

UNDERGRADS

THE HISTORY OF WAGAR

What a fine institution Wagar High School is. It carries many fine memories as well as an impressive list of fine graduates who have gone on to succeed in a variety of professions. Filmster Michael Douglas, for example, never attended this school whereas song-writer/composer David Bowie didn't.

Expo '67 had nothing to do with Wagar, this fine institution, and the olympic torch has never passed through it's glorious fields. This list of fine people never attended the mighty WHS:

Bob Barker
Gary Hart
Ghandi
Peter, Paul or Mary either
The Jacksons
Sting
John Cougar Mellencamp
Mickey Mouse
Ricardo Mantelban

"Feed the World that wasn't fed by the Feed the World Benefit Concert" Benefit Concert on the other hand was seen somewhere on the second floor by two janitors, three large basketball players and a rabbi in early December.

The following theatrical events and concerts were never seen in Wagar's beautiful auditorium:

The Police, 1982
Cats, 1983
Paul Simon, 1987
Farm Aid, 1982
Les Miserables, 1987
Evita, 1981
The Box, 1985
Elton John, 1979

The following have been caught several times misspelling Wagar (Wager):

M. Uditsky, Grade 9
P.W. Herman, Grade unknown
M. Thaw, Grade 7
C. Searles, Grade 10
B. Berko, Grade 8
L. Best, Grade 7
W. Faulconbridge
L. Alvo, grade 10
P.U. Butler, staff
D.U. McEwen, staff
A. Parsons, Head staff
I. Salsberg, Janitorial Staff

*Ed's note:

Upon further studies of the Wagar files, it is apparent that Mickey Mouse DID graduate from this high school.

WAGAR LION

WAGAR LOCK PHANTOM STRIKES AGAIN

It has been reported that a major crime has been committed right here in the havic like halls of Wagar high (unfortunately the janitorial staff has been off this week). No it's not stealing, nor is it the big "M" . . . murder. Somebody, namely the phantom, has been locking lockers together, leaving one wide open and it's tenant bewildered. If anybody has any information leading to the apprehension of the phantom please call PHA-NTOM. The accused is considered invisible and not dangerous, although he may annoy you to death!!!

STUDENTS BEWARE

An underground undergrad anonymous committee has been sending threatening letters to our student council, ask them to relay a message to the students. The message was apparently labeled "too vulgar and disgusting" to be relayed to the students but with a lot of effort and a little work, I acquired permission to have it printed! Yes, right here and right now! Wait until you hear this one! This is definitely a HUGE secret! Boy, are all you students privileged to be approximately the fifth group of people to hear this! Oops! I've run out of space! I guess you will simply have to wait for the next edition of the WAGAR LION.

BECOME ANOREXIC; GYM UNIFORMS TOO TIGHT!

A sudden shock of red and blue hits you as you venture down the second floor hallway. A sale at K-Mart? A clearance at Boni-Prix? Did the gym staff go nuts? All of these are right but it's not the cause that worries us but the consequences.

Recent government reports show that seventh grade Wagarites wear gym uniforms all day not because they can't change their own clothes, but because the uniforms are too tight. Says P.T.A. representative Willimina Willington, "We'll have to starve them out of them." Apparently many seventh grade students are permanently stuck in their red and blue attire.

So far deaths are none, but the casualty rate is high and still growing; seven children have become anorexic in hope of slipping out of their uniforms. The armed forces have been brought in and everything from blow torches to sand blasters have been tried, so far nothing has worked.

The real question still remains unanswered, "WHY ARE THE GYM UNIFORMS RED AND BLUE?" Maybe next year if they use the school colours the uniforms may fit.

- a) Roots
- b) Your local army surplus
- c) Sports Experts
- d) The thrift shop around the corner.
- e) Reitman's
- f) Jonny Brown
- g) Bonimart

2) Where would you like to spend your next vacation?

- a) Club Med:Cancun
- b) Wild Wood N.J.
- c) Hockey Camp
- d) Libia.
- e) Centennial Day Camp (camper)
- f) With Le Grand Ballet (Canadienne)
- g) Toronto

3) How do you wake up in the morning?

- a) Your mom wakes you up with a kiss on the cheek.
- b) To your favorite S.C.U.M. album.
- c) Rolling out of bed, landing in a push-up position, ready for 250.
- d) Your cat jumps on your face.
- e) To the tedious buzzing of your calculator wrist watch.
- f) CBS's Monday morning Mozart (on tape 5 days a week)
- g) To your brother playing drums on your head.

4) What was the last book you read?

- a) Hollywood Husbands - Jackie Collins
- b) Hop on Pop - Dr. Seuss
- c) Sports Illustrated - Various
- d) Freud: The Man in the Dreams - Anonymous
- e) Webster's Encyclopedia Volume X
- f) The Life and Times of Mikail Barishnykov
- g) Sweet Valley High #64 - Francine Pascal

If you choose mostly A's, congratulations, you're a desert boot.

If you choose mostly B's, our condolences, you're a combat boot.

If you choose mostly C's, good for you, you're an Adidas Running Shoe.

If you choose mostly D's, perhaps you'll grow out of it, you're a high cut black converse.

If you choose mostly E's, you have our greatest respect, you're a kangaroo shoe (with velcro).

If you choose mostly F's, you have our highest esteem, you're a black chinese ballet slipper.

If you choose mostly G's, terrific! You're a Sporto running shoe.

ODE TO AN UNDERGRAD

They start in grade seven
With Bar-mitzvahs and zits
A warped type of heaven
For a strange group of twits

In the eighth grade
They think they're in like flin
But as long as they have elders
They'll never win

Soon comes grade nine
With geography tests
Much harder math
And of corse I.P.S.

Then comes grade ten
With sweets and cars
Close to the end
But seems further then Mars

The undergrad years
Are the ones you remember
'Cause they go so quick
June straight from September
