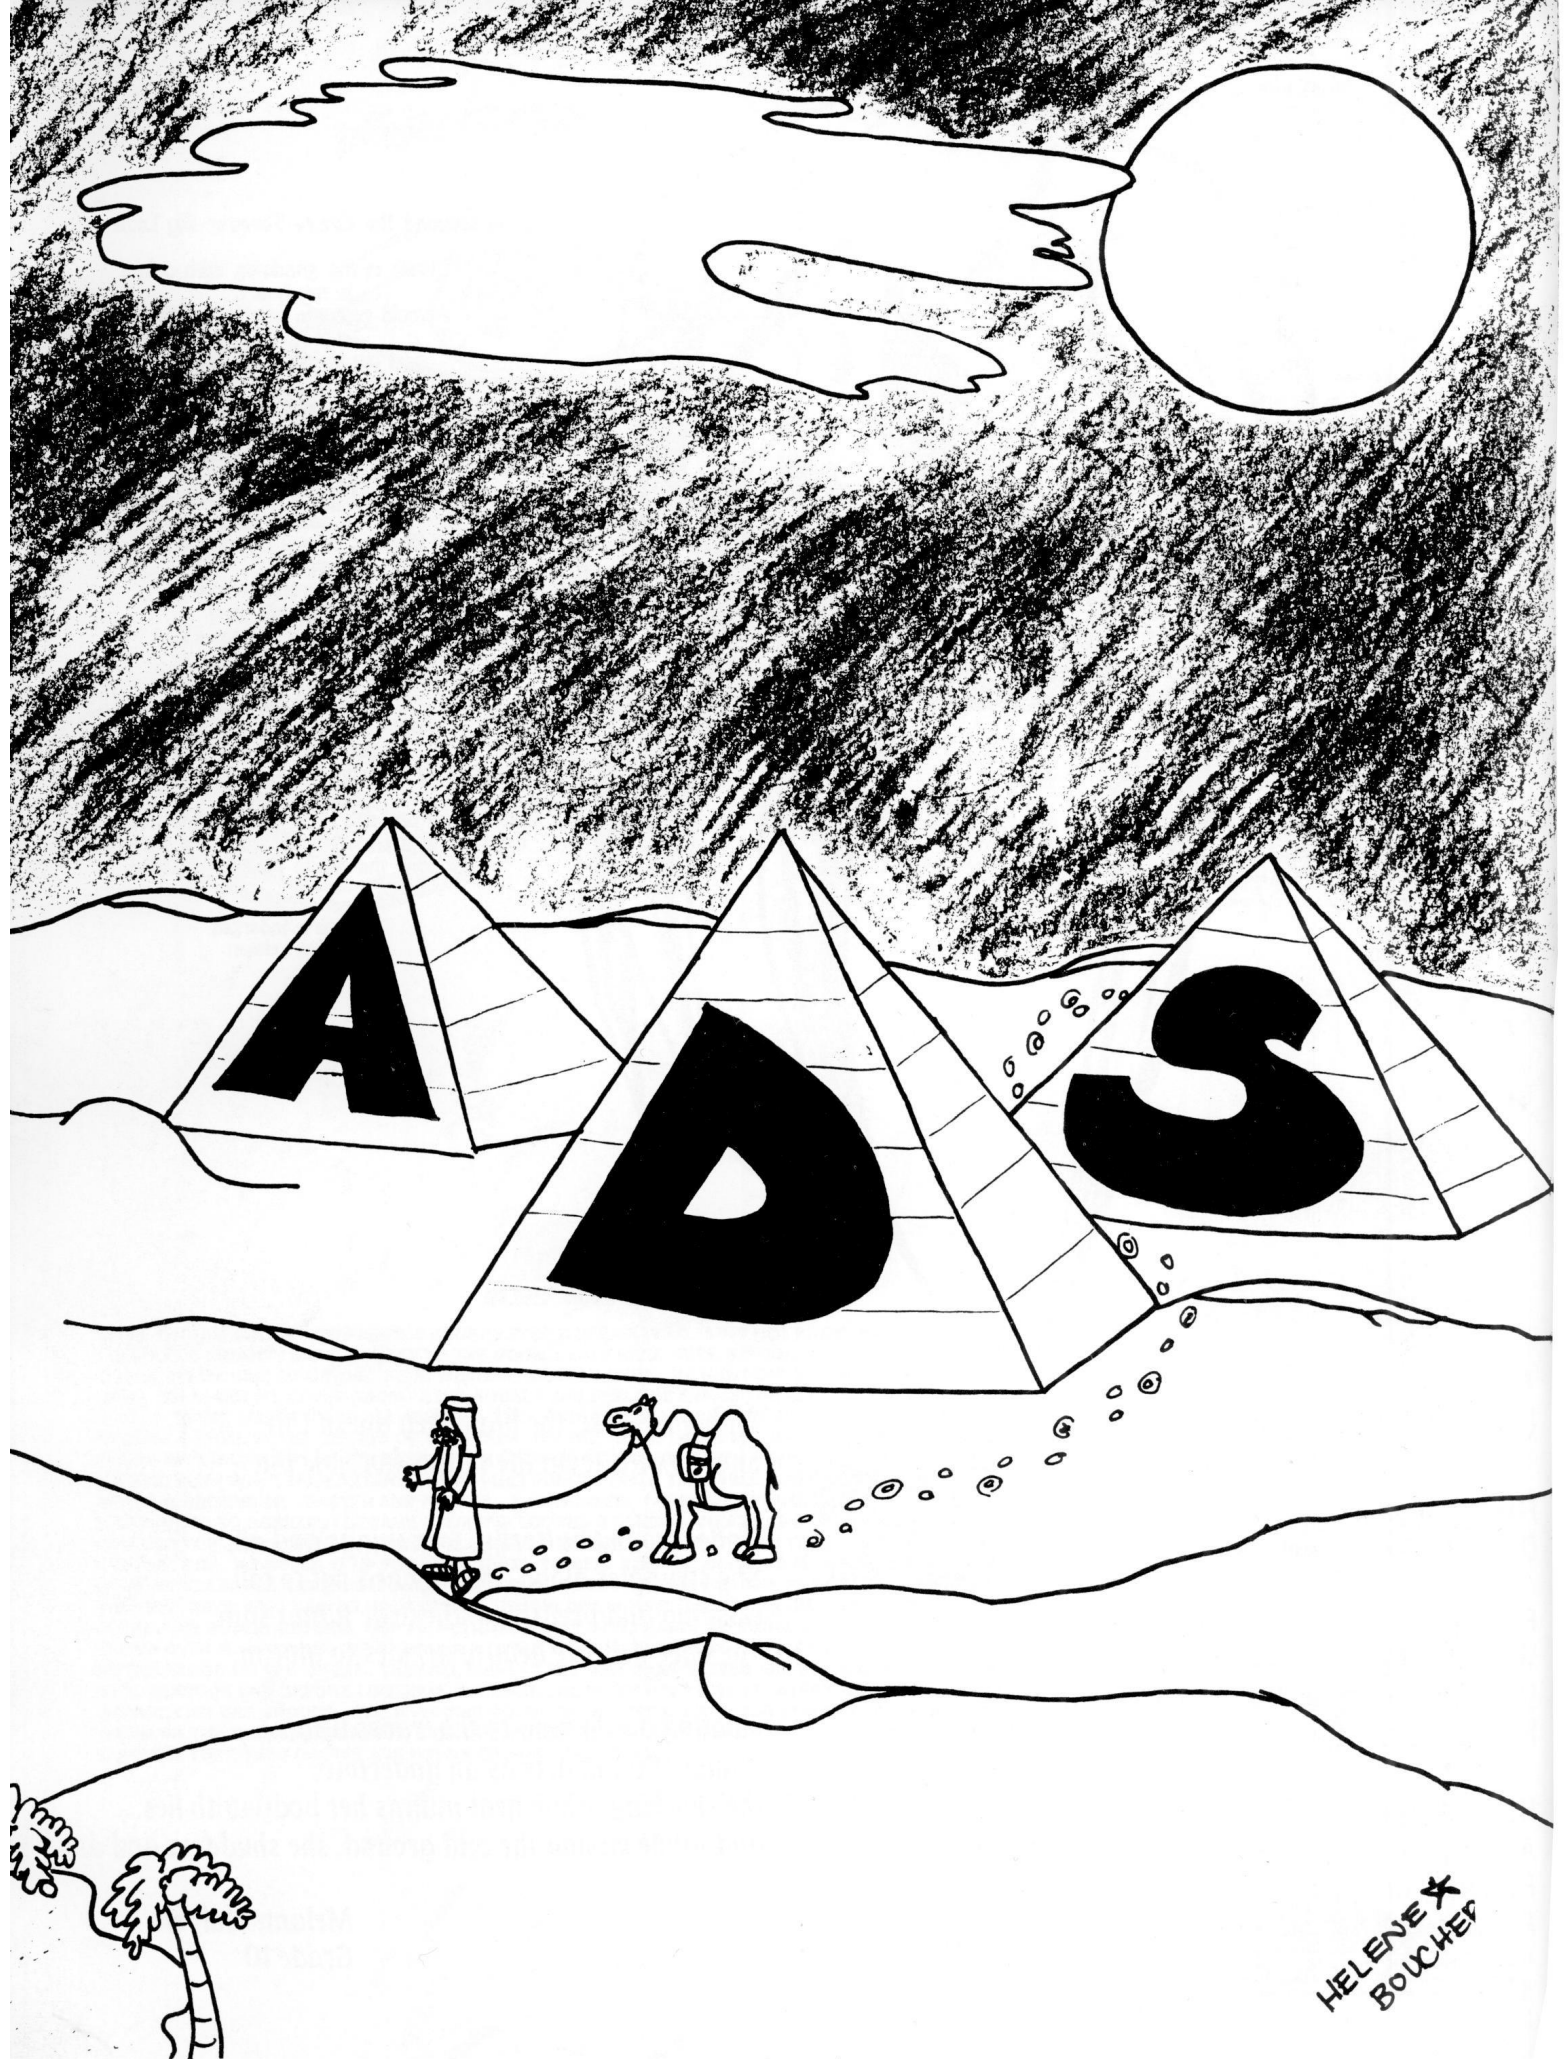

Her innocence shattered by hunger and fear,
As she watches the last ray of light disappear.
Fumbling through the mysterious tunnel,
Faster and faster, she twists in the funnel.

All hope is lost, the blank key doesn't fit,
She is exiled from life in this horrible pit.

Underground butterfly, torn wings and all,
She struggles along, trying hard not to fall.
Gasping and breathing, the toxic fumes spin,
The once delicate beauty decides to give in.

Floating down now to the tracks below,
A gust of wind acts as an undertow,
the shocking white heat maims her body with lies,
and while kissing the cold ground, she shudders and dies.

MESSAGES

Advisor's Message

What is a Yearbook? It is a compilation of all members of the administration, staff, & students in a school. It is made up of different pictures. The Yearbook has a great deal of written information & is composed of many sections. These sections are subdivided into sports, creativity, activities, etc . . . , of all grade levels.

A Yearbook is also many students combining their talents & efforts & devoting a great deal of their own time (both lunch time, after school & evenings), to work hand-in-hand & produce a final product which both they & the remainder of their school alumni can be proud to call their own. Each of these students is unique in having their own ideas assembled in a way of exhibiting the special qualities they possess.

A Yearbook is not funded on its own, but requires many of these students 2 spend late afternoons & evenings selling raffle tickets, B-Day O'Grams, Halloween O'Grams, etc., as well as pastries & coffee at dances & parent-teacher interviews. This time could be easily be spent by these students relaxing at home. Some students have spent weekends visiting businesses 2 try & sell advertising in the yearbook. They realize the importance of having 2 raise money 2 help out with the extensive costs. We want everyone to see all the time & effort it takes in order 2 put a successful yearbook together.

Both Mr. Feigen & I would like 2 thank & congratulate a terrific group of adolescents, especially our senior editor Catherine Nguyen, who took on the responsibility of encouraging each member of her staff 2 work 2 the best of their ability & did a great deal of work herself. We appreciate the work of all the members of the staff who put together an excellent yearbook. We would like 2 wish all of the graduating students the best of health, happiness, & success in all your future endeavors; 2 the remaining undergraduates, may you work hard each year so that you too can be successful & eventually move on 2 bigger & better things in the future.

Mr. M. Jacobson Mr. N. Feigen

Senior Editors' Message

Does it cost extra? For those who are not part of the yearbook staff. I hope you enjoyed this fine-quality, flawless yearbook! It took long hours & a great deal of effort from each of its members. You might b happy 2 know that we all managed to still be friends, after all those nervous breakdowns we had during our deadline week. Luckily 4 you, you never saw the work that has 2 b done, 2 what you now have in your hands.

How many of you Wagarites look forward 2 those professional days? If your answer was, yes. Lucky 4 you, because most of the staff never had one. We saw the sun set almost every day of the week. It was beautiful sight, but . . .

Throughout this past year, I learnt many lessons. 1) Never wait 2 the last minute 2 do layouts 2) Never change grad photographer (stay with Mr. Rideout) 3) Where is our yearbook rm again ?!@*$#%?

Thank you:

- 2 Mr. J. & Mr. F., 4 all those words of wisdom & confidence.
- 2 Mr. Meades, 4 always lending me a helping hand.
- 2 all the secretaries 4 all the trouble the staff caused them.
- 2 Jostens Canada Ltd., Steve & Jane.
- 2 the caretakers, who always looked after our messy room.
- 2 Mr. Ioannou, it was u who locked us out of our Rm (101).
- 2 Priority Mail, 4 always getting our layout on time.
- 2 Ruth & Genell, thanx U 4 everything, without both of u we would have never met our deadline.
- 2 Andrew, thanx U 4 always having your camera & never 4getting an important event 2 go 2.
- 2 our little helpers Dara & Viv.
- 2 every member on the staff, thanx you so much. Remember each of you are special & possess a hidden talent.

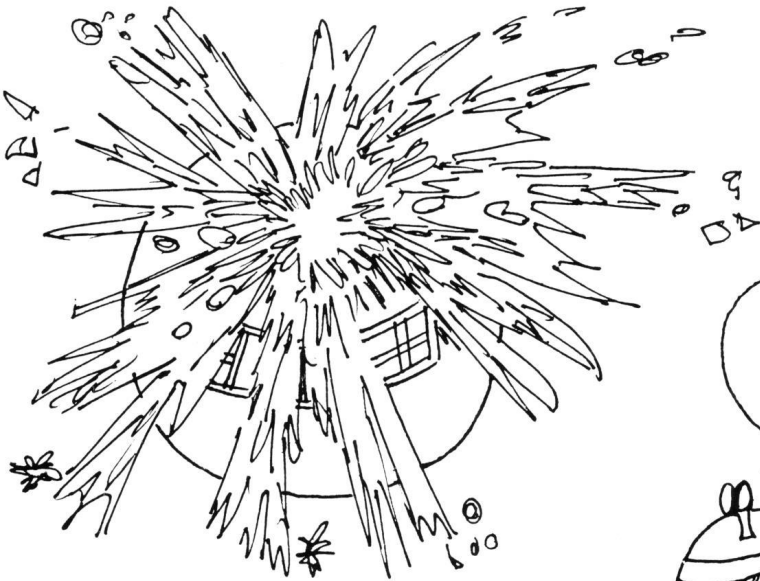

"Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them."
